

PAINT INSURANCE

Good paint is good insurance. It adds far more than its cost to the value of a property.

Devoe is in every way the cheapest paint, because it is absolutely uniform and reliable, always full measure, takes less gallons and wears longest.

It is not a new brand that needs to be proved. It has been proved over and over again every day for 153 years.

DEVOE PAINT Goes Further and Costs Less

Here's our proof:

Fewer Gallons or No Pay
Paint half of your house with any other paint; paint half with Devoe.

The other half will take the most gallons; if not, we will make no charge for Devoe.

Wears Longer or No Pay
Here's another offer. Paint half of your house with lead-and-oil the other half with Devoe lead-and-zinc.

In three years the lead-and-oil half will need repainting, while the Devoe half will be about like new.

If not, we will give you the paint for the whole house.

Address

To the Very Rev. Stephen O'Driscoll,
P. P., St. Mary's, on the Attainment of His Silver Jubilee, July 25, 1910.

Very Rev. and Dear Sir,—

On behalf of your parishioners of the parish of St. Mary's, we desire to tender to you our most cordial and respectful congratulations on the attainment of your Silver Jubilee, the completion of your twenty-five years of faithful service in the Vineyard of the Lord.

This is one of the occasions in the life of a Priest when his faithful people may legitimately give expression to those sentiments of reverence and affection which all Catholic people feel towards those who rule over them in the Lord.

It is true that your ministrations have not been confined to this parish alone, but you will, we trust, permit us to say that the best part of your priestly life has been spent amongst the people of St. Mary's, and those of the older generation remember when you first came to us, and the ties of affection and esteem which were then formed between you and your people have strengthened with advancing years.

Therefore it was when twelve years ago you returned to us as our Pastor we welcomed you not alone as a father, but as a friend. We know that you have been laboring unselfishly and unceasingly to promote alike the spiritual and temporal interests of your people, your zeal and devotedness in every branch of your pastoral work—the building of churches for the worship of God, and schools for the education of the children, are well known and gratefully approved by us all, and that in all you have done you have not laboured for earthly reward, but for the honour and glory of God.

In conclusion, Rev. and dear Father, we hope and pray, that God may grant you many fruitful years to exercise your holy calling, and that you may be spared many years to labor amongst your devoted parishioners of St. Mary's. Please accept the accompanying purse as a small token of our affection and esteem.

On behalf of your Parishioners.

FR. O'DRISCOLL'S REPLY.

My Dear People,

I thank you most sincerely for your flattering address and your generous gift. I assure you, you have completely and agreeably surprised me, as I did not know till a few moments ago that you had a such a thing in contemplation. I intended keeping the knowledge of my Jubilee a secret, but you in your generosity would not have it so, as this address and well filled purse prove.

The people of this parish have always proved their loyalty and affection to their Priest, and I have, during the number of years I have been amongst you, always found you most willing to do whatever I asked. I pray that you will have every happiness and prosperity, and I ask you also to pray for me.

Among the many souvenirs was a beautiful Suit Case of Turkish leather presented by the Convent School children.

I bought a horse with a supposedly incurable ringbone for $30. Cured him with $1.00 worth of MINARD'S LINIMENT and sold him for $85. Profit on Liniment, $54.00.

MOISE DEROSCE,
Hotel Keeper, St. Philippe, Que.

Not long ago Lord Kinnaird who is always actively interested in religious work paid a surprise visit to a mission school in the East-end of London, and told a class of boys the story of Sampson. In concluding his narrative, his lordship added: "He was strong, became weak, and then regained his strength, enabling him to destroy his enemies, what would you advise me to do?" A little boy, after meditating on the secret of that great giant's strength, shot up his hand and exclaimed: "Get a bottle of hair restorer."

Lord Brassey.

Newfoundlanders will give our most distinguished visitor a hearty welcome. Lord Brassey has been every where, and has filled the very highest positions—First Lord of the Admiralty, a Naval Reformer, Governor of Victoria, a well known writer on naval affairs, and the originator of the Naval Manual.

Lady Brassey's "Voyage of the Sunbeam" is in its way a classic. Great as has been his own work he will be the first to acknowledge that the highest praise we can confer upon him is to declare that he is a worthy successor of his great father, Thomas Brassey.

