An innovation for King St. West has been introduced in the shape of a Chinese Cook. One of the Maple City's social leaders has tried domestic help of nearly every shade and had always found them wanting. The trouble with maids had finally reached such a state that the lady said with some emphasis that she would not have another girl in the house if she had to do the work all herself. It was at this point that her husband thought he would put in a word for the lords of creation, so he suggested a Chinaman. The lady thought that the Mongolian couldn't be any worse than the maids had been so a Chinese cook was sent for. He arrived all right, but some mistake was made. The yellow man had apparently graduated from a laundry and knew nothing about cooking. He couldn't understand English and the lady couldn't talk Chinese, so there was no way to educate the servant of promise. They do say that the husband is very meek these days and has quit making suggestions, and he's very much afraid to even mention Chinese cooks.

Harold Williamson has been requested to start a subscription list in this city for the purpose of aiding in the furnishing of a library on the new battleship Dominion. It is customary when a city or county in England is honored with the name of a battleship for the place so honored to furnish some luxury for the boat by means of popular subscription. Canada has been honored by having the last warship named "The Dominion," and already subscriptions have been started all over Canada. No one is allowed to give more than a quarter. Harold Williamson and Chas. Holmes have taken the matter up in this city and are prepared to receive subscriptions.
