Penalty for taking Passengers on board after the completion of the Passenger list.

III. And whereas Masters of Vessels are in the practice of embarking Passengers after the Vessel has been cleared and examined by the proper Officer at the Port of departure, and without delivering lists of such additional Passengers to some Officer to whom by law the same ought to be delivered; For the prevention and punishment of such practice—Be it enacted, That for every Passenger not included in the list of Passengers by any Vessel sailing from a Port in Her Majesty's Dominions, delivered to the Collector of Customs at the Port of departure, or at the Port where such additional Passenger may have been embarked, or at the Port at which such Vessel may have touched after the embarkation of such Passenger, the Master or Person in command of such Vessel shall, in addition to the rate or duty payable as aforesaid, and at the same time and under the same penalties, pay to the Collector of Customs at the Port of Quebec or Montreal, at whichever the said Vessel shall be first entered, the sum of Forty Shillings currency for each Passenger so embarked as aforesaid, and not included in one of the said lists.

Passengers not to leave the Vessel until a correct list of them

IV. And be it enacted, That no Master or Person having the command of any Vessel arriving in either of the Ports last mentioned, shall permit any passenger to leave such Vessel until he shall have delivered to the Collector or other Chief
