Miscellaneous.

Maps.

Are there any maps showing divisions of counties, such as school sections or other divisions? "STEVE."

Ans.—The Scarborough Company, Hamilton, Ont., manufacture such maps.

Injured Leg.

Driving mare, during the last week of July, while kicking at another horse across a fence, hurt her hind leg. About half-way between hock and fetlock joint, on the outside, she ran a sharp knot in to the bone. She did not show any lameness at the time, and it healed up all right in a week or two, but a small lump came where the hole was. This lump has hardened until it has become as hard as bone. Three weeks ago she went quite lame on it, and although I have blistered it twice it does not seem much better. She walks and stands all right, but when trotting is quite lame, and breaks out into a sweat. Let me know, through your valuable paper, what I can do for her. H. D. K.

Ans.—If repeated blistering does no good, you had better have your veterinarian examine her. The enlargement may have developed into a bone spavin, which cannot be removed. Firing and blistering by a veterinarian might cure the lameness.

Grease.

1. Would you kindly advise me what to do for a Clydesdale mare? Her left hind leg is swollen and scruffy, but the swelling goes down with exercise. It started in her fetlock, and is gradually going up the leg. It is not sore, nor is she lame.

2. What will kill a bone spavin?

G. N.

Ans.—1. This is grease. It is doubtful whether a cure can be effected. Feed moderately to lightly with grain, and exercise regularly when not working. Purge with 8 drams aloes and 2 drams ginger prepared by a druggist, and given as a ball, feeding bran mash until purged. Follow up with 1½ ounces Fowler's Solution of Arsenic twice daily for a week. Apply warm poultices of linseed meal, with a little powdered charcoal, every six or seven hours for a couple of days and nights, and then apply three times daily a lotion of one ounce each of acetate of lead and sulphate of zinc, and 2 drams carbolic acid to a pint of water.

2. The enlargement caused by a bone spavin cannot be removed. Unless the horse is lame, it would be wise not to treat. If lameness is present, get your veterinarian to fire and blister.

"GIRL WANTED."

By Ninety-nine Thousand Young Men.

Wanted.—Girl. Just plain girl. Should not be addicted to the harem-skirt habit; rats and puffs not required. She need know nothing about bridge whist or social scandal. Inability to decipher a French bill-of-fare will not count against her. Need not have done and been done by foreign countries. If she can sing and play a bit, sew and cook a trifle, so much the better. It is desirable that she have a little kindness of heart—for people, young, middle-aged and old, and for animals. Need not be versed in church creed, but should believe in decency. In a word, we want just a wholesome, lovable, good, old-fashioned girl. No need to apply. Will come after you.

TOLD THE TRUTH.

Broad—"By the way, old man, do you remember borrowing ten shillings from me six months ago?"

Short—"Yes."

Broad—"But you said you only wanted it for a short time."

Short—"And I told you the truth. I didn't keep it twenty minutes."
