

A Little Serious Reflection

Will show you that it is best always to pay enough. Low priced things are not always cheap. Low prices are sometimes deaily bought. There's such a thing as "extravagant economy"—that means saving on the price at the cost of the quality.

You're safe when you buy here, the best goods are what we sell, first, last and always.

DRESDEN.

Sept. 19.—Council met last evening. Mayor Craig was in the chair and all councillors present except Bader and McKim.

Several accounts handed in were ordered paid, also an account of some $300 from Mr. Brown for oak lumber, which was referred to the finance committee.

The rate for 1900 was struck at 20 mills.

J. E. McGlothin asked the council to procure a first-class artificial limb for Eva Turill, who had her leg taken off by the bridge when a child.

Moved by Steeper and King, that the council purchase a first-class artificial limb. Left to Dr. J. I. Wiley to look after the matter and see that the child is properly fitted.

Councillor Wiley spoke at some length with regard to the typhoid fever epidemic in North Dresden. He wishes to board of health to investigate at once and locate the cause if possible.

Moved by Wiley and Tassie, that the board of health search the typhoid locality thoroughly and locate cause if possible.—Carried.

Veterinary Clapp heard, asking for a grant of $25 for the Camden-Dresden Agricultural Society.

Moved by Tassie and Wiley, that $25 be granted.—Carried.
Council adjourned.

THE C. E. CONVENTION

Which Will be Held at Guelph on Oct. 2, 3, and 4 Next.

The royal city of Guelph will extend open-handed hospitality to Ontario's Endeavorers Oct. 2, 3, 4, and the young people of all denominations are looking forward with pleasure to the great feast.

The president and secretary sound "Discipleship" as a dominant note, practical methods in soul winning. The junior superintendent wants to answer the prayer, "Long live Christian Endeavor," by giving the junior work an impetus that will enable it to corner the boy market for Christ.

Rev. Chas. M. Sheldon, of Topeka, Kansas, author of "In His Steps," will be heard and deliver addresses on the subject, "The Open Door," he will also speak to the juniors and conduct open conference.

William Shaw, of Boston, treasurer of the United Society of Christian Endeavor, will be on hand for the opening session, Tuesday afternoon, and evening also on Wednesday.

Ontario will pour out her best talent, go to the Norfolk Street Methodist Church and you will hear the leading Baptist and Presbyterian divines. In Chalmers Presbyterian Church eloquent Methodist and Congregational speakers will delight you. General Secretary Crews of the Epworth League of Christian Endeavor will have charge of a practical conference.

Dr. McKay, foreign missionary secretary of the Presbyterian Church, will prove a great uplift to the young people.

President Harris, of the Toronto Bible Training School, will touch vital questions. Rev. W. F. Wilson, the Methodist orator, will reply to Guelph's welcome, and give another address besides.

Rev. A. L. Goggin, of Parkdale Presbyterian Church, late of the Maritime Provinces, will be a splendid acquisition.

Rev. J. L. Gilmore, of the Baptist Church, Hamilton, and other leading workers have a place on the program.

Purchase single tickets from your railroad agent, being sure to ask for a certificate, and you will get home for one third, or free if three hundred attend. Any person can attend the convention and secure the reduced fares. Ask for certificates, (not a receipt.)

Hotels and private houses have made a rate of one dollar a day.

There is no reason that this should not be the best convention Ontario has ever had, and every reason for its being such.

Further information can be had from the secretary, A. T. Cooper, Clinton, or Rev. R. J. M. Glassford, Guelph.

Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart acts directly and quickly, stimulates the heart's action, stops most acute pain, dispels all signs of weakness, fluttering, sinking, smothering, or palpitation. This wonderful cure is the sturdy ship which carries the heart-sick patient into the haven of radiant and perfect health. Gives relief in most acute forms of heart disease in 30 minutes.—17

OUT OF HIS MIND.

John C. Kinsella had been a resident of this city since August the first but a few days ago he left his boarding house on Wilkin street and disappeared. Hypnotism, Mr. Kinsella was a corn doctor and he made money at his calling. When he left the city he took to the woods, thinking that a train of cars and 7000 men were after him. When the unfortunate doctor got as far as Bridge End, he found a ball of fire and having the key he unlocked the ball of blaze but the heat struck to his fingers and some of the conflagration got on the back of his neck. This necessitated Kinsella throwing off all his clothes and thereby shocking all society in the neighborhood of Bridge End. Magistrate Andrew Nal gathered the naked man in and Constable Peters of Chatham Township, went out and brought him to Chatham. In his pocket was a post office savings book in which $65 had been deposited during August. On Aug. 31 and on Sept. 5, $60 had been withdrawn but the man had no money on him. The address on the bank book was Woodstock so that Kinsella evidently belongs to that village. He was committed to jail as dangerous to be at large.

