Carleton County Parish Elections Promise to be Interesting—Big Meeting Held Saturday Evening.

Special to The Standard. Hartland, Oct. 6.—The much talked of meeting to discuss parish politics came off in Burki's Hall on Saturday evening, about 35 electors being present. All four candidates were to be present, but only three put in an appearance. Edward McCallum was made chairman and introduced the speakers.

Councillor Britton was the first to take the platform and he went into the record of himself and Councillor Morgan for the past four years at the council board, showing that they had done much for the parish and the county. He promised his best efforts if elected again.

Councillor Morgan was the next, and he dealt at length with the finances of the parish, showing them to be in a more healthy state than for many years previous. All old uncollected assessments lists prior to 1910 had been cancelled in 1912, and since that time with a new collector for the whole of the parish the taxes had been gathered in as never before, so that this year the loss on the assessment will not be more than two per cent. This will be made up of errors in assessment. He had given freely of his time and felt proud of the condition in which the parish is today. If re-elected he would exercise the same vigilance as in the past, and though called the baby of the council he felt that he had done a man's work and had done it well.

Henry London, one of the new candidates, made a good impression, and promised faithful attention to the duties of a councillor if elected. He repudiated the efforts of the Liberal leaders to make a pit's pay of him, and promised if elected to deal out even justice to all regardless of their political faith.

The other candidate Rainford Birmingham either got cold feet or was struck with stage fright, for he did not put in an appearance, but sent in the place Albert Orser, a man nearly double with years and indignities, who had more grit than he who sought the suffrage of the electors, while he made the evening in the tinshop adjoining the hall, where matters of interest to the parish were being discussed.

From the feeling of the meeting and the clean record produced by the old councillors, there is not much doubt of their reelection. On Wednesday night at a meeting at Centreville Glen Wilson, of Centreville, and Wilmet Anderson, of Wilmet, were chosen to contest the parish of Wilmet where it was supposed no contest would take place.

Many Millions Represented by American Bankers Association—Catholic Church Extension Society

Special Cor. of The Standard. Boston, Oct. 5.—Boston is entertaining four important conventions this month. This week some 10,000 bank men are represented by 5000 banking men attending the convention of the American Bankers' Association.

The city bankers are not expected to take kindly to the Democratic currency reform programme, suggested largely by the prime minister of the United States, Mr. Bryan, of Free Silver fame, but the western and southern banks rather like the measure, which will be acted upon at Washington during the coming week.

Another big convention will be that of the Catholic Church Extension Society of the United States, of which by the way, the Very Rev. Francis C. Kelley, D. D., a native of Prince Edward Island, is president. The society will assemble here Oct. 19. Kelley was born at Vernon River, P. E. I., in 1870. He received his education for the priesthood at Laval university, studied classics at St. Dunstan's college, Charlottetown, and philosophy and theology at Nicolet Seminary. He was ordained to the priesthood in 1893 and served as pastor of the church at Lapeer, Mich., until 1907.

With Archbishop Quigley, of Chicago, he founded the society which has done so much to spread the doctrines of the Roman Catholic faith in places throughout the United States and its possessions.

Dr. Kelley is the founder and editor in chief of the Extension Magazine. He served as captain and chaplain in the 32nd Michigan Volunteer Infantry during the war with Spain; captain and chaplain of the Michigan National Guard for six years; Colonel and aide-de-camp on staff of commander-in-chief of the Spanish-American war veterans one year; vice-commander-in-chief of the United States for five years. He is a member of the University Club, of Chicago, and the author of "The Last Battle of the Gods," "The Flaming Cross," and numerous brochures, short stories, etc.

