

GRAND TRUNK CAUSES MORE WARM DEBATE

Two Amendments Introduced by the Opposition Let Loose Flood of Oratory.

MR. FIELDING GETS SARCASTIC

Private Interests Accused of Being the Real Opposition to C. T. Acquisition by the Government.

Ottawa, Oct. 27.—Two amendments to the Grand Trunk bill were introduced today in the House...

The debate became warmer when Hon. N. W. Rowell and Hon. W. S. Fielding entered the lists later in the evening.

The immediate results of the election in that Canada is witnessing a revival against both the old parties...

Mr. Fielding made charge. Hon. W. S. Fielding charged Mr. Rowell with drawing a red herring across the trail.

Mr. Rowell retorted that the President of the Privy Council could not overcome the virtues of public ownership.

Mr. Fielding retorted that the President of the Privy Council could not overcome the virtues of public ownership.

Mr. Fielding retorted that the President of the Privy Council could not overcome the virtues of public ownership.

Mr. Fielding retorted that the President of the Privy Council could not overcome the virtues of public ownership.

Mr. Fielding retorted that the President of the Privy Council could not overcome the virtues of public ownership.

Mr. Fielding retorted that the President of the Privy Council could not overcome the virtues of public ownership.

Mr. Fielding retorted that the President of the Privy Council could not overcome the virtues of public ownership.

Mr. Fielding retorted that the President of the Privy Council could not overcome the virtues of public ownership.

Mr. Fielding retorted that the President of the Privy Council could not overcome the virtues of public ownership.

Mr. Fielding retorted that the President of the Privy Council could not overcome the virtues of public ownership.

Mr. Fielding retorted that the President of the Privy Council could not overcome the virtues of public ownership.

Mr. Fielding retorted that the President of the Privy Council could not overcome the virtues of public ownership.

Mr. Fielding retorted that the President of the Privy Council could not overcome the virtues of public ownership.

POLITICAL UPHEAVAL IN FAVOR OF AGRARIAN PARTY CONTINUED YESTERDAY

The Farmers' Movement Which Started in Ontario Last Week Has Been Carried Into Federal Field—In Five Bye-Elections Held Monday Farmers' Candidates Swept Three of the Five Constituencies—Gigantic Size of Majorities of the Farmers' Candidates is Impressive Feature of the Election.

GEN. YUDENITCH ACKNOWLEDGES DIFFICULTIES

Bolshevik Have Been Able to Bring up Strong Reinforcements for the Defense of Petrograd.

Halifax, Oct. 27.—General Yudenitch, commanding the North Russian army, acknowledged today that the difficulties of his campaign for Petrograd were increasing owing to the bringing up by the Bolsheviks of strong reinforcements into their threatened positions...

Halifax, Oct. 27.—General Yudenitch, commanding the North Russian army, acknowledged today that the difficulties of his campaign for Petrograd were increasing owing to the bringing up by the Bolsheviks of strong reinforcements into their threatened positions...

Halifax, Oct. 27.—General Yudenitch, commanding the North Russian army, acknowledged today that the difficulties of his campaign for Petrograd were increasing owing to the bringing up by the Bolsheviks of strong reinforcements into their threatened positions...

Halifax, Oct. 27.—General Yudenitch, commanding the North Russian army, acknowledged today that the difficulties of his campaign for Petrograd were increasing owing to the bringing up by the Bolsheviks of strong reinforcements into their threatened positions...

Halifax, Oct. 27.—General Yudenitch, commanding the North Russian army, acknowledged today that the difficulties of his campaign for Petrograd were increasing owing to the bringing up by the Bolsheviks of strong reinforcements into their threatened positions...

Halifax, Oct. 27.—General Yudenitch, commanding the North Russian army, acknowledged today that the difficulties of his campaign for Petrograd were increasing owing to the bringing up by the Bolsheviks of strong reinforcements into their threatened positions...

Halifax, Oct. 27.—General Yudenitch, commanding the North Russian army, acknowledged today that the difficulties of his campaign for Petrograd were increasing owing to the bringing up by the Bolsheviks of strong reinforcements into their threatened positions...

Halifax, Oct. 27.—General Yudenitch, commanding the North Russian army, acknowledged today that the difficulties of his campaign for Petrograd were increasing owing to the bringing up by the Bolsheviks of strong reinforcements into their threatened positions...

