MUSIC AND DRAMA.

BANCROFT TOMORROW NIGHT.

The magnificent spectacular production that Frederick Bancroft, the Prince of Magicians, brings to the Grand Opera House tomorrow (Tuesday) evening, Nov. 12, is sumptuous.
Nothing like it in elaboration of detail or completeness of ensemble has ever been attempted on the stage, it is said. He is a fascinating entertainer, and his liberality and elegance of taste in the matter of stage appointments combine in making up a performance of unequalled attractiveness.
In conjunction with Mr. Bancroft's deft manipulations in legerdemain, several specialties of a high order will be given. The descriptive music is also said to be quite a feature.
The performance is given in four acts and two transformation tableaux.

GILMORE'S BAND.

If we take the testimony of the press as given in recent utterances upon Gilmore's Band—the new Gilmore's under Victor Herbert—we are bound to consider it the most remarkable organization of its kind the country has ever had. For instance, one noted musical writer asks pertinently: "Why does the management continue to call it 'Gilmore's Band' when it is far more the orchestra than of the 'band'?" There is more of the orchestra than of the 'band' than to a standard wherein it is a dangerous and powerful rival to the best of the great orchestras. Its playing is equally finished and beautiful. The great old band will be here in grand concert on Tuesday, Nov. 19, at the Grand Opera House.

THE BACONIAN CLUB.

The annual meeting of the Baconian Club, the leading literary and debating organization of the city, was held Saturday night in the Albion Block. The attendance was unusually large and several new Baconians were added, raising the membership almost to the limit. Officers were elected as follows: President, U. A. Buchner; vice-president, Orlando J. Stevenson, B.A.; secretary, J. W. Wheaton, B.A.; executive,

D. E. Galbraith, B.A.; F. W. Daly, B.A., and M. W. Roscoe. The evening's programme was furnished by Messrs. F. W.

Daly and L. W. Burke. The former gave a capital reading and the latter a paper on "Brain vs. Muscle," which provoked an interesting discussion.

METHODIST ANNIVERSARY.

Rev. Dr. Gifford, of Wingham, preached the anniversary sermons at the King Street Methodist Church yesterday to large congregations. He selected as his evening text Christ's promise as given in the 33rd verse of the 6th chapter of Matthew, "Seek ye first the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things shall be added unto you." The sermon was a very able and scholarly effort, stamping the reverend doctor as one of the foremost pulpitators in Western Ontario. During the course of his remarks he dwelt strongly on the fact that men often preferred to seek first the secondary things of the world instead of the kingdom of Heaven when all other things would be added. He referred to the wonderful order of all things created tending to bring the great design of God, which was to lift man heavenward, and showed the nature of the kingdom of God, which was an internal one, abounding in the hearts of men. He showed how nicely everything in the world was adjusted around the center of motion, which was Calvary.

A PROSPEROUS CHURCH.

Mr. Joseph Nicholson, the recording steward of the Colborne Street Methodist Church stated, during the service Sunday morning, that the envelope receipts towards minister's salary, from June 4 to Nov. 3, were $505, being about $100 in excess of the same period last year. He also read the following resolution, which had been adopted at a meeting of the quarterly official board on Friday evening: "Moved by J. H. Swann, seconded by H. Pratt, that as a board we desire to express our hearty appreciation of the services rendered by our pastor, Rev. Walter Rigby, during his term of labor amongst us. We are convinced that the financial affairs of the church are in very prosperous condition and that this has been largely brought about by his untiring efforts in the past, and we pledge ourselves heartily to cooperate with him in the advancement of all interests of our church in the future."

NO NEED TO CHANGE IT.

"What have you named the baby?"

"We shan't name her at all."

"That's very odd."

"Well, you see, we named the oldest girl Mary and the boy William. Now one signs herself 'Marie' and the other

W. Leonard.' We're going to let our last one fix up her front name entirely unhampered."
