An Absolute Cure For DYSPEPSIA

Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Belching of Gas, Sourness, Flatulency, Headache, Pain in the Stomach, etc.

By means of its muscles, the stomach should churn the food—changing solids into liquids—mixing in the gastric juice. If the stomach is weak—then food is not properly churned and mixed with enough gastric juice. Then you have indigestion and then dyspepsia.

NEW ENGLAND NEWSBOY TO BE A PHYSICIAN

New York, July 23.—As an illustration of the saying that America is the land of opportunity, there are few better examples than the career of young David Shakowitz of this city, says a Leavenworth (Mass.) correspondent.

David Shakowitz is a young man of six years old who has been earning his own living, and for a good many years of his teens he has been earning the living of a man.

David Shakowitz was born in Russia, in a small town called Slobodskoye. His father was a fairly prosperous farmer. He was adopted for this country when he was a young boy.

ROOSEVELT WILL NOT RUN FOR PRESIDENT SAYS GOV. HIGGINS

New York, July 24.—A despatch from Springfield (N. Y.) to the Brooklyn Eagle today quotes Gov. Higgins, of New York, as expressing the opinion that the next New York state Republican convention will give President Roosevelt's administration a hearty endorsement in 1908.

CRUISE STREAM-DRIVERS' STRIKE BROKEN. Calais, Me., July 24.—The strike of river drivers here is practically at an end. Two of the boats and many of the men have returned to work, and now men have taken most of the places left by those remaining on strike, enabling operations to resume.

CZAR GIVES ORDERS TO SLAY AND MAKE NOT ALL RUSSIAN PROGRESSIVES

St. Petersburg, July 24.—War to the hilt with revolution, was proclaimed today by Premier Stolypin in a telegram addressed to the governor general, Governor-General Protopopov, and to the viceroys of the Caucasus, who are ordered to strike the enemies of society.

Russian Deputies Alarmed. London, July 24.—M. Aladin, leader of the Group of Left, M. Roditchoff, leader of the Constitutional Democrats, and M. St. Petersburg, who came to London from St. Petersburg to attend the inter-parliamentary union, departed tonight.

What news has been received from the provinces today indicates that conditions are scarcely ripe except in the famine districts for an upheaval. The strategists of the revolutionary councils are laboring with the dilemma of how to induce them to call for a general strike until the government is forced to yield.

Refused Cabinet Position. Professor Mouroussief, the president of the dissolved house, for whom Premier Stolypin was vainly searching, has declined to go to Petrograd while the invitation to go to Petrograd was pending over the outlaw parliament at Viborg, was again approached today, but there is no prospect that he can be swayed.

Strict Censorship. The strictest censorship over news of disorders is maintained. As an example the ministry at St. Petersburg, July 23, forbade a band of artillery officers, who were lined on the officers' club, killing two officers has been transformed into a fire destroying the police offices, both of which were suppressed by Premier Stolypin.

Odessa, July 24.—11.35 p. m.—There has been no actual pogrom today, but drunk Odessa Cosaks endeavored to instigate an anti-Jewish massacre in the industrial suburbs of Mallovan, but were scattered by the Jewish quarter and threatened to withdraw to their barracks by their commandant's order.

Great Specialties in Stomach Catarrh. Though often the fault is given to the stomach, it is not the stomach which is the cause of the trouble. It is the liver which is the cause of the trouble. The liver is the source of the bile, and if it is diseased, the bile is not properly secreted, and the stomach is affected.
