The Rt. Rev. J. C. Roper, Bishop of Ottawa, accompanied by Archbishop Worrell of Nova Scotia, have left for St. Johns, Nfld., to attend the consecration of Bishop-Elect White, which, D.V., takes place on Sunday, March 10th.

Archdeacon Whittaker, of the Diocese of Mackenzie River, has been visiting Ottawa. While staying there the Archdeacon was the guest of the Bishop of Ottawa. The Right Rev. Dr. Lucas, Bishop of Mackenzie River, is expected in Ottawa in March.

* * * * The Bishop of Toronto suffered a severe shaking up on February 22nd, owing to a fall on the icy sidewalk in front of the See House. He has sufficiently recovered from the shock which he then sustained to leave Toronto for a while and he has gone to Preston Springs to recuperate.

We are pleased to note that Capt. W. Wiggs, eldest son of Mr. W. H. Wiggs, Quebec, has been favourably mentioned in Sir Douglas Haig's despatches. Capt. Wiggs went over to France with the first contingent. He has two other brothers now in England with the McGill Siege Bat-

We beg to extend to Mrs. Broughall and the members of her family, our sincere sympathy with them in the death of Mr. Frederick Broughall, who died at his residence at Wallington, Surrey, England, from pneumonia on February 25th. The late Mr. Broughall was the third son of the late Canon and Mrs. Broughall.

Canon Knox-Little, one of the most widely known clergy of the Church of England, died at Worcester on February 3rd, aged 79. After doing a remarkable work in various parishes, he was appointed by the Crown to a Residentiary Canonry in Worcester Cathedral in 1881, which he has held for more than 36 years. Canon Knox-Little was a brilliant speaker and preacher, and his preaching always attracted large crowds.

The Very Rev. Dean Henson was consecrated Bishop of Hereford in Westminster Abbey on the Feast of the Purification of the Blessed Virgin. The Ven. W. W. Hough, Archdeacon of Kingston-upon-Thames, was consecrated at the same time as Bishop-Suffragan of Woolwich in the Diocese of Southwark. The Primate was assisted in the act of consecration by no fewer than twelve prelates. The Dean of St. Paul's Cathedral preached the sermon.

The Archbishop of York entertained the clergy and Free Church ministers of York at Bishopthorpe recently. The afternoon session was of a devotional nature, and in the evening the Archbishop addressed his guests on the possibilities of the co-operation of Christians, without attempting hasty methods of re-union which would hinder rather than help in meeting the great problems that would arise after the war, and in which Christians ought to meet together to advance the Kingdom of God.

News has been received by cable in this city of the accidental death of Flight-Captain Ralph Himsworth Jarvis, M.C., of the Royal Flying Corps, while flying with a pupil at Spittlegate, Grantham, England, on February 27th. The late Capt. Jarvis, who was 27 years old, was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Jarvis, of 171 Spadina Road, Toronto. He was educated at the Model School, Jarvis Collegiate, and was an honour graduate of the School of Science, Toronto. He was married to Evelyn M. Jarvis, daughter of Harold Jarvis, who is now in England. He had been employed as an engineer with the Grand Trunk Pacific, the Canadian Northern, and before he enlisted was with the Harbour Board. He had been overseas for over two years, and in France won the Military Cross for efficient scrvice. His commanding officer, among others, said he was the best flight commander he had, and he was mentioned six times in despatches. A number of enemy machines stand to his credit. His brother, Lance-Corp. Edmund Raymond Jarvis, was killed at the battle of St. Eloi with the machine gun section of the 19th Batta'ion on April 8th, 1916.