Halifax, Oct. 27.—General Yudenitch, commanding the North Russian army, acknowledged today that the difficulties of his campaign for Petrograd were increasing owing to the bringing up by the Bolsheviks of strong reinforcements into their threatened positions...

Halifax, Oct. 27.—General Yudenitch, commanding the North Russian army, acknowledged today that the difficulties of his campaign for Petrograd were increasing owing to the bringing up by the Bolsheviks of strong reinforcements into their threatened positions...

Halifax, Oct. 27.—General Yudenitch, commanding the North Russian army, acknowledged today that the difficulties of his campaign for Petrograd were increasing owing to the bringing up by the Bolsheviks of strong reinforcements into their threatened positions...

Halifax, Oct. 27.—General Yudenitch, commanding the North Russian army, acknowledged today that the difficulties of his campaign for Petrograd were increasing owing to the bringing up by the Bolsheviks of strong reinforcements into their threatened positions...

Halifax, Oct. 27.—General Yudenitch, commanding the North Russian army, acknowledged today that the difficulties of his campaign for Petrograd were increasing owing to the bringing up by the Bolsheviks of strong reinforcements into their threatened positions...

Halifax, Oct. 27.—General Yudenitch, commanding the North Russian army, acknowledged today that the difficulties of his campaign for Petrograd were increasing owing to the bringing up by the Bolsheviks of strong reinforcements into their threatened positions...

Halifax, Oct. 27.—General Yudenitch, commanding the North Russian army, acknowledged today that the difficulties of his campaign for Petrograd were increasing owing to the bringing up by the Bolsheviks of strong reinforcements into their threatened positions...

Halifax, Oct. 27.—General Yudenitch, commanding the North Russian army, acknowledged today that the difficulties of his campaign for Petrograd were increasing owing to the bringing up by the Bolsheviks of strong reinforcements into their threatened positions...

Halifax, Oct. 27.—General Yudenitch, commanding the North Russian army, acknowledged today that the difficulties of his campaign for Petrograd were increasing owing to the bringing up by the Bolsheviks of strong reinforcements into their threatened positions...

CONGRESS KILLS ALL HOPE OF WET SPELL IN U. S.

President's Unsuspected Veto of the Prohibition Bill Caused "Dry" Leaders to Get Very Busy.

BILL PASSED OVER THE VETO

Hope of the Big "Wet Spell" That Would Run Over the Christmas Season Vanishes Into Thin Air.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 27.—President Wilson unexpectedly vetoed the Prohibition Enforcement Bill today and within three hours the house had re-passed it over his veto by a vote of 317 to 237.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 27.—President Wilson unexpectedly vetoed the Prohibition Enforcement Bill today and within three hours the house had re-passed it over his veto by a vote of 317 to 237.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 27.—President Wilson unexpectedly vetoed the Prohibition Enforcement Bill today and within three hours the house had re-passed it over his veto by a vote of 317 to 237.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 27.—President Wilson unexpectedly vetoed the Prohibition Enforcement Bill today and within three hours the house had re-passed it over his veto by a vote of 317 to 237.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 27.—President Wilson unexpectedly vetoed the Prohibition Enforcement Bill today and within three hours the house had re-passed it over his veto by a vote of 317 to 237.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 27.—President Wilson unexpectedly vetoed the Prohibition Enforcement Bill today and within three hours the house had re-passed it over his veto by a vote of 317 to 237.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 27.—President Wilson unexpectedly vetoed the Prohibition Enforcement Bill today and within three hours the house had re-passed it over his veto by a vote of 317 to 237.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 27.—President Wilson unexpectedly vetoed the Prohibition Enforcement Bill today and within three hours the house had re-passed it over his veto by a vote of 317 to 237.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 27.—President Wilson unexpectedly vetoed the Prohibition Enforcement Bill today and within three hours the house had re-passed it over his veto by a vote of 317 to 237.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 27.—President Wilson unexpectedly vetoed the Prohibition Enforcement Bill today and within three hours the house had re-passed it over his veto by a vote of 317 to 237.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 27.—President Wilson unexpectedly vetoed the Prohibition Enforcement Bill today and within three hours the house had re-passed it over his veto by a vote of 317 to 237.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 27.—President Wilson unexpectedly vetoed the Prohibition Enforcement Bill today and within three hours the house had re-passed it over his veto by a vote of 317 to 237.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 27.—President Wilson unexpectedly vetoed the Prohibition Enforcement Bill today and within three hours the house had re-passed it over his veto by a vote of 317 to 237.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 27.—President Wilson unexpectedly vetoed the Prohibition Enforcement Bill today and within three hours the house had re-passed it over his veto by a vote of 317 to 237.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 27.—President Wilson unexpectedly vetoed the Prohibition Enforcement Bill today and within three hours the house had re-passed it over his veto by a vote of 317 to 237.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 27.—President Wilson unexpectedly vetoed the Prohibition Enforcement Bill today and within three hours the house had re-passed it over his veto by a vote of 317 to 237.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 27.—President Wilson unexpectedly vetoed the Prohibition Enforcement Bill today and within three hours the house had re-passed it over his veto by a vote of 317 to 237.

