

in Chief may direct the building of such a number of boats for transporting the Militia as he may deem necessary, the expense of building not to exceed four hundred pounds.

100. The Commanding Officer of any Regiment, Battalion, Detachment, or Party, when the Militia or any part thereof are called into actual service, may impress boats, men, horses, or teams, as the service may require.

101. The Commanding Officer of the Militia, when it shall be necessary by any attack made or threatened suddenly in any sea-port Town, or any place where merchant vessels may be lying, may compel the persons belonging thereto to do duty on shore with the Militia Artillery, or in any boat or vessel, or with any part of the Militia; and in case of great emergency, the Commanding Officer of any Regiment or Battalion to which an Artillery Company is attached, may demand the service of the whole or any part of such Company, or any Company of Sea Fencibles, or any of the Flank Companies.

102. The Quarter Master of every Battalion before commencing his duties as required under this title, shall give a Bond to the Queen, with two sufficient sureties, in the sum of eight hundred dollars, conditioned for the faithful discharge of his duties, and his duly accounting for and applying all moneys received by him as such.

103. Whenever the Commanding Officer in any County or District where boats are provided, shall find it necessary to order such or any other boats or vessels he may obtain, to proceed in repelling the enemy, or the assistance of any neighbouring district or place, or be stationed as a watch for the defence thereof, the Militia, and particularly the Sea Fencibles, shall, on the order of such Commanding Officer, proceed in such boats accordingly.

104. If any person be wounded or disabled when on actual service, he shall be provided for at the expense of the Province during his disability.

105. No Non-Commissioned Officer or Private shall be arrested upon any process, except criminal, while attending any training of his Battalion, Division, or Company, or on actual service, or marching to or returning from the place appointed for such training or duty, except the original sum due for which he may be arrested shall amount to eighty dollars.

106. Any person who shall entice or encourage a Militiaman when on service, to desert, or aid, assist, or harbour any deserter, knowing him to be such, shall for each offence pay a fine of forty dollars; and on failure of payment shall be committed to gaol, there to remain for three months, or until the fine be paid.

107. Chapters 73, 74, 75, 76, 78, 79, 80, 81, 82, and 83, Title xi, of the Revised Statutes, "Of the Militia;" and also an Act made and passed in the nineteenth year of Her present Majesty's Reign, intituled "An Act relating to the Militia;" and also an Act made and passed in the twenty third year of Her present Majesty's Reign, intituled "An Act relating to the Militia Law," are hereby repealed.
