summer time, the introduction of the "white-wings," the placing of anti-expectorating signs, the setting our of waste-paper barrels, enforcement of the snow by-law and the transfer-ring of the care of shade trees to the Parks-Board. He spoke with evident satisfaction to the interest being taking by the workingmen of Ham-irton in their lawns and flower gar-dens. The School Board was doing its share in cultivating in the chil-dren a love of the beautiful : the clurches were not, however, living, up to their opportunities in improv-ing the surroundings of such places. the valu
