First gold cord

Sixteen-year-old Pat Newman of 2234 Fifth line, Mississauga, has become the first member of the 1st Clarkson Land Ranger Company to be awarded her gold cord and pin.

The presentation was made at a ceremony following a candlelight service Thursday at Christ Church, Clarkson.

To achieve the gold cord and pin award Pat, who was a member of the 4th Clarkson Guide Company until last year when she moved up to the Land Rangers, had to do all the required badges and then overcome three challenges set by a committee of commissioners and leaders.

Her challenges were to keep a log of the first year's activities of the 1st Clarkson Rangers (formed last September), co-ordinate an open house for brownies, guides and rangers of Clarkson North District, and organize a winter hike with guides.

Area Commissioner Mrs. Johnson presented Pat with her pin, and Ranger Captain Lee McLaren the gold cord. Capt. McLaren and Lieut. Pat Izatt also gave her a Land Ranger ring to mark the occasion, and there was a celebration cake decorated with the Girl Guide symbol and the words "Congratulations Pat."

As well as relatives and friends of the award-winning Ranger, the 1st, 3rd and 4th Clarkson Guide Companies and the Venturer Company witnessed the ceremony.

Pat was also given a corsage to present to her mother, Mrs. Ruth Newman, leader of the 4th Clarkson Guide Company.

Bond-Hall nuptials

Miss Nancy Bond of Mississauga became the bride of Brian Hall of Burlington in a double-ring ceremony June 8 at Lakeview United church, Mississauga. A reception was held at Applewood restaurant.

The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Bond of West Palm Beach, Florida. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. T. Hall, Burlington.

Attendants were Mrs. Valerie Lawrence, Burlington, matron of honor, Miss Carol O'Gorman and Mrs. Shirley Granger of Mississauga, bridesmaids. Gary Parsons of Perth, Ontario, was best man. Alf Smith and Bob Allen of Burlington were ushers.