U. S. GOVERNMENT STANDS PAT ON WILSON'S ULTIMATUM TO MINERS THREATENING TO STRIKE

Whole Federal Machinery, Already Set up for Emergency, is Prepared to Deal With Conditions in Mining Fields Unless the Legislative Board of Miners Vote to Reaccede Strike Order—Believed That Large Part of Men Will Stick to Their Jobs if Strike is Called.

WASHINGTON, D. C., OCT. 27.—The government stood pat today on President Wilson's ultimatum to the soft coal miners of the country that the strike ordered for November 1st must not take place.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 27.—The government stood pat today on President Wilson's ultimatum to the soft coal miners of the country that the strike ordered for November 1st must not take place.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 27.—The government stood pat today on President Wilson's ultimatum to the soft coal miners of the country that the strike ordered for November 1st must not take place.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 27.—The government stood pat today on President Wilson's ultimatum to the soft coal miners of the country that the strike ordered for November 1st must not take place.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 27.—The government stood pat today on President Wilson's ultimatum to the soft coal miners of the country that the strike ordered for November 1st must not take place.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 27.—The government stood pat today on President Wilson's ultimatum to the soft coal miners of the country that the strike ordered for November 1st must not take place.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 27.—The government stood pat today on President Wilson's ultimatum to the soft coal miners of the country that the strike ordered for November 1st must not take place.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 27.—The government stood pat today on President Wilson's ultimatum to the soft coal miners of the country that the strike ordered for November 1st must not take place.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 27.—The government stood pat today on President Wilson's ultimatum to the soft coal miners of the country that the strike ordered for November 1st must not take place.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 27.—The government stood pat today on President Wilson's ultimatum to the soft coal miners of the country that the strike ordered for November 1st must not take place.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 27.—The government stood pat today on President Wilson's ultimatum to the soft coal miners of the country that the strike ordered for November 1st must not take place.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 27.—The government stood pat today on President Wilson's ultimatum to the soft coal miners of the country that the strike ordered for November 1st must not take place.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 27.—The government stood pat today on President Wilson's ultimatum to the soft coal miners of the country that the strike ordered for November 1st must not take place.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 27.—The government stood pat today on President Wilson's ultimatum to the soft coal miners of the country that the strike ordered for November 1st must not take place.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 27.—The government stood pat today on President Wilson's ultimatum to the soft coal miners of the country that the strike ordered for November 1st must not take place.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 27.—The government stood pat today on President Wilson's ultimatum to the soft coal miners of the country that the strike ordered for November 1st must not take place.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 27.—The government stood pat today on President Wilson's ultimatum to the soft coal miners of the country that the strike ordered for November 1st must not take place.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 27.—The government stood pat today on President Wilson's ultimatum to the soft coal miners of the country that the strike ordered for November 1st must not take place.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 27.—The government stood pat today on President Wilson's ultimatum to the soft coal miners of the country that the strike ordered for November 1st must not take place.

NAVAL BATTLE OFF KRONSTADT

Report Comes by Way of Finland and is Unconfirmed.

Viborg, Finland, Oct. 25.—(By the A. P. Russian)—Reports were received today that a naval battle occurred off Kronstadt yesterday.

Viborg, Finland, Oct. 25.—(By the A. P. Russian)—Reports were received today that a naval battle occurred off Kronstadt yesterday.

Viborg, Finland, Oct. 25.—(By the A. P. Russian)—Reports were received today that a naval battle occurred off Kronstadt yesterday.

