

To All Readers :

During this festive season, we at the Quarterly take pleasure in wishing each and all of you a very Merry Christmas and a pleasant, prosperous New Year.

Throughout 1979 we have felt your sincere commitment to the Quarterly... and the RCMP. As a readership you are unique. Not many magazines have such a dedicated following. You have made your presence visible through letters, phone calls and visits to our office. Such communication has kept us in touch with your perception of the magazine and aware of your affinity to the RCMP, be you member or private citizen. Your support of the Quarterly and the RCMP is apparent... and we thank you.

May you all have a most joyous holiday season.
