Round him rush the people crying. Tell us all, oh, tell us true!

Where are they who went to battle, Randolph, Murray, sworn to you?

Where are they, our brethers, children! Have they met the English foe!

Why art thou alone, unfollowed! Is it west, or is it word!

Like a corpse the grisly warrior looks from out his helm of stee!;

But no word he speaks in answer, only with his armed hee!

Chides his weary steed, and ouward up the city streets they ride;

Patters, sisters, mothers, children, shrieking, praying by his side.

By the God that made thee, Randolph! tell us what mischance hath come?

Then he lifts his riven banner, and the naker's voice is dumb."
