Subjects. Import Duties, &c.

Applicable to "colonies and foreign possessions" of Her Britannic Majesty. (Articles I. to III.)

BELGIUM.

WHEN TERMINABLE.

July 23, 1862.

Commerce and Navigation.

The present Treaty shall continue in force for ten years dating from the tenth day after the exchange of the ratifications.* In case neither of the two High Contracting Parties should have notified, twelve months before the end of the said period, its intention to terminate the Treaty, it shall remain in force until the expiration of a year, dating from the day on which either of the High Contracting Parties shall have given notice for its termination.

The High Contracting Parties reserve to themselves the right to introduce into the Treaty, by common consent, any modifications which may not be at variance with its spirit or principles, and the utility of which may be shown by experience. (Article XXV.)

Nov. 13, 1862.

The present Convention is concluded without limit as to duration. Either of the High Powers shall, however, be at liberty to terminate it by giving to the other a year's previous notice. The two High Powers, moreover, reserve to themselves the power to introduce into the convention, by common consent, any modifications which experience may show to be desirable. (Article III.)

* August 30th, 1862.

MOST-FAVORED-NATION TREATMENT.

Subjects. Privileges, Favors, Immunities.

In all that relates to navigation and commerce, the High Contracting Parties shall not grant any privilege, favor, or immunity to any other country, which shall not be also and immediately extended to their respective subjects. (Article III.)
