The Canadian grade hog, founded on the Berkshire, Essex, Yorkshire, Chester, White, Poland China, Tamworth and other breeds, is a valuable animal and compares well with the hogs of any country. The system of feeding in this country is a vast improvment on that of any other, the animal being fed first on grass and elover, then on stubble and then on grain in the pen. Owing to the increased population of our towns and cities, the lightened work of the farm on account of the use of improved agricultural machinery, etc., a change has taken place in the popular taste resulting in a demand for leaner, lighter and more palatable pork, so that now of an equal hand clasp, and an outlook association, I did so because I believed