The 10th triennial convention of the supreme lodge, Order Sons of the Good Templars, opened here today. Representatives from 29 states, numbering over 100 delegates, participated. A committee of the Daughters of the Good Templars are looking after the wants of the visiting women. The first day of the convention was devoted to a social gathering and reception at the Brunswick at 8 p. m.; Tuesday, exemplification of degree work in Paine Memorial Hall, at 2 p. m., and parade and public meeting at Tremont Temple, at 5 p. m.; Wednesday, auto ride through the metropolitan park system to Nahant, at 1 p. m.; Thursday, boat ride around the harbor at 1.30 p. m. A banquet will close the convention Thursday evening.

Nearly one-third of the order consists of former Canadians, and quite a number of ex-St. John residents are attending the sessions.

Another convention was that of the American Reunion Ray Society, which concluded its sessions Saturday. Dr. G. G. Corbett, of St. John, was among the delegates from Canada.

WEDDINGS.

O'Brien-Sexton. In St. Rose's Church at 6 o'clock yesterday morning the pastor, Rev. Charles Colville, united in marriage Miss Mary Sexton and Fred O'Brien. She was attended by Mrs. Leo Maloney as matron of honor, who wore a pretty suit of cream with plumes and black picture hat with ostrich plumes and carried a bouquet of carnations. Leo Maloney supported the groom. Following the ceremony a dainty wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride, Main street, Fairville. Mr. and Mrs. O'Brien left on a bridal tour to the States, returning they will reside on Adelaide street. They were the recipients of many beautiful floral presents.

Jackson-Lafferty. St. Peter's church, North End, was the scene of a very pretty wedding at six o'clock yesterday morning, when Wilbur H. Jackson was united in marriage with Miss Mary M. Lafferty. Nuptial Mass was celebrated by Rev. Jos. H. Borgmann, C. S.S.R. The bride, who was given away by her cousin, J. J. Ryan, looked charming in a costume of white satin, with princess lace, pearl trimmings and a white picture hat, trimmed with willow plumes and carried a bouquet of bridal roses. The bridesmaid was Miss Elizabeth H. Brown, who wore pink nixon over pale blue satin, and wore a black velvet hat with ostrich bandeau and French roses. Thomas Lafferty, brother of the bride, acted as groomsmen. After the ceremony a sumptuous wedding breakfast was served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Ryan, Clarendon street, after which the happy couple left on the Fredericton boat for a tour of the provinces. The groom's gift to the bride was a platinum coat, to the bridesmaid a pearl stick pin. The bride was the recipient of many useful presents, including oil, silver and furniture.

DEADLOCK IN DUBLIN STRIKE IS UNBROKEN

Employers Refuse to Consider Basis for Agreement Submitted by Sir George Askwith—Men Willing. Dublin, Oct. 6.—The deadlock between the employers and the striking transport workers here is complete and there seems to be no prospect of an immediate settlement of the dispute.

Sir Geo. Askwith, the official "strikebreaker" and his fellow commissioners of the Board of Trade, submitted to both sides this morning a set of proposals for the settlement of direct negotiations between the disputants. These proposals were accepted by the men but the employers refused to agree.

The report of the commissioners condemns the demand made by the employers that the men shall undertake not to join the Transport Workers Union and at the same time condemns sympathetic strikes by other workmen.

ROYAL AUTHORESS THREATENED WITH INCOME REDUCTION

Signora Tersil, of Saxon Royal House, has written Libretto for Comic Oper Fear Attacks.

Lepsec, Germany, Oct. 6.—Signora Tersil, formerly Crown Princess Louise of Saxony, will, it is announced here, probably become involved in trouble with the Saxon government in connection with the libretto for which she has written the libretto and whose approaching production is announced in Rome.

The government declares that if the work contains any attacks on the Saxon royal family it will cut down the princess' annuity, which already has been reduced to 20,000 marks, and possibly to 10,000 marks. The authorities will, however, abstain from any criminal or civil prosecution, which into effect would only furnish publicity for the work.

MANY NOVELTIES AT BIG NEW IMPERIAL

Italian Musicians Pleased Crowds Greatly with Foreign Act—Manetta and Especially Good Pictures

"Bigga da hit." That's what the advance billing of the Italian act, Manetta and especially good pictures, has done for the Imperial.