I have always said that the greatest benefactor of Newfoundland in our days was our railway builder, Sir R. G. Reid. Well, what Sir Robert Reid was to Newfoundland, Thomas Brassey was to the British Isles and Europe. The greatest contractor and railway builder the world has ever produced. We can hardly conceive the immensity of Brassey's works. As early as 1840, he had 75,000 men employed, and a capital of one hundred and eighty millions involved in his great works. Besides his enormous undertakings in Europe, and the continent, he built the Grand Trunk Railway of Canada, 1,100 miles with its famous bridge over the St. Lawrence. He was famous not only for his success as a contractor, but also for his liberal and enlightened dealings with his men. Like all men engaged in great works he had his troubles, the failure of his partners, Feto and Bretts, and the fall of Great Barentia viaduct on the Rouen and Havre Railways, but he amassed an enormous fortune before his early death in 1870. Thomas Brassey was the greatest benefactor of his age and generation.

The present Lord Brassey is like his father, a great philanthropist and also pre-eminently a practical man of business. We can therefore recommend to his attention the development of our coal areas. The quality of our coal is universally admitted to be the best in America. The mines are near the water, and the railway, and the latest investigator, Mr. Turnbull, C. E., declares that the quantity is practically unlimited. The profits on coal mining are sure and steady, but they are not large in proportion to the immense outlay of capital for their full development. Our own consumption amounts to one and a half million of dollars every year, and when the coal areas are fully developed there is a large protective duty. We strongly recommend this subject to Lord Brassey's attention in the first place as a safe investment, and what will attract him most warmly as a great benevolent project—the steady employment of at least 2,000 men, the support of 10,000 of our population. A great Bank manager has declared that the working of commercial coal in our Colony would add fifty per cent to the financial position of Newfoundland. Lord Brassey is the man to initiate this great project.

Newfoundlander Accidentally Shot.

Mr. Jesse Whiteway yesterday afternoon had the following telegram from Mayor D. Murray, of Campbellton, New Brunswick, which speaks for itself:—

"Sergeant Harold Wheeler accidentally shot in abdomen by bullet from revolver; resting fairly well. Will you communicate with his mother and other relatives?"

The young man alluded to is a native of Musgrave Harbor, and is a son of Mr. J. B. Wheeler, J. P., of that place, and a bright, clever young fellow. He is in college and had gone down to Spsses to spend his vacation. He is about 21 years old, and his father and mother both reside at Musgrave Harbor, while a brother, Rev. John Wheeler, is pastor of an extensive parish of the Methodist Church in Boston, Mass. His father is the oldest civil servant in this colony, and a man well known and much respected all over the country. The message seems to be carefully worded, and the fear is expressed by Mr. Whiteway that the accident may have a fatal termination. He is a nephew of Mr. Whiteway's, and that gentleman yesterday telegraphed Rev. E. French, of Musgrave Harbor, giving him the facts and asking him to break the bad news to the aged parents. A brilliant future lay before the hapless young man whose many friends will pray that the accident may not be as serious as anticipated, and that with skillful treatment his life may be spared. It is thought that he was attached to some volunteer association and that while at revolver practice he was accidentally shot. If the worst should happen it will be a serious blow to his parents.

Mr. W. N. Snelgrove, J. P., of Catalina, arrived in town Saturday and is staying at the Balm.

League Football.

C. E. I. Defeats Casuals.

The postponed football match, C. E. I. vs. Casuals, took place on St. George's field last evening. Very fine weather prevailed with a good breeze blowing down field. The attendance was the smallest for the season owing chiefly to the fact that the lake-side is just now the principal attraction for citizens. The Casuals winning the toss defended the western goal with the wind in their favor, and the line up of the teams was:—

Casuals—Foster, goal; Herder, Lumsden, backs; Rendell, Brown, Forbes, halves; Lilly, Fraser, Cunningham, Smallwood, Miller, forwards.

C. E. I.—Hayter, goal; Hunt, Le-Messurier, backs; Hussey, Hallett, Stick, halves; James, Miller, Drover, Godden, Dobson, forwards.