Viborg, Finland, Oct. 25.—(By the A. P. Russian)—Reports were received today that a naval battle occurred off Kronstadt yesterday.

Viborg, Finland, Oct. 25.—(By the A. P. Russian)—Reports were received today that a naval battle occurred off Kronstadt yesterday.

Viborg, Finland, Oct. 25.—(By the A. P. Russian)—Reports were received today that a naval battle occurred off Kronstadt yesterday.

Viborg, Finland, Oct. 25.—(By the A. P. Russian)—Reports were received today that a naval battle occurred off Kronstadt yesterday.

JOHN MCKEOWN MAY LOSE FOOT, RESULT OF ACCIDENT

Large Piece of Steel Falls, Crushing the Bopes of One Foot—Amputation May be Necessary.

Special to The Standard Moncton, N. B., Oct. 27.—John McKewen, construction engineer for the Construction Engineering Corporation of New York, lost part of his right foot while at work installing new machinery in the C. N. R. boiler shop here this afternoon.

Special to The Standard Moncton, N. B., Oct. 27.—John McKewen, construction engineer for the Construction Engineering Corporation of New York, lost part of his right foot while at work installing new machinery in the C. N. R. boiler shop here this afternoon.

Special to The Standard Moncton, N. B., Oct. 27.—John McKewen, construction engineer for the Construction Engineering Corporation of New York, lost part of his right foot while at work installing new machinery in the C. N. R. boiler shop here this afternoon.

Special to The Standard Moncton, N. B., Oct. 27.—John McKewen, construction engineer for the Construction Engineering Corporation of New York, lost part of his right foot while at work installing new machinery in the C. N. R. boiler shop here this afternoon.

Special to The Standard Moncton, N. B., Oct. 27.—John McKewen, construction engineer for the Construction Engineering Corporation of New York, lost part of his right foot while at work installing new machinery in the C. N. R. boiler shop here this afternoon.

Special to The Standard Moncton, N. B., Oct. 27.—John McKewen, construction engineer for the Construction Engineering Corporation of New York, lost part of his right foot while at work installing new machinery in the C. N. R. boiler shop here this afternoon.

Special to The Standard Moncton, N. B., Oct. 27.—John McKewen, construction engineer for the Construction Engineering Corporation of New York, lost part of his right foot while at work installing new machinery in the C. N. R. boiler shop here this afternoon.

N. B. PETROLEUM HOLDS ANNUAL MEETING

Special to The Standard Moncton, N. B., Oct. 27.—The annual meeting of the N. B. Petroleum Co. was held this morning with President F. W. Sumner presiding.

Special to The Standard Moncton, N. B., Oct. 27.—The annual meeting of the N. B. Petroleum Co. was held this morning with President F. W. Sumner presiding.

Special to The Standard Moncton, N. B., Oct. 27.—The annual meeting of the N. B. Petroleum Co. was held this morning with President F. W. Sumner presiding.

Special to The Standard Moncton, N. B., Oct. 27.—The annual meeting of the N. B. Petroleum Co. was held this morning with President F. W. Sumner presiding.

Special to The Standard Moncton, N. B., Oct. 27.—The annual meeting of the N. B. Petroleum Co. was held this morning with President F. W. Sumner presiding.

Special to The Standard Moncton, N. B., Oct. 27.—The annual meeting of the N. B. Petroleum Co. was held this morning with President F. W. Sumner presiding.

Special to The Standard Moncton, N. B., Oct. 27.—The annual meeting of the N. B. Petroleum Co. was held this morning with President F. W. Sumner presiding.

Special to The Standard Moncton, N. B., Oct. 27.—The annual meeting of the N. B. Petroleum Co. was held this morning with President F. W. Sumner presiding.

ONT. REFERENDUM RETURNS COMING IN VERY SLOWLY

There Has Been No Request of the Authorities for a Recount as Yet.

Toronto, Ont., Oct. 27.—A. H. Sydere, clerk of the House, today stated that the referendum returns are coming in very slowly, due to the employment of inexperienced men.

Toronto, Ont., Oct. 27.—A. H. Sydere, clerk of the House, today stated that the referendum returns are coming in very slowly, due to the employment of inexperienced men.

Toronto, Ont., Oct. 27.—A. H. Sydere, clerk of the House, today stated that the referendum returns are coming in very slowly, due to the employment of inexperienced men.

