AIR FLIGHT FROM ROME IN TOKIO

Italian Aviators Under Leadership of Col. Rapolla to Attempt the Stunt.

Peking, Thursday, Nov. 27.—(By the A. P.)—Arrangements are being made in China for the proposed flight from Rome to Tokyo by Italian aviators, (Gabriele D'Annunzio, the post-aviator, was originally selected for the flight but because of his military activities the Italian government entrusted the leadership of the expedition to Colonel Rapolla, one of Italy's most daring aviators). Much persuasion was necessary to induce the Chinese government to afford flying practice facilities in Peking.

ALONG THE SPORT TRAIL

Mouster Dechamps, manager of Georges Carpentier, declares emphatically that "Carpentier's brain will beat Beckett's muscle." England insists that Joe has a blooming tough muscle, y'know, to beat a bally brain—and offers odds on the outcome.

One of the sensations of the Ohio Fair tracks was the 3-year-old colt, King, 2,173, that started six times and won every race and every race. The colt was never headed in any race after the sixth pole was passed, never made a break and never drew the pole, a record about alone in half-mile turf history.

Joseph Wright, the Canadian oarsman has signed a three-year contract to coach the University of Pennsylvania crew. Previously Wright had been working on a one-year contract. He has been with Pennsylvania since 1916.

Walter Camp favors a rule requiring the ball to be on the ground when kicked off and he may bring the matter to the attention of the Rules Committee. There was any amount of trouble and delay this fall caused by the platoon tumbling or blowing off the tee.

Harvard Crimson, the undergraduate daily newspaper at Cambridge, has suggested a game with Pennsylvania for next autumn to strengthen the university's football schedule. There has been no contest between the Crimson and Red and Blue since 1905, when Penn won by a score of 12 to 6. If arrangements cannot be completed with Penn, Cornell or Colgate would be satisfactory opponents, the editorial adds.

Joe Moore, the metropolitan one mile skating champion, was the winner of the mile handicap race at New York in the third of the season's series of five skating races at St. Nicholas avenue. He started from scratch and took the lead at the beginning of the 17th lap.

MOUNTED POLICE OCCUPY PROMINENT PLACE IN GIVING EVIDENCE AGAINST RUSSELL

The "Mounties" Tell of Searches Made at Different Places for "Red" Propaganda Material—Court Reporter Testifies as to Notes Taken at One of Russell's Meetings.

Winnipeg, Man., Dec. 3.—Evidence of the seizure of documents was given by various police officials at the afternoon session of the trial of R. B. Russell. Searches, it was shown, had been conducted at Vancouver, Edmonton, Brule Kings, Alta., Windsor, Toronto, Montreal, North Bay and Ottawa.

The crown then recalled witness Perry, a court reporter at P. R. C. who reported the miners' convention held in Calgary in February. He had been told to stand aside until the short-hand notes were obtained. These said Mr. Andrews, were now available. The witness was asked to name any individuals at the miners' convention who were also present at the Calgary convention in March.

He, in part, gave the following names: H. Baird, E. McNabb, Alex. Roberts, E. H. Davis, M. D. Pachut, J. O'Sullivan, H. Smith, S. Marzotto, A. Benson, W. J. Keene, E. D. Brown and E. P. McCall.

The witness said that there might have been some more that he could not remember.

Reports of speeches made by George Armstrong, R. J. Johns, R. Russell and St. Blumberg, at a meeting in the Majestic Theatre, featured the evidence at the trial today.

The reports were prepared by W. P. Feppery, a MacDonald agency detective, who had attended the meeting at the instance of the city police authorities and taken shorthand notes of what he called "startling statements."

and was brought to the attention of the court by counsel for the crown, with the object of showing that the necessity for a revolution, bloodless if possible, and preferably in Canada had been urged at the meeting.

In the report of Russell's speech, the accused was stated to have said that he had never done anything but legislation and that there must be a revolution. Russell was also said to have declared, with a snap of his fingers, "we don't care that much for the city, provincial and dominion governments of Canada."

Russell also asserted, according to Feppery, that the only places in Blue-Isle where anarchy prevailed were the places where the Allies were in control and that the Bolsheviks were given good order and good government in that country.

Blumberg, whom witness characterized as the most vigorous speaker at the meeting, took occasion to correct previous speakers who said the Socialists were not seeking revenge, Feppery's report stated.