At the start the Institute boys made matters lively for their opponents for a short time, but the Casuals put up a good defence and later made a dash east, and in a scrimmage in front of the Institute goal hands against their opponents prevented the possibility of their scoring. Getting the ball up against the wind James made an effort to find the net but shot wide of the mark. Hands were given against C.E.I. when Casuals had a look in at goal, but failed to do the necessary. Casuals shortly after secured a corner off Hayter and missed a fine chance of scoring. The C.E.I. now once again dashed up field and taking the ball well in towards goal secured two corners but got nothing from them and the half time whistle blew, the teams crossing over without scoring.

When the ball was again put in play there was a struggle for a while in centre field, after which the C. E. I. got the leather down in the Casual territory, but shooting was not true and nothing resulted. James now shot and Foster saved but drove the ball only a short distance away, when Drover got the leather a few yards from the goal mouth and missed the chance of the evening. The Institute now bombarded the Casual goal, secured a corner, which was well placed, but missed scoring owing to the alertness of their opponents. Fouls were debited to both teams, full time was drawing on apace, and it looked like a draw with no goals for either team when the C.E.I. made a determined dash on the Casuals goal. Foster saved a difficult shot and drove the ball a few yards out, but James corralled it and got the only goal for the evening a few minutes before full time. Soon after referee Higgins whistle gave notice of the finale with C.E.I.'s the victors by 1 goal to nil.

Wrestling Match.

H. Dewling won in the wrestling match with C. Forristal at the Seaman's Home last night. Mr. H. Mogridge was referee. Dewling, who won in two falls in four minutes and ten minutes respectively, was presented with a silver medal. Hubert Keats has challenged him for a contest at the end of August.

Notes From Harbor Grace.

The Government wharf near Victoria Street is to be repaired and yesterday a temporary fence was put up preparatory to the work being done.

The funeral of the late Capt. Geo. Parsons took place yesterday and was largely attended, including the members of the British and Masonic Societies.

Jabez Thompson, Esq., and his daughter, Miss Thompson, were in town for a short time on Wednesday visiting friends.

One of the Telegram newsboys, John Perry, picked up a purse containing a small sum of money near the Custom Houses early yesterday morning. A woman of the East End soon appeared mourning over her loss, when Johnny made her heart glad by handing her the lost property.

Miss Sarah Bradbury has accepted a position in the office of the Archibald Bros. Shoe Factory.

Readers of the Telegram! Remember the Guy celebration at Harbor Grace, to open on the 16th August. Two thousand dollars has been subscribed for the affair. H.M.S. Brilliant is to take part and a big time is assured. Come and help us celebrate. Your correspondent will gladly furnish any information as to hotels, &c., to any person desiring such.

The Edith, the favorite boat last year, has been cut down somewhat, and her admirers are looking forward to her giving a good account of herself.

The new whaleboat owned by the Christian Doctrine Literary Association was launched on Thursday evening and some crews took a spin in her. She was named the C.D.L.A., and great things are expected of her at the forthcoming regatta.

A meeting of committees and citizens generally was held in the Public Building last night, and matters of importance in connection with the celebration were talked over and settled.

The firemen's boat, Volunteer, is also being cut down and other improvements made in her. It is said that Mr. William Cayson, who acted the part of coxswain in the good old days, will again take charge this year, and it is expected that some of the old-time vim will be put into the regatta of 1910.

Mr. Thos. Mosdell died at his home, Bay Roberts, on Thursday morning last after an illness extending over some months. Mr. Mosdell was 62 years of age and leaves a widow and three sons to mourn their loss. Deceased was a brother of Mrs. Fritz Grim of this town.

Some of the men of Riverhead, who returned from the railway work a few days ago, say that owing to so much wet weather work in many places down there is trying on a man's health. Nearly all the time they are forced to stand in wet clothes. It is only the young and strong that can stand such work, and even they will feel the effects after a time.

Mr. Charles Parsons passed away on Saturday. He was on the s.s. Invermore as engineer on the first trip. Since then he has been at his home at Bear's Cove sick and gradually sinking to death. He is a brother of Capt. Parsons of the s.s. Invermore. CORRESPONDENT.