Toronto, Ont., Oct. 27.—A. H. Sydere, clerk of the House, today stated that the referendum returns are coming in very slowly, due to the employment of inexperienced men.

Toronto, Ont., Oct. 27.—A. H. Sydere, clerk of the House, today stated that the referendum returns are coming in very slowly, due to the employment of inexperienced men.

Toronto, Ont., Oct. 27.—A. H. Sydere, clerk of the House, today stated that the referendum returns are coming in very slowly, due to the employment of inexperienced men.

Toronto, Ont., Oct. 27.—A. H. Sydere, clerk of the House, today stated that the referendum returns are coming in very slowly, due to the employment of inexperienced men.

DEATH FOLLOWS EATING OF RIPE OLIVES IN DETROIT

Chemical Analysis Showed the Fruit Contained Poisonous Bacilli.

Detroit, Mich., Oct. 27.—Seizure of all ripe olives in the stock of retail stores was begun today because of the deaths of five persons who attended a dinner last week at which the fruit was served.

Detroit, Mich., Oct. 27.—Seizure of all ripe olives in the stock of retail stores was begun today because of the deaths of five persons who attended a dinner last week at which the fruit was served.

Detroit, Mich., Oct. 27.—Seizure of all ripe olives in the stock of retail stores was begun today because of the deaths of five persons who attended a dinner last week at which the fruit was served.

Detroit, Mich., Oct. 27.—Seizure of all ripe olives in the stock of retail stores was begun today because of the deaths of five persons who attended a dinner last week at which the fruit was served.

Detroit, Mich., Oct. 27.—Seizure of all ripe olives in the stock of retail stores was begun today because of the deaths of five persons who attended a dinner last week at which the fruit was served.

Detroit, Mich., Oct. 27.—Seizure of all ripe olives in the stock of retail stores was begun today because of the deaths of five persons who attended a dinner last week at which the fruit was served.

Detroit, Mich., Oct. 27.—Seizure of all ripe olives in the stock of retail stores was begun today because of the deaths of five persons who attended a dinner last week at which the fruit was served.

Detroit, Mich., Oct. 27.—Seizure of all ripe olives in the stock of retail stores was begun today because of the deaths of five persons who attended a dinner last week at which the fruit was served.

Detroit, Mich., Oct. 27.—Seizure of all ripe olives in the stock of retail stores was begun today because of the deaths of five persons who attended a dinner last week at which the fruit was served.

THE PROSECUTION RESTS IN TRIAL OF GEO. A. LONG

Montpelier, Vt., Oct. 27.—The prosecution in the trial of George A. Long, for the murder of Mrs. Lucina C. Broadwell at Barre, on the night of May 3 last, rested its case today and the defence called its first witness, Mrs. L. A. Houghton.

Montpelier, Vt., Oct. 27.—The prosecution in the trial of George A. Long, for the murder of Mrs. Lucina C. Broadwell at Barre, on the night of May 3 last, rested its case today and the defence called its first witness, Mrs. L. A. Houghton.

Montpelier, Vt., Oct. 27.—The prosecution in the trial of George A. Long, for the murder of Mrs. Lucina C. Broadwell at Barre, on the night of May 3 last, rested its case today and the defence called its first witness, Mrs. L. A. Houghton.

Montpelier, Vt., Oct. 27.—The prosecution in the trial of George A. Long, for the murder of Mrs. Lucina C. Broadwell at Barre, on the night of May 3 last, rested its case today and the defence called its first witness, Mrs. L. A. Houghton.

Montpelier, Vt., Oct. 27.—The prosecution in the trial of George A. Long, for the murder of Mrs. Lucina C. Broadwell at Barre, on the night of May 3 last, rested its case today and the defence called its first witness, Mrs. L. A. Houghton.

Montpelier, Vt., Oct. 27.—The prosecution in the trial of George A. Long, for the murder of Mrs. Lucina C. Broadwell at Barre, on the night of May 3 last, rested its case today and the defence called its first witness, Mrs. L. A. Houghton.

Montpelier, Vt., Oct. 27.—The prosecution in the trial of George A. Long, for the murder of Mrs. Lucina C. Broadwell at Barre, on the night of May 3 last, rested its case today and the defence called its first witness, Mrs. L. A. Houghton.

