Hon. W. L. McK. #2

when I am convinced that our young industry needs protection the most. Have I not faithfully served the Liberal party during the last thirty years? I do not have to answer that question as everyone knows. Again, why should I be sacrificed when I see my Tory friends unmolested? I fail to perceive the reason, in fact, I can hardly believe the facts. Can nothing be done to prevent the change? Why should we need less protection on clocks than on automobiles, bicycles, gas and electric meters, and so many other articles of similar construction.

Pardon me, Mr. King, for having written you this letter. I do not like to put you to any trouble, but I can see but one man who can arrange matters, and that is you, and I have no doubt that you will do your very best for us.

With very best regards, I remain,

Yours respectfully,

Arthur Pequegnat
