

Graham Flour.

There's one thing certain that the old fashioned way of making flour by just grinding all there was of the wheat was very nourishing. The making of graham flour is a very similar process. That is the making of GENUINE graham flour is so. The whole of the wheat, or practically all is retained. From this flour you get bread that is brown in color, rich in flavor, and nourishing.

Ask your neighbor how she likes Crystal Granulated Sugar. You will find it is the best sugar she has ever had in the house.
John Gilbert & Co. have, temporarily at least, gone out of the coal and wood business. They have sold their property at the corner of William and St. Patrick streets.
Vance A. Stalla has bought a half interest in the Leamington News from E. Mackay, and will take control of the mechanical department.
There will be a rehearsal of the "Crucifixion" in the First Presbyterian Church Lecture Hall at 8 o'clock, sharp, to-night.
The final accounts of the estate of the late Richard Linton, of this city, were passed before his honor Judge Bell. Judge Houston appeared for the administrator.
Mr. Alcide Emery is the guest of his brother, Nelson Emery, Poplar street. Alcide has been in Arizona and the west for the past six years. He will next visit his parents, (Mr. and Mrs. Francis Emery, Big Point).

James McGregor has a setter dog that he doesn't know what to do with. The dog was struck by a train on Sunday, had its head badly cut and an eye is missing. Wm. Cook, bus driver at the Garner Hotel, took the dog in and it is being cared for in the Garner stables.
A special meeting of St. Joseph's Court, 241, will be held at 7.30 p. m., Tuesday, the 15th inst., at the office of Dunn & Charteris, (over Meynell's store, King street), to arrange for the funeral of the late Brother, T. C. O'Rourke. A full attendance is requested. Jno. R. Gerber, C. R.; E. Dunn, R. S.
There is a scarcity of coal in the city. None of the dealers have any and the condition of affairs doesn't seem to be much better than it was a month ago. All the coal sellers are besieged with requests for coal but they have none to give. If this snow storm blocks traffic on the railroads a good many citizens will suffer from the lack of coal.
The cheapest lots in the city to-day for sale, actual value considered, are those still left in the Athletic Grounds survey. They are the most convenient to churches, market, stations, and are by long odds the best value in the city. One still left on last year's portion of William St. pavement and five on the new portion, with a number still left on Queen and College Sts. Terms easy. For particulars apply to D. McLaughlin, William St.
J. H. Williams, M. O. R., engineer, of St. Thomas, had a narrow escape from being run over Saturday morning. He was starting out with his engine, and not seeing that the sand did not work satisfactorily, got down on the steps of the engine to take a look at it. He slipped on the steps and fell, but managed to hang on by one hand until he got an opportunity to throw himself clear of the "train". He is on his right shoulder, straining the muscles very badly. He was taken to his home and attended by Dr. Leitch.

SATCHEL OF THE SATELLITE

There is a good deal of rubber about a mineral bath, about 25 cents worth.
I wonder what the police would do to any person caught shoveling snow without a license.
The Satellite had another mineral bath Sunday. All records are now broken, and a new one established.
If the Finance committee don't pretty soon mention the amount of last year's deficit, I'll ask them to.
Anybody caught discovering an electric street lamp lit will be prosecuted to the fullest extent of the law.
Jim Dumps won't need to wear a red coat and cap when he goes hunting. He has "other distinguishing features."

ONLY ORNAMENTS

The electric street lamps are things of beauty, to be lighted never.
A BALTIMORE BEAUTY.
"The Girl I left behind me," is the plaintive lament of the bachelor alderman since his return from Baltimore.

TOLD FOR THE MARINES.

It is a punishable offense to smoke cigarettes in the United States navy. Unfortunately not all cigarette smokers belong to the navy.—Detroit News.

SOULFUL.

"Be mine!" he cried. she said "I will."
And now, if truth were known, She's "his," but still he doesn't dare To say his soul's his own.
—Philadelphia Bulletin.

WEATHER SIGNS.

Human hair (red) curls and kinks at the approach of a storm.
When a cat washes herself good weather may be expected, but if she licks her coat against the grain, bad weather is indicated.

AT LAST.

The Republican says that the members of an opera company that sang in Macon last week, that "their execution received hearty compliments." It seems that at last the members of one opera company have received their due.—Kansas City Journal.

YELLOW JOURNALISM.

The headlines of the Daily Democrat of Springfield, O., on the day after the firing of the Negro quarter of Springfield by the "calm and orderly" white mob, are a study in "yellow journalism." Here they are:

THE users of Force will probably be gratified to know that Jim Dumps has a birthday coming.

Humane Officer Detective McGregor has discovered a freak of nature in the chicken family. He gave Capt. Boles some eggs last year. When they were hatched one of the chickens had three wings, two on one side and one on the other. The chicken is still a living exhibit and is in the possession of Capt. Boles. Col. Sam Holmes says that's nothing. He has several chickens with four wings, but it's hard to get ahead of the Colonel.

A MERE SUPPOSITION.

It's a good thing that this snow didn't come on Sunday, because then some of the citizens might have been tempted to get out and clean their sidewalks. Then it would have been up to the police to get after them for working on Sunday. I'll tell you right now that if we get a snow storm next Sunday the Satellite will take no chances.

RAH FOR ME.

My birthday comes on the 1st of April, and I have arranged with the members of the school board to give every scholar in the city a holiday. I hope that the pupils will appreciate the importance of the Satellite.

LOSS OF APETITE.

A person that has lost appetite has lost something besides—vitality, vigor, tone.
The way to recover appetite and all that goes with it is to take Hood's Sarsaparilla—that strengthens the stomach, perfects digestion and makes eating a pleasure.
Thousands take it for spring loss of appetite and everybody says there's nothing else as good as Hood's.
