MAJ, GENERAL HUGHES

Public Reception to Canadian War Minister-More Than 400 Men at Armory But Response from City Itself Is Not Encouraging---List of Officers Completed.

Officers' List Completed.

Lieut.-Col. J. L. McAvity last night made his final selection of officers for the battalion for submission to the militia department at Ottawa. He took into consideration the claims of all those officers from all the provincial regiments who have volunteered for active service. The approved list is not expected back from Ottawa for some time.

Meanwhile the recruiting for the 26th Battalion is going along but not with the rapidity that the best hopes of the loyal ones in the province could wish So far as could be gathered yesterday the result of the meeting to encourage recruiting at the Imperial Theatre is likely to be very little; in any case in the immediate present. In a list of twelve recruits taken at the armory up to 6 o'clock and who may be taken as a thick the relief of the respective for the second ones in the province could wish the mobilize at St. John, states the same paper. A battery of field artillery to be commanded by Colonel T. M. Seeley, of Yarmouth, will be mobilized at Frederic-

Duke of Connaught and Ambassador

The Bank of Nova Scotia

Railway Station and Four Potato Warehouses and Contents Burned

Nearly 1,000 Imprisoned at Dorchester.

London, Nov. 19—Investigation of conditional in the concentration camps in England and Germany all goes to prove so far as the prisoners in England asconcerned that they enjoy wastly supertor bodily and mental coundors:
AD Dorchester where there are nearly one thousand distreach the food is wholeione and sufficient white facilities are given for recreation and study. United States investigators in Germany, though they have not yet reported officially, have titles to Journalist that the English siling food and unsanitary conditions.
Reports from Vienna show a more satisfactory state of this pass of the same of the country indicated the food of animation the German proaches at Dorchester camp have been expressed though Cinjam Distances and considerable and is as of of starium which could not be cultivated artificially.

The country conditions, and any considerable and is a soft of starium which could not be cultivated artificially.

The food of starium which could not
be cultivated artificially.

The food of starium which could not
be cultivated artificially.

This counters are consequences.

This is the case of the consequences of the country holded wireless discussed to a detail free many considerable and is a sort of starium which could not be cultivated artificially.

The feeding of the German prisones
at Dorchester camp have been expressed thous Clangian Holters who of starium which could not be considered that just pressing the door lately will open the colar door, so now whenever she is down cellar and wasta to conce us, Marricha will she to be the men age to be removed to Fest though the prisoners.

This is the consequences.

The feeling of the German prisones at large of t

TERRITORIALS OF

Russian Expert Believes There Are No Better Soldiers

ROUSING RECRUITING MEETING IN WOODSTOCK

Crowded House Listens to Stirring Addresses by Bishop Richardson, Judge Carleton and Mayor Jones-Similar Meetings to be Held in Other Parts of Carleton County,

Woodstock (N. B.), Nov, 19—(Special)—The big Hayden-Gibson theatre was crowded to the doors tonight at the first meeting of the patriotic recruiting campaign that is to extend over Carleton county. Judge Carleton presided and on the platform were all the clergymen of the town, Mayor Jones and his son, Lieut. Raymond Jones, Major Margison and Col. F. H. J. Dibble.

Judge Carleton made an eloquent appeal to the young men whom the Motherland is calling today. "Will the young men respond to the call?" asked the learned judge. "It is the first call in a hundred years, many homes in Carleton county have today vacant chairs testifying to the loyalty of those who went away with the first contingent and other young men in the county will come forward and enroll."

Mayor Jones in a hrief address spoke of what Carleton had already done to help the empire, and he was sure every man of proper age was willing to serve and the server of the evening, may be sense of duty.

Bishop Richardson, who was the principal speaker of the evening, make a magnificient address the held in the town. His remarks were frequently applauded as he dwelt on the duty of every young man in this hour of the empire's crisis.

A large number of young men were present and it is confidently expected that many will answer the country's Patriotic recruiting meetings are to be beginning Friday night at Debec and continuing through the week and closing at Centreville Saturday 28th, inst.

These meetings will be addressed by Rev. Frank Baird, A. D. Holyoke, F.C. Squires, Hon. W. P. Jones, Donald Muston the different sections of the country will come forward and enroll."

Mayor Jones in a hrief address spoke of what Carleton had already done to help the empire, and he was sure every man of proper age was willing to serve

Encouraging—List of Officers Completed. Age and the control of th

Marching Proves Their Worth.
He was indian commissioner for Kent, He is survived by his wife and family.

INSPECTED CANADA'S

Committee in Charge of Pathie is survived by his wife and family.