"If they were not seeking revenge, they would not be there," was another remark attributed to Blumberg. The

Big Fight In London Tonight

Beckett and Carpenter Will Battle at National Sporting Club for Heavyweight Championship of Europe.

London, Dec. 3.—Joe Beckett and Georges Carpentier will meet in a twenty round "bout" at the National Sporting Club tomorrow night to decide the question of who is the champion heavyweight fighter of Europe. Carpentier, a Frenchman, at present holds the title. The fight is due to begin at 9.15 o'clock.

Incidentally the outcome of the fight may bring forward an opponent for Jack Dempsey, the American heavyweight, in a contest for the heavyweight championship of the world.

Beckett, who is the champion of England will have an advantage of fourteen pounds in the weights over Carpentier, scaling at about 184 pounds. Also his reach is two inches longer than that of his French opponent. Otherwise the contestants will be virtually equal as regards age, height and measurements.

While Beckett is regarded as a fighter, Carpentier is credited as being the most scientific, because of his greater boxing skill. Both men are said to be in the best of condition for the battle.

The Prince of Wales is expected to witness the contest, as also are a number of peers and members of the House of Commons. No match in recent years in England has attracted so much attention in the newspapers. B. J. Angle will referee.

Witnesses were put through a sharp cross-examination by Robert Casdell, K. C., senior counsel for the witness as a shorthand writer. Mr. Casdell dictated a passage from a document. The lawyer read the passage at the role of notes, and protested that he was not supposed to write shorthand at such a speed. He explained that he did not profess to be an expert shorthand writer and only claimed that he could write shorthand faster than he could take notes.

Most of the time of the Court was taken up with evidence of the Royal Northwest Mounted Police in different parts of Canada. More than a dozen "mounties" were called in this connection, the familiar and popular Red and Gold of their uniforms giving a welcome touch of color to the scene.

At the suggestion of Mr. Casdell, the judge ruled that the jury should get a chance of reading the documents put in as exhibits, and when the proceedings closed for the day His Lordship turned over a huge batch of exhibits as something with which to beguile the time on their "next night off" from regular court session work since the jurors decided upon holding night sessions four nights a week.

ENGLISH GIRL A FAST SWIMMER

English swimming authorities are in high spirits just now over the recent performance of a young girl who has recently shown her heels to the best women swimmers in the British Isles. The name of the new "phenomenon" is Miss Florence Saneroff, who has seen only sixteen summers, and who gives every promise of showing the way to the best Americans and Australians in the women's events to be given next summer in connection with the Olympic games at Antwerp, Belgium.

Miss Saneroff gave the public a real test of her true form in the women's 100 yard championship which she won from Miss Vera Johnson, the holder by a yard. The time was 1.17, and while it is 10 seconds slower than the American record and thirteen seconds behind the best time for Australia it was a grand piece of anatomical work for so young a competitor. The report of the race had it that the cold water prevented faster time from being accomplished.

AMATEUR MEETS PRO. Philadelphia, Dec. 3.—The first of a series of matches for the court tennis championship of the United States between Jay Gould, American amateur champion, and Walter Kinsella, professional title holder, has started at the Racquet Club here. The player taking the greatest number of out of thirteen sets will win the title. Win or lose, Kinsella will receive a purse of $2,000, while Gould will win, he will receive a silver cup. Both players are said to be in excellent form.

A FORTUNE IN ROSS RACE HORSES

Commander J. K. L. Ross, Montreal, has declared that he would not take $200,000 for Sir Barton, which is destined for stud service at his farm in Howard County, when he shall have finished with racing. Cugat, which will begin stud service in the spring, is hardly less valuable as a stock horse than Sir Barton. Commander Ross paid $27,500 for Billy Kelly, which is still a useful race horse. He paid $12,500 for Constancy and on what she accomplished after her purchase Constancy is worth every cent of $40,000. One of the mares at the Ross farm is Melody, a daughter of Meddler and Bellantra, for which Commander Ross paid $27,500 at Saratoga in August when the Mackay mares were knocked down to the highest bidder. One of the stallions at the Ross stud—Wigstone—is a yearling half brother in Great Britain that fetched $67,500 at public auction in September. Wigstone is a son of Bayardo, sire of the British Derby winners Gainsborough and Gay Crusader, a stallion for which the late A. W. Cox, a whimsical Australian gold-miner who raced for years under the name of "Mr. Farie," once turned down an offer of $250,000. Commander Ross has in Royal Jester and Irish Dancer coming three-year-olds which cost him $14,000 and $9,000 respectively, as yearlings.
