

“ been made at Cumberland, by a few individuals to disturb the general “ Tranquility, we heartily and sincerely congratulate you, as well upon
 “ the Success of your own spirited Exertions, as upon the good Effects
 “ of the timely Aids furnished by the Commanders of his Majesty’s “ Forces in this Province, by which happy Means the Attempts of “ the Insurgents have been totally frustrated.

“ The judicious and necessary Steps you have taken to recall the “ Minds of the Inhabitants of St. John’s River, to a Sense of their Duty
 “ to Government, and the salutary Effects which we hope will flow
 “ from that Measure, deserves our sincerest Acknowledgments, and be “ assured we shall most readily acquiesce in such Expences as have “ been unavoidably incurred for the Safety of the Province.

“ Permit us to assure you, Sir, of our heartiest Desire to promote by “ a Unanimity and unremitting Zeal, the Service of the Province, in “ which we have not the least Room to doubt of your Honor’s Con“ currence.

Resolved, That the said Address be presented by the whole House.

Ordered, That a Committee do wait on his Honor the Lieutenant-
 Governor to know his Pleasure, when he will be attended by the House.