Montpelier, Vt., Oct. 27.—The prosecution in the trial of George A. Long, for the murder of Mrs. Lucina C. Broadwell at Barre, on the night of May 3 last, rested its case today and the defence called its first witness, Mrs. L. A. Houghton.

Montpelier, Vt., Oct. 27.—The prosecution in the trial of George A. Long, for the murder of Mrs. Lucina C. Broadwell at Barre, on the night of May 3 last, rested its case today and the defence called its first witness, Mrs. L. A. Houghton.

Montpelier, Vt., Oct. 27.—The prosecution in the trial of George A. Long, for the murder of Mrs. Lucina C. Broadwell at Barre, on the night of May 3 last, rested its case today and the defence called its first witness, Mrs. L. A. Houghton.

JOHNSTON AMENDMENT TO PEACE TREATY REJECTED BY U. S. SENATE

The Amendment Was Designed to Equalize American and British Voting Strength in the League of Nations—Party Lines Were Ignored in Final Count.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 27.—The Johnson amendment to the Peace Treaty, designed to equalize American and British voting strength in the League of Nations, was rejected in the Senate today by a vote of 38 to 40.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 27.—The Johnson amendment to the Peace Treaty, designed to equalize American and British voting strength in the League of Nations, was rejected in the Senate today by a vote of 38 to 40.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 27.—The Johnson amendment to the Peace Treaty, designed to equalize American and British voting strength in the League of Nations, was rejected in the Senate today by a vote of 38 to 40.

GERMAN COMMUNIST PARTY IN A SPLIT

Eighteen of the Forty-Three Delegates Quit the Convention—Minority Favors Bolshevism of Russian Type.

Copenhagen, Oct. 27.—There has been a split in the German Communist party, says a Berlin despatch to the National Tidende. Eighteen out of forty-three to the party's convention quit the gathering because they considered the programme of the leaders not sufficiently radical.

Copenhagen, Oct. 27.—There has been a split in the German Communist party, says a Berlin despatch to the National Tidende. Eighteen out of forty-three to the party's convention quit the gathering because they considered the programme of the leaders not sufficiently radical.

Copenhagen, Oct. 27.—There has been a split in the German Communist party, says a Berlin despatch to the National Tidende. Eighteen out of forty-three to the party's convention quit the gathering because they considered the programme of the leaders not sufficiently radical.

Copenhagen, Oct. 27.—There has been a split in the German Communist party, says a Berlin despatch to the National Tidende. Eighteen out of forty-three to the party's convention quit the gathering because they considered the programme of the leaders not sufficiently radical.

Copenhagen, Oct. 27.—There has been a split in the German Communist party, says a Berlin despatch to the National Tidende. Eighteen out of forty-three to the party's convention quit the gathering because they considered the programme of the leaders not sufficiently radical.

Copenhagen, Oct. 27.—There has been a split in the German Communist party, says a Berlin despatch to the National Tidende. Eighteen out of forty-three to the party's convention quit the gathering because they considered the programme of the leaders not sufficiently radical.

Copenhagen, Oct. 27.—There has been a split in the German Communist party, says a Berlin despatch to the National Tidende. Eighteen out of forty-three to the party's convention quit the gathering because they considered the programme of the leaders not sufficiently radical.

Copenhagen, Oct. 27.—There has been a split in the German Communist party, says a Berlin despatch to the National Tidende. Eighteen out of forty-three to the party's convention quit the gathering because they considered the programme of the leaders not sufficiently radical.

ARMY OFFICERS REPORT MORE THAN FOUR HUNDRED MEN AT WORK YESTERDAY—IN BROOKLYN RIOT FOLLOWS AN ATTEMPT TO PREVENT SEVERAL HUNDRED MEN RETURNING TO WORK—SERIOUS INJURIES RESULTED.

New York, N. Y., Oct. 27.—indicating a desire on the part of some of the striking longshoremen to return to work, Army officers here today said that more than four hundred men were at work today on a number of the two hundred shipping board steamers tied up on account of the strike.

New York, N. Y., Oct. 27.—indicating a desire on the part of some of the striking longshoremen to return to work, Army officers here today said that more than four hundred men were at work today on a number of the two hundred shipping board steamers tied up on account of the strike.

New York, N. Y., Oct. 27.—indicating a desire on the part of some of the striking longshoremen to return to work, Army officers here today