The Port Williams Acadian

PORT WILLIAMS AND VICINITY

Mrs. R. S. Hockin was "At Home" to a large humber of friends on Friday from 4 to 6 o clock. The hostess, who was charming in a gown of tangerine silk crepe, was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. D. S. Collins, who wore a handome gown of navy blue flat silk crepe. Mrs. Marriot received at the door, while the tea table was presided over by Mrs. S. L. Gates and Mrs. J. W. Harvey, while Mrs. Dr. Zwicker, Mrs. Carl Starr, Misses Dorothy Illsley and Mary Vaughan passed delicious refreshments. Mrs. Harris, of Margretville, is the quest of her daughter, Mrs. Neal Coultan. Miss Elva Lantz is visiting her brother, Mrs. Kempton Lantz.
Several from here attended the Hallowe'en Supper at Greenwich on Thursday night. The hall was very tastefully decorated for the occasion and the supper all that an epicurean could desire.

The Lily of the Valley Division was re-opened for work on the 27th ult. As the busy season is still on the attendance was not large, but captians (Mrs. Ralph Newcombe, Mrs. Leander Woodworth) were chosen to provide programs for the ensuing quarter. Mr. T. J. Borden was elected delegate to attend the coming session of the Grand Division at Halifax.

Miss Cogswell and Miss Lucy Cogswell spent the week end with friends in Wolfville.

The Hallowe'en Social held in the Temperance Hall on Friday evening was a decided success. The hall was never so crowded before, but everybody had a good time. The program comprised five selections by the Wolfville High School orchestra (16 pieces), conducted by Miss Gladys Newcombe; reading by Miss Bessie Frazer; two violin solos by Miss Robert Bishop, with Miss Lucy Cogswell accompanist; vocal solos by Miss Robert Bishop, with Miss Lucy Cogswell accompanist; vocal solos by Miss Annie Pearson and Mr. Harry Mollins, of Acadia. A selection on the bells, by Mr. MacLaughlan, was much appreciated by the large audience. Several numbers of the prepared program had to be omitted on account of the Gwercrowded hall, the stage having to be used for the orchestra, Quite a number of Acadia students hiked over and enlivened things generally by their college yell and snatches of song. During the intermission the girls of the Delta Alpha Class, who originated the idea of having a social, sold fudge and told fortunes. Some of the girls' cooximes were unique, especially Miss Mary Vaughan, who in her black robbs made a veritable witch. The receipts of the evening were given as a Hallowsen present to Harold Chipman.

Trapping muskrats is the order of the day—or night—around here just now. The boys are all busy and some have made a catch of four rodents a night...

have made a catch of four rodents a night.

Mr. Edson Griffin received a prize of $11.00 on his pen of Rhode Island Reds which have been in Truro the past eleven months in the egg-laying contest in the poultry department of the Agricultural College. Of the twenty-five pens in the contest Mr. Griffin's took the fifth standing, five hens producing 929 eggs. The pen of Barred Plymouth Rocks, owned by R.W. Young of North Sydney, captured, the first prize, producing 1008 eggs. The 1st prize for laying the greatest number of eggs was captured by a White Leghorn hen from Deep Brook that layed 243 eggs, while one lazy old hen only produced 14 eggs during the whole period of the contest. When the new building is completed at the Experimental Farm, Kentyille, an egg laying contest for Nova Scotia is to be carried on.

Friends and acquaintances of Mr. Joseph Smith were sorry to learn of his serious accident at Gaspereau River last week and hope for a speedy recovery. Mr. Smith was for some time in the employ of Mr. D. S. Collins.

Mr. Harvey Lantz is visiting relatives and friends in this vicinity.

Mr. N. H. Newcombe left on Wednesday for Bridgetown, where he will spend some weeks.

ARMISTICE DAY AT PORT WIL-LIAMS

Armistice Day has always been cele-brated at Port Williams, and this year it promises to be an interesting meet-stage. The children of the public schools in district No. 6, Port Williams, Town Plox, Church Street and Chipman Corn-er, are to march to Citizens' Hall, Port Williams, on Tuesday evening, Nov. 11th, and provide part of the program, with songs and recitations, Mr. E. W. Robinson, M.P., for Kings county will 11th, and provide part of the program, with songs and recitations. Mr. E. W. Robinson, M.P., for Kings county, will deliver an address suitable to the occasion. We, who have lived through those awful years of "The Great War" should not begrudge the time to mark and bring to remembrance the blessing of peace for which our bravest and best fought, suffered and died, Should not this spirit be passed on and kept alive by the next generation—"Lest We Forget". John Donaldson.

GREENWICH

Mrs. Edgar Forsythe and little daugh ter, Irene, of Cambridge, who spent a few days with relatives here, returned home last Tuesday. Miss A. Cogswell, of Port Williams, was calling upon friends here last Tues-day.

Miss A. Cogswell, of Port Williams, was calling upon friends here last Tueseday.

The Hallowe'en Supper held here by the young people of the G. C. L. last Thursday evering proved to be a very good success without any programme in connection. The proceeds amounted to almost sixty-one dollars—to benefit in various ways for the League. The hall was very tast-fully and artistically decorated in the Hallowe'en colours, orange and black, and same colour as shales of the lights causing a soft glow over all. The ice-cream, candy and fortune-telling booths were each splencily done, as well as the long supper tables, and many exclamations of pleasure on how lovely the hall looked were heard from those present. meon, of Wolfville, left on Friday morning by automobile for Yarmouth on a camping trip of several days.

Much interest was expressed, by those of our residents who helped, at the good success of the runmage sale recently held in Wolfville by members of the Baptist church there, for the Acadia and helper sumpler from here extended to the control of the several sev la Baptist church there, for the Acadia fund.

A large number from here attended and enjeyed the concert at the Division hall at Port Williams last Friday develing, the singing of Mr. Mollins, of Acadia, being heartily enjoyed. Three of our young people assisted on the programme.

Mr. and Mrs. Hazen Bishop and little daughter, Dorothy, motored through to New Ross and returned last Sunday. Rev. Mr. Prestwood, of Hantsport, again occupied the pulpit in the church here on Sunday afternoon. Those present enjoyed the duet by Mrs. W. Curry and Mr. Turpele, the two voices blending well. Mrs. Curry also sang a solo in ha pleasing contralto voice.

Miss Carter, of Canso, is visiting friends here for a time.

The New Winter Models

Larger Women's Coats

Feature newest styles and colors

The self-same styles that slender women wear, but cleverly proportioned and correctly fitted to the larger figure, developed from materials of Velours, Teddy Bear, Bolivia and Cut Fabrics; some with plain collars, others with fur, and they are very modestly priced.
