WANTED—Smart, bright boy. Apply in person to P. GIBKINS, Railway Office, Kentville, N. S. sw tf. We can supply you with Lever mowing, Lever spring toothed and Disc harrows. T. P. Calkin & Co. Miss Lulu Zwiesler, of the Senior class of Acadia University, spent the week-end in Kentville, guest of the Misses Sanford.

Buy your fishing tackle at J. R. Webster's and see if you don't have good luck next trip.

Mr. G. W. Parsons, of Middleton, was in town last week attending court.

The annual meeting of the owners of Hillcrest orchards, Ltd., was held at Middleton, Thursday last.

Egg Machines. Yes that's what you'll have if you procure some of Paul G. Webster's pure bred leg-horn stock. If you want a setting of eggs write at once, care of J. R. Webster.

Messrs W. E. Porter, J. G. Calkin, E. B. Newcombe and Tom Weaver paid a visit to the Sunday Schools at Billtown and Woodville, Sunday.

"Farmer's attention"—Bear in mind when wanting a Dump Cart or any kind of a Team wagon that we carry a complete stock of the celebrated Petrols and Chatham lines. T. P. Calkin & Co.

Three Companies of the Royal Canadian Regiment, Halifax, arrived at Aldershot, Monday, for 20 days musketry and Company training. Lieut. Keating, of Halifax, is in charge of the Army Service Corps.

FARMER'S CHARGES—Save the difference between an honest optician's prices and the pedlar's exorbitant charges, it might be only ten dollars on a pair of glasses, but think of the fun you could have with that much cash.

Have you seen the Oliver Plow? If not call on T. P. Calkin & Co., and let them convince you that it is the best working plow on the market.

Mr Fred Landry, daughter Rose, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Landry and Miss Bessie Landry, have returned after spending several days fishing at Forks River. They were very successful in catching many large trout, and while coming down over Stillwater Wednesday morning saw a large moose swimming in the water.

Sir Charles Tupper is the surviving Father of Confederation, and one of the great men of Canada. Both sides of politics recently united in honoring him at Amherst. On Friday and Saturday at the Nickeliet, exclusive pictures of this former Premier of Canada will be shown of the great demonstration at Amherst on April 28th. No one should miss this picture.

"The Slums of London," will be the subject on which Rev. A. H. Wheeler will speak in the Baptist church on Monday evening, May 19th, at 8 o'clock sharp. Given under the auspices of the Young Mens Win One and the Young Ladies Lend-a-Hand Classes of the Baptist Sabbath School. Silver collection. Proceeds to be used for the completion of the Tennis Court already in course of construction. This is a worthy cause. Come and encourage the young people by your presence and a generous offering.

Among the recent graduating class of the Maritime Business College, Halifax, we note the name of Miss Winnifred M. MacDongall, daughter of Geo. C. MacDongall of this town. Miss MacDongall has made an excellent record throughout her entire course. On her Final examinations she has three marks in the 90, and made the excellent aggregate of 594 out of a possible 700. Miss MacDongall is now prosecuting, in the same institution, the studies of Stenography and Typewriting and the ADVERTISER wishes her every success.
