

Dalhousie dunks Acadia

Both Dalhousie men's and women's swim teams swam to victories over visitors Acadia University in the final dual swim meet of the 1989-90 varsity season. The women's team maintained their unbeaten record with a 57-33 margin over the Axettes, while in men's action, the Tigers swamped the Axemen 76-15.

In all, the Dal women, led by the double victories of AUSA Coca-Cola Swimmer of the Meet Kellie Andrews, won six of 11 events, including both relays. Andrews set a new meet record of 1:01.90, winning the women's 100 metres freestyle. Top swimmer for Acadia was Jane Seaman, who set a new meet record in the women's 200 metres freestyle with a 2:14.30 clocking. Laurie Wallace in the 200 butterfly and Maria MacPherson in the 200 breaststroke were also individual winner for the Tigers, while Anne Gallop in the 400 and 800 freestyle, Mary Ellen Pyle in the 200 IM, and Sara MacIntyre in the 200 backstroke were victors for Acadia. Other bright spots for the Tigers were the fine swims of first-year swimmer Ainslie Harvey, who posted a personal best in the 200 freestyle, and Felicity Sapp, who moved up in the AUSA rankings with a fine swim in the 200 IM.

The Tigers completed the season with an 8-0 AUSA dual meet record, their eleventh consecutive winning dual meet season, while the Axettes earned a split with a 4-4 record.

In men's action, the Tigers shut out the Axemen, winning all 11 events. They were led by third-year Commerce student Darryl Dutton, who swam to double victories in the 800 freestyle and 200 backstroke events, earning him selection as AUSA Coca-Cola Male Swimmer of the Meet.

John Duncan also doubled for the Tigers, winning the gruelling 200 butterfly and 400 freestyle events. Other individual winners for the Tigers included Ron Harawy in the 200 freestyle, Eric Kerasiotis in the 50 freestyle, Ian MacDougall in the 200 individual medley, Eric Chisholm in the 100 freestyle, and Richard Peter in the 200 breaststroke. The win left the men's Tigers 4-2 on the season and extended their record of consecutive winning AUSA dual meet seasons to fifteen under the coaching of Dal mentor Nigel Kemp. The Axemen meantime dropped to 3-4.

All five AUSA varsity swim teams will be back in action at the Dalplex pool on February 15, 17, and 18 when Dalhousie, the current defending AUSA men's and women's champions, host the 1990 AUSA Swimming Championships. Heats get underway at 10:30 a.m. Friday and Saturday and 9:30 a.m. Sunday. Finals go at 6:30 p.m. and at 5:00 p.m. Sunday. Indications are that Dal will be challenged by UNB for team championship honours and that Memorial will be chasing their share of individual titles.

Individual qualifiers will move on to the Canadian Interuniversity Athletic Union Swimming Championships, to be held at the University of Sherbrooke in March.