It was a genuinely trans-Atlantic offering, a sweet melody from Italy and the applause at its close was all that any artist could desire it is safe to say that it will grow more popular each day. Contrabass, strings, bandanna handkerchiefs and slouch hats are pleasing changes from the proper evening attire of performers and the novelty too greatly. Signor Manetta—lots of Italian music—sang a Travotors selection and then for a "b" number rendered a verse of the popular ballad, "Till the Sands of the Desert Grow Cold." As usual there was a riot of applause.

The pictures were more than usual interesting. A two-act story was given by the wife of Otis Skinner, the great metropolitan star, and entitled "The Ne'er to Return Road," was of compelling interest from the start.

Maurice Costello, Clara Kimball Young and the Costello Indian drama "The Hindoo Charm" and the Edison have plenty of interest from the start.

A Trip in Damascus, the oldest city in the world. This is a fine bill to remain for today and it is really too good to miss. Tomorrow and Thursday the birth of the absorbing "Mary" series is to be featured, and the Edison have a big surprise coming to them this week. Wednesday is also Pathe Weekly day.

BIG MARSH IN ONTARIO FIRE SWEEP

Six Thousands Tons of Hay with Barns, Fences and Farm Machinery in Ashes.

Toronto, Oct. 6.—Six thousand tons of marsh hay, scattered over an area of eight square miles, near the town of Bradford, Simcoe county, were destroyed by fire on Sunday afternoon. Incendiarism is suspected, and in the district affected there is an outcry for a government investigation at once. The fire checked finally by the Holland river.

This stretch of marsh land is the source of supply for several Toronto firms which manufacture mattresses. Most of the marsh is owned by people who live at Holland Landing, though the land is fairly well split up among various owners.

The loss is estimated at $60,000, as barns, machinery and fences were all destroyed.

Dr. Chase's Ointment. Many suffer from this trouble not knowing the comfort to be obtained by the use of this great soothing ointment.

Mrs. R. J. Evans, 187 Munro street, Toronto, writes: "We have used Dr. Chase's Ointment for years. I have been troubled with varicose veins, and this is the only thing that gives relief. For every purpose when a soothing, healing ointment is needed there is nothing so good as Dr. Chase's Ointment." 60 cents a box all dealers or Edmundson, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto.

IS THIS LIKE YOUR CASE?

Mrs. F. Gervais, of 126 Bleury Street, Montreal, writes:—"My baby girl developed a bad rash on her body and it made her very fretful and ill. She would not take food and seemed very sick indeed. From fifteen pounds, her weight fell away to nine and a half pounds.

"I took her to a doctor who gave me a kind of lotion to use and I used it regularly, but the baby got no relief. The skin disease seemed to get worse and worse all the time we were doctoring for it, so we took the child to a second doctor. He told me to stop nursing the baby, and gave me other advice which I followed, but the skin disease got worse and worse.

"At this time a friend of mine visited us and, having seen the rash, she took my baby to her home and applied Zam-Buk to its little body. This seemed to give the baby ease right from the first. It cured the sores and began to reduce the inflammation. I went on with the Zam-Buk treatment, and to my delight within one week from that starting with Zam-Buk the child looked like a different baby altogether! Within a month the skin disease was cured completely, the baby's appetite had returned and she was almost back at her normal weight. She now looks like the very picture of health.

"There is another feature of the case. One of the doctors has just sent me in a bill for $32! The treatment I got for that money left the child no better than before it was started. The cost of Zam-Buk treatment, which restored my child to health, was $2!"

"Every mother should know what a splendid healer Zam-Buk is." Zam-Buk is a "short cut" to skin healing. Use it for all skin injuries and diseases, eczema, ulcers, blood poison, etc., and for piles. All druggists and stores, 50 cents a box, or post free from ZAM-BUK CO., Toronto, for price, refuse harmful imitations.
