RE DR. D.D. WILSON'S CASE

5 There seems no purpose in taking up time and space with Dr. Arnold's irrelevant discussion as to the cause of Dr. O'Sullivan's death. ^{3w} The way he proceeds to go into Dr. Wilson himself, instead of into the evidence on Dr. Wilson's charge of political partisanship against Dr. Arnold, we have another typical example of the Arnold psychology.

10 I am amazed at Dr. Arnold having no more sense of the proper way to treat a Royal Commission than to summon Dr. Wilson into his office so that he might, forsooth, "go over it with me".

15 Imagine a witness in any Court in Canada announcing to the trial judge in the course of the trial, that the adverse party had thus summoned a witness and proceeded to dragoon him as Dr. Arnold indicates. Needless to say, it would mean short shrift for the offender.
