

Originals to Present "Rapid Fire" Next Week

OPEN ENTIRELY NEW PROGRAMME
WITH MONDAY MATINEE.

Owing to the tremendous success of the Originals at the Nickel Theatre all this week, and the sensation this marvellous organization has created in St. John's, the management has decided to announce their second and positively last week commencing next Monday, (Empire Day) matinee at 2.30 with an entirely new show called "Rapid Fire," the famous production that broke every existing theatrical record throughout Canada last season.

The Originals will play "Stepping Out" all the rest of this week with a popular matinee on Saturday (to-morrow) afternoon when the children will have an opportunity to see this excellent show.

Such an organization of versatile entertainers has never before played here, and while this is the Originals' first appearance in St. John's, it will not be the last, judging by the great reception accorded them at every performance so far this week. Next season they are going to Great Britain for a long tour of the Music Halls, and will later make a tour of the Empire including South Africa, Australia, New Zealand and India.

A few of the outstanding numbers in next week's big musical revue will include "When Catherine Ruled," a musical hit of the days of Russia's great Queen; "The Floral Dance," with Bertram Langley in the role that made him famous years ago; "Give me a little cosy corner," with Gene Pearson and the incomparable quartette; "Watchman what of the night" by Bertram Langley and Jerry Bradford; a rollicking khaki number called "Billeted in a Barn" in which the inimitable Bob Anderson is at his very best; Gene Pearson's single numbers will include "The Waltz Song" from "Romance and Juliet," Elaborate costumes and the usual correct staging will be in evidence.

Through Fire and Water

The Thomas Bentley production, "Through Fire and Water," which was shown at the Majestic Theatre last night lives thoroughly up to its reputation. It keeps thrill upon thrill, and excitement upon excitement, and excitement upon excitement. All through the tense drama runs a pretty love story, in which the chief parts are played by the pretty and graceful Flora le Breton, the clever swimmer and dancer, who recently won the amateur dancing championship of the world, and Clive Brook, who gave so admirable a performance in "Sons of the Sea" and other well-known films. The film is adapted from Victor Bridges' novel, "Greensea Island."

"Through Fire and Water" will be repeated to-night as will also the concert numbers of Adams and Cheney who again won the praise and compliments of the audience. The rendition of Ave Maria was indeed well worth the admission whilst the house thoroughly enjoyed the popular medleys and Harry Lauder's Scotch success. It was a real bill of good music, good photoplay and should not be missed. To-morrow afternoon a special program for children is advertised.

The Originals

Continue Their Success

The chorus of praise bestowed on the Originals since their first appearance at the Nickel Theatre on Monday last, increases with each performance and they truly deserve the plaudits of an ever-increasing host of admirers. Last night every seat in the audience was his Excellency the Governor and suite. The review "Stepping Out" is an entertainment that everybody should see. There is music to please every taste. Skits that will make the most inclined lose their restraint and become hilarious. There are impersonations that are astonishing. There are delightful fragments of sentimentalism both in singing and acting. To miss the show is to miss a rare treat. There will be a matinee to-morrow afternoon and the evening performance the rest of the week, being the last chance for those who have not yet seen "Stepping Out." So follow the crowd and join the host of admirers of the best makers that ever visited this city. On Monday the company presents an entirely new bill entitled "Rapid Fire."
