INTERNATIONAL YACHT RACE

The second race of the yacht race between the Columbia and Shamrock II was sailed over the course at New York yesterday afternoon. The Columbia had previously won one race and two had been called off because there was not sufficient wind to finish within the time limit.

The boats started off well in a good breeze of 22 knots an hour. The Shamrock took the lead and held it until after first turn and continued until after turning the second buoy. Then Columbia closed up and crossed the line a winner by one length and thirty seven seconds.

WEDDING BELLS

Covert-McColough

Yesterday at half past ten o'clock the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Howard Goucher was the scene of a quiet but very pretty wedding, when Mrs. Goucher's sister, Miss Mary McColough, youngest daughter of Mrs. Catherine Turnbull McColough, formerly of Truro, was united in marriage to Mr. W. Harold Covert, Barrister at Law and a member of the firm of Pearson, Covert and Pearson, who have their law offices in Halifax and Sydney. The house decorations of yellow and white reached a climactic point in a graceful arch of vines and flowers from beneath which was suspended an enormous white silk true lovers knot. The ceremony was performed by Dr. A. C. Chute of Acadia University Wolfville, formerly of the First Baptist Church Halifax.

The bride exquisitely gowned in white organdie, trimmed with point lace, wore the usual veil, and carried a bouquet of white brides roses. Miss Ida B. C. Rand of Kentville, gowned in shiny red silk, performed gracefully the duties of maid of honor, she carried a shower bouquet of white roses.

Of the invited guests were present Dr. and Mrs. A. C. Chute, Mr. E. G. McColough and wife, North Sydney; Mr. N. B. McColough and wife, New Glasgow; the Misses Jessie and Julia Covert, sisters of the groom, and Dr. Covert of Lakeville, brother of the groom. As both the contracting parties are well known throughout the province and elsewhere, the bride was the recipient of many very valuable and beautiful gifts. Mrs. Covert's going away gown was of brown cloth, tailor made. Her hat was of cream felt, trimmed with cream silk, embroidered in gold. The happy couple took the "Bluenose" enroute to Montreal and Quebec. They will return by way of St. John and Digby. Mr. and Mrs. Covert will reside in Sydney Cape Breton.

The Advertiser extends congratulations.