A PAVEMENT PROTEST.

James Goodall, the well-known C. P. R. foreman, is very much disgusted at the manner in which the work on King St. is being conducted. "Why," he said this morning, "they tore up the entire walk in front of the market weeks before they were ready to proceed with the new pavement and that one act has caused greater inconvenience than most people suppose. Then look at the way they mix the concrete. In the first place the specifications were wrong when they allowed the broken brick to be put into the concrete at all, but even that blunder would be overlooked if it were not for the practice of mixing dirt and dust with the brick and stone. Concrete, if it is to be any good at all must be perfectly clean, otherwise when it hardens it will not be strong enough to bear any great weight. The granite-like walk contractors are doing a good job, as they are very careful in mixing their cement and the walks will undoubtedly be excellent ones."

It was clearly shown that no blame could be attached to Serling and he was discharged.

THEY WANT A SMITH, TOO.

Liberals are Trying to Induce Robert of that Name to Run.

The Liberal leaders in their hunt for a candidate have turned their attention to Robert Smith, the well known farmer who resides a short distance down the river in Dover. From present indications it looks as if their efforts to induce Mr. Smith to allow his name to go before the convention on Saturday next will be successful, as Liberals who know have said that he has almost made up his mind to take his chances. Should Mr. Smith decide not to come forward, Ald. McKeough will undoubtedly have the refusal of the nomination. His friends, however, are getting much annoyed at the hunt going on for a candidate. They say it looks as if the party will get somebody else if they can, and if they fail, fall back on Ald. McKeough. Ald. Stephens, it is understood, has definitely decided not to run. Mr. Smith is looked upon as a strong candidate. He is said to have lots of money.

—Pimples on the face are not only annoying, but they indicate bad blood. Hood's Sarsaparilla cures them by purifying the blood.

THINKS HIM A GOOD MAN.
"I think the Conservatives have nominated a good candidate in T. A. Smith," said Ex-Ald. John W. Dyer. "Though I am a Liberal myself I must say that Mayor Smith is a clean man and a fine fellow whom no party need be ashamed of."

ALL WELL MANAGED

The Grand Jury on the Public Institutions of the City and County.

The following is the presentment of grand jury for the fall assizes. The jury completed their duties yesterday. The presentment was received by Judge Woods in the absence of Chancellor Boyd. The judge in acknowledging the receipt of the document, made a fine address, complimenting the grand jury on the efficiency with which they had performed the functions entrusted to them, and congratulating the county upon the fact that but two cases had come up for trial.

Our duties were light, there being only one case that the crown counsel brought before us which we disposed of. This we consider a matter for congratulation. We found the grand jury room fitted up in first class order. These hospitals are situated in the city and are successfully managed by competent matrons and trained nurses and are fully equipped with all modern appliances.

The home of the friendless of this city was also visited by us, where we found thirteen inmates, all aged people. Everything in connection therewith was in excellent order. E. B. Toie, foreman of grand jury.

The interior of the building is kept in a neat, clean, and excellent condition, while on the farm there is a splendid crop of vegetables and also about 23 acres of first class corn now harvested and being husked by the overseer and the inmates. The general appearance of the farm is most satisfactory.

We likewise visited the Public General Hospital and St. Joseph's Hospital. These hospitals are situated in the city and are successfully managed by competent matrons and trained nurses and are fully equipped with all modern appliances.

The home of the friendless of this city was also visited by us, where we found thirteen inmates, all aged people. Everything in connection therewith was in excellent order. E. B. Toie, foreman of grand jury.

THE COLONEL'S BOMBHELL.

The declaration of Col. Sam Holmes to the effect that T. A. Smith will have his support in the coming election has created considerable excitement in local political circles. That a man who has all his life been a staunch Liberal, should give his vote and influence to the Conservative candidate is looked upon as a strong indication that Mayor Smith's popularity is greater than even his most intimate friends supposed. (The Colonel's change of attitude has created something like consternation in the Liberal ranks. The faithful talked of getting out their knives and starting after Sam, but as the Colonel is supposed to be somewhat of a fighter himself, they have some hesitation about tramping on his corns.