Committee in Charge of Pathie is accustomed to judge a regiment by its appearance and movements, which give him an idea of the smartness and capacity of its soldiers.

Outside Speakers to Deliver Addresses.

Connaught and Ambassador Spring Rice Visitors to Ottawa

Treasury.

Marching Proves Their Worth.

It was enough for me to see the London Scottish on the march to understand the military value of these troops, because every experienced soldier is accustomed to judge a regiment by its appearance and movements, which give him an idea of the smartness and capacity of its soldiers.

Addresses.

Marching Proves Their Worth.

It was enough for me to see the London Scottish on the march to understand the military value of these troops, because every experienced soldier is accustomed to judge a regiment by its appearance of the war? There are so many things to do yet. We cannot seem that of the war? There are so many things to do yet. We cannot seem the last tention to the external appearance of recruits, and when selecting troops to send to the most vital parts of the front fixed in this until the Germans are driven out of France and Belgium. Any talk before that would be futile.

They take a great deal of beating to be the war? There are so many things to do yet. We cannot seem the same character with volent attacks. Exhausted by their to think until the Germans are driven out of France and Belgium. Any talk before that would be futile.

They take a great deal of beating to be coast to be some part of the same transformed in the shortest time into most will appearance of the course of my experience with many three transformed in the shortest time into most addiers.

The part of the same to see the London Scottish on the march to understand the military value of these troops, because the war? There are so many things to do ye

The control of the co

VOL. LIV.

BALAN TURNS

Duke Nicholas C land and Th

Report of 12,000 l That Only Questi Can Escape—Cz sack's Story of Fi

New York, Nov. 23 "Reports from Pet burg's army on Warsa won at Kutno, twenty prisoners were taken. the battle line. "This account say mans succeed in escapi

Warthe rivers. OFFICIAL STATEME Petrograd, Nov. 2 eneral staff was issued "The fighting bety tinues. It still mainta the north of Lodz. "Throughout the impetuous German att it was intended to tur than five thousand Au MANY NON-COMBA Paris, Nov. 24, 2.1 Petrograd says: "Advices received Germans opened a seco ally directed against many inoffensive pers ren, were killed.

known." (Special Cable to Petrograd. Monda statement which still effect that the Russia the Vistula and Wart have been taken prison visiting the wounded had just been received His majesty was I mind, from which thos much more important wounded. In fact, i reached in the great b the Vistula and Warth From other source hear that the Russia partly in flames. COSSACK'S STORY OF MEETING WITH GER Here is a Cossack's st fighting on the East Prus "Their cavalry, we saw of. They don't use caval we do, but keep it for went out scouting the hardly ever came upon scouts, but often kno trenches full. It was one I got shot. I received for in the right arm, the rest but my horse was not to horses are good enough, ours, but still good hors fellows came off if you the butt of your lance of your elbow and once trooper is disarmed, for a on the saddle.

"We don't fall off, ex

"We don't fall off, ev dead, for our horses brin our lines. Why, the Gerr riderless came after us we got a lot of likely n way in our little affairs your man off and finish three turns to go after forse turns to go after comes at a word and goes "Sometimes we stalked
that we found the Germa
Then we always waited hours, when they were half intoxicated. It is I rule to give the German themselves silly before and houses where they a can't hit them over the mets and neck pieces blow, and you have to the best you can."

AUSTRIANS ADMIT SERVIAN RESISTAN Berlin, Nov. 23, by ville—According to office reaching Berlin today

again are meeting resist but strong detachments ces have crossed the Floods and soft groun together with snow in has greatly hindered op

Ernest Campbell.

Chatham, Nov. 16—The death took place suddenly on Nov. 6, in Hibbing (Minn.), of Ernest Campbell, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Archibald Campbell of Napan. He was thirty-three years of age and leave, a wife, formerly Miss Priscilla McDon dd, of Nelson, and two small children. The deceased was also survived by five brothers—James, of Napan; Archibald, of Ferryville; Charles of Napan; Fred, of Chatham, and Alexander, of North Dakota; as well as three was a member of the Press Club of sisters—Mrs. Charles Anderson, of Na-Seattle, and actively connected with seventeen the suspices of the Rights of Pythias, assisted by Rev. Maurice Bywater, of the St. John Episcopal church, the ceremony being followed by cremation. He was a member of the Press Club of sisters—Mrs. Charles Anderson, of Na-Seattle, and actively connected with seventeen the suspices of the Rights of Pythias, assisted by Rev. Maurice Bywater, of the St. John Episcopal church, the ceremony being followed by cremation. He was a member of the Press Club of sisters—Mrs. Charles Anderson, of Na-