Frozen to Death.

A correspondent of the Advertiser furnishes the following particulars of a most lamentable occurrence: During the storm of Monday evening last, William Solomon, of Huron township (Bruce county), went out to the barn, and on returning he missed the house, wandering along a line fence and losing his way. He was found frozen to death about 60 rods from his house on Thursday afternoon. The neighbors had turned over the snow from six to eight feet deep entirely over a tenacre field in their search. Mr. Solomon was subject to fits, although for some time he had none. He was in his 53rd year. The sad mishap has caused a great sensation in the vicinity." The funeral took place this afternoon to Verdun cemetery.
