Not being informed of the reasons which have prevented the Arbitrator appointed to adjust the claims on the part of Upper Canada to a proportion of the duties levied at Quebec, agreeing to any satisfactory arrangement, we are unable to express any opinion upon the justice of the pretensions urged by either party; but although the provisions of the Canada Trade Act, which were framed for our protection, are, under existing circumstances, as effectual for that purpose as could be devised, we nevertheless feel the strongest assurance, that from the absence of any clear principles upon which any arrangement can be made, and the conflicting opinions which must always exist upon a subject fraught with so much difficulty, the acquisition by this Province of a Port of Entry from the Sea, where our Revenue of Customs may be collected by our own Officers, and our Foreign Trade carried on unshackled by the enactments of the Legislature of a Sister Colony, is the only method by which Upper Canada can obtain the full advantage of her own Commerce.

It affords us much satisfaction to be informed by your Excellency that the disease, which by the dispensation of Divine Providence has so widely prevailed, has nearly disappeared in every District of this Province; and we feel thankful that the Almighty has, of His infinite mercy and goodness, been graciously pleased to stay his avenging arm.

Upon the sudden breaking out of any pestilence, previously unknown, and consequently not provided against, it of necessity becomes the duty of the Executive Government to take such energetic measures as shall appear to be best calculated for the protection of the people against its ravages; and we entertain the fullest assurance that when we shall be informed of the arrangements made by your Excellency for the preservation of the public health, they will be found such as to demand the entire approbation of this House.

When the Annual Accounts and Estimates shall be laid before us, we will make the necessary provision for the public service, and we shall examine the detailed accounts which your Excellency may be pleased to transmit to us, of the sums placed by your Excellency's direction at the disposal of the Magisrates, on the urgent occasion to which your Excellency has alluded, with every disposition to provide for the re-payment of the amount advanced.

It is with sentiments of the most lively gratitude, that we perceive the solicitude of our Most Gracious Sovereign to promote the wishes of the Province, in acceding to the request of his faithful Commons, relative to the appropriation of the Lands formerly set apart for the support of Grammar Schools; and we fully concur with your Excellency in the propriety of the accounts of the funds arising therefrom being placed in the hands of the King's Receiver General, who is the proper depositary of all public monies.

The practical mode of applying the School Funds to the intended object is a matter of deep importance, and we are aware of the solicitude with which the public will view our deliberations upon a matter in which their dearest interests are so essentially concerned, and it is gratifying to us to receive the assurance of your Excellency's concurrence in such enactments as may appear best calculated to secure the interests of the people.
