

A MESSAGE FROM A WOMAN TO WOMEN

"Every Woman Should Take 'Fruit-a-tives'"

LAKELAND, ONT., May 12th, 1911

"Kindly publish this letter of mine if you think it will benefit other women who might be affected with the disease I have had in the past, but am now, thanks to 'Fruit-a-tives', completely cured of. It is my firm belief that every woman should take 'Fruit-a-tives' if she wants to keep herself in good health.

Before taking 'Fruit-a-tives', I was constantly troubled with what is commonly known as 'Nerves' or severe nervousness. This nervousness brought on the most violent attacks of Sick Headache, for which I was constantly taking doctors' medicine without any permanent relief. Constipation was also a source of great trouble to me and for which the Doctor said 'I would have to take medicine all my life', but 'Fruit-a-tives' banished all these troubles and now I am a well woman."

Flocks of blackbirds by the tens of thousands are feeding on the reeds along the shores of the Delaware river at Beverly, N. J., but gunners fear to shoot them, thinking they can be protected under the new Federal game laws which prohibit the potting of any migratory insect birds.

When the water mains of the Bronx Zoo in New York city became clogged, the animals protested so strongly against not having their daily baths that the keepers had to spend most of each day carrying buckets of water more than half a mile. The camels were the only animals which did not make trouble, and apparently did not miss their plunge.

Henry W. Judd, a wealthy retired business man and director in several Cleveland, Ohio, corporations, was scalded to death in his bathtub Sunday. His body was found several hours later by his wife on her return from church. His bath had been prepared by a servant, and it is supposed that he fell into the tub and was unable, because of his feeble condition, to climb out.

Since the first of the year, 193 children have been killed on the streets of New York. In consequence the National Highway Protective Society has condemned roller skating and like amusements on the roadways. Parents are also being asked to warn their children of the dangers that confront them when they play in the space set part for vehicles. The Society's warning applies to other cities than New York.

$100 REWARD, $100

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

A strange compact has been entered into by six young ranchers of the Fry Creek section in the Kootenay. They are under bonds to contribute $25 per head for a bachelor's ball to be held at Kelson, unless they are married by February 1st, 1914.

The Royal Dutch West India mail steamer, Java Nassau, which arrived from the West Indies, reported that in the outward passage from Amsterdam on October 4, a serious fire broke out in the coal bunkers, spread to the cargo in the fore-hold, and raged for four days, until the vessel succeeded in reaching St. Michael's when the flames were got in control.

What is wine? is a question that is to be taken up at Washington by the Secretary of Agriculture on November 5. Manufacturers, accordingly, have been invited to testify, and the Government will undoubtedly be enlightened sufficiently to make its report. The consumers of the beverage to be discussed will hardly bother about the enquiry of its result. To them, wine is a liquor that they like to drink.

Wireless advice from the approaching Robinson report that among the Volturno's passengers on board are several women separated from their families, and three little children whose identity is unknown. There being no relative or guardian with them on the Kronland. One is a five year old boy, who speaks German, and the other two are girls, three and four years, respectively, either Russian or Poles. The passengers on the Kronland raised a fund of $714 for both rescuers and rescued. They are warm in their praise of Captain Inch, of the Volturno, and Captain Kreibohm for the courage they displayed.

The free port of Hamburg has now passed London, with 25,000,000 tons of exports and imports in 1912. Nothing now remains ahead of the old Hanse town but Antwerp, with 26,654,489 tons in 1911, and New York, with 27,222,563 tons in the fiscal year 1912.

Doctors in London say we should not eat heavy breakfasts—or any breakfasts. Doctors in Kansas City say we should. The Star of the latter city thinks that "people will continue to eat breakfast as they have been doing since the Hannibal bridge was securely fastened to the banks of the Missouri and prosperity set in at this point."

A shepherd dog roamed for three days in a Chicago household beside the dead horse of its owner, and prevented the officers from removing the carcass. Children in the neighborhood sympathized with the dog rather than the police, and supplied it with food. At last it was overcome by a trick and a sack thrown over its head. The owner of the dead animal did not appear.

That times change, and men change with them, is apparent to the reader of history. In 1720, the legislature of Massachusetts passed a law that "any persons able of body, who shall absent themselves from public worship of God on the Lord's day, shall pay ten shillings fine." If such a law could be enacted now and the fines collected, taxes and tariffs would be wholly unnecessary, for the State government would require no other source of revenue.
