On Thursday afternoon the Women's Patriotic League gave a reception for the soldiers who have enlisted for active service in the city. Mrs. W. Churchill Livingston, President of the Women's Patriotic League, giving her charming house and grounds for the occasion.

The soldiers, in charge of Lieut. Morson Smith, were greeted by Mrs. Livingston, who made a delightful little speech of welcome, giving them the freedom of the beautiful grounds for the afternoon, to which the soldiers responded with three hearty cheers and a tiger. Refreshments were served on the lawn, tables and benches having been placed about the lawn for the soldier guests, who numbered about two hundred in all. A bevy of young ladies assisted in dispensing the refreshments, among them the Misses Sweet, Jones, Hilda Hurley, Helen Oldham, Muriel Whittaker, Lillian Wade and Hilda Livingston. After the refreshments had been served, a musical programme was rendered, the back verandah, overlooking the lawn, providing an excellent stage setting for the musicians. Miss Helen Oldham rendered the patriotic song "We'll never Let the Old Flag Fall" in true military style, the soldiers joining in the chorus. Miss Hilda Hurley then sang the popular patriotic song "Knit, Knit, Knit," which met with great applause. Miss Marjorie Jones rendered a violin selection in masterly style. Mrs. T.
