Ottawa, 19th February, 1902.

Sir,

After consideration of the proposition which you made to Mr Inspector Macrae ~~of this Department~~ the Department has appointed you to the position of medical attendant to all the Indians of the Pointe Bleue Reserve (that is to say not only Montagnais Indians but other Indians living or sojourning at Pointe Bleue) at a salary of $500.00 (five hundred dollars) per annum.

In return for the salary mentioned you will be expected to render all medical and surgical aid required by the Indians referred to who call upon you, as well as to attend to any cases which may be brought to your notice by the Indian Agent, Mr W.T.A. Donohue, of Pointe Bleue. You will be expected to furnish all medicines required for treating the Indians in question and should you at any time either through illness or absence be unable to attend to your duties as medical officer to those Indians you will be expected to supply a substitute.

Your salary will be paid quarterly and your appointment will date from the 1st March next.

Your obedient servant.

Jules Constantin, Esqr, M.D.
Pointe Bleue, P.Q.

Secretary.
