Mrs. Dr. Cornell will give a large ther, Charles Ball, and his wife, of Waco, Texas, who are here on their wedding trip. The guests were young married people, all old friends of Mr. Ball.

Miss Jessie Harper gave a tir shower on Tuesday for Miss Mar garet Houston. There were about 30 of the girl friends of Miss Houston present and a very pleasant time was spent. Miss Harper was assist-ed by Miss Grace Houston and Miss Smith were the hostesses at a delightful "At Home" given at the residence, Lacroix street, Thursday afternoon. The guests were received by Mrs. Smith, Miss Smith and Mrs. F. H. Larkin, of Scaforth. The drawing room was chastely decorated in white and green. The tea room was a little more orilliantly prepared. Red and green was the color scheme here and the picture was very pretty. Mrs. Landon poured the tea, Mrs. J. G. Kerr served the claret cup and Mrs. R. V. Bray served the ice cream. The assistants were Miss Margaret Houston, Miss Susie Taylor, Miss Hattie Northwood, Miss Smith, Miss Flossie Smith and Miss Meta Wilson. Mrs. Manson Campbell, Mrs. John Pirgott and corated in white and green. The tea bell, Mrs. John Piggott an Samuel Glenn assisted in th drawing room.

Mrs. William Ball, Victoria avenue gave a reception Wednesday night in honor of her guest, Mrs. Charles Ball, of Waco, Texas. The decorations were all green and white and were prettily arranged. Mrs. William Ball and Mrs. Charles Ball received the guests. Mrs. West poured the tea and her assistants were Misses Bertha Northwood, Edith Tackaberry, Susie Taylor and Edith Complin Mrs. F. D. Laurie and Miss Ethel Ball assisted in the drawing room. Mrs. William Ball was attired in an elegant gown of black silk trimmed with point lace. Mrs. Charles Ball wore her bridal dress. It is an exquisite creation of white silk with pearl trimming. Mrs. F. D. Laurie wore a silk dress of pale blue and trimmed with red velvet and ecru lace. Miss Edith Ball was attired in rose silk with a cream face over-dress. Miss Ethel Ball wore a very becoming and pretty gown of white point de spirit.

Mrs. James Holmes, Vivtoria avenue, gave au "At Home" on Wednesday to introduce her daughter, Miss Kdith Hoimes, to Society. This was one of the largest are momes in the history of Maple City social functions. About 300 called during the reception hours. The visitors were received by Mrs. Holmes, assisted by her two daughters, Miss Holmes and Miss Edith Holmes. The house was very prettily decorated in honor of the event. Green and white was the color scheme. Palms and ferns and white carnations gave a pretty tought to the parlor. The tea room was very pretty. The table was concealed in a bower of ribbons and foliage and the only colors in evidence were white and green. Mrs. J. C. Fleming and Miss Lizzie McNaughton assisted in the drawing room. Mrs. John Ferguson had charge of the tea table. Miss Houston served the ice cream. The assistants were Miss Margaret Houston, Miss Nan Battisby, Miss Jessie Harper, Miss Dunlop and Miss Hattle Northwood.
