THE STEEL STRIKE.

Situation at the D_quesne Plant is Critical -$40,000 a Week Needed For Strike Benefits.

Pittsburg, Pa., Sept. 1.—The principal interest in strike matters today was centered in the Duquesne plant, where it was expected the strikers would make a decided move toward closing from there tonight says the situation is critical. The two boss melters and all first helpers went to work as usual this morning and all twelve furnaces were charged. Only one second helper went in and all ladlemen stayed out. The strikers made a thorough houseto-nouse canvas of open hearth men all day. At 4 o'clock, the time for helpe's and ladlemen to go on, pickets were on duty on the streets and turned back three ladlemen. The night turn is badly crippled, but men were brought from the Bessemer department to help out, and the mill is running full. Sixty of the day turn men are out and the strikers say not a man will report tomorrow morning.

If the open hearth is shut down the 40 inch mill must also shut down. This mill supplies Monessen, Vandergrift and Tin Mills, hence the movement is important to the strikers. Mill officials admit today that a strike is on, but they say no serious results will follow. Everything so far has been conducted in an orderly man-A conservative estimate of the amount of strike benefits that are to be paid by the Amalgamated Association to its striking members now idle been placed at $40,000 every week. This is basing the number of benefici-aries at 10,000 and the average payment to a member at $4 a week

GROVER CLEVELAND SAVED FROM ARREST

Accused of Catching a Fish Quarter of an Inch Under the Legal Length.

Pittsfield, Mass., Aug. 31.-The difference

Pittsfield, Mass., Aug. 31.—The difference of a quarter of an inch in the length of a fish, caused the apprehension of exPresident Grover Cleveland, Dr. Bryant and Cassius Scranton in Lake Garfield by deputy game wardens on Wednesday afternoon for illegal fishing. The fact only became known today.

The ex-president escaped personal arrest only through the insistence of Mr. Scranton, who took upon himself all blame for the fracture of the game laws of Massachusetts.

Grover Cleveland and his two friends were fishing in Lake Garfield when a were fishing in Lake Garfield when a boat containing three deputy game com-missioners drew up beside them.

One of the deputies noticed in the bottom of the other boat a bass which appeared to be smaller than it really ought to be. It was measured and found to be only seven and three-fourths inches long. Un-der the law a bass measuring less than eight inches long must be returned to the water as soon as caught. The deputies had no alternative but to arrest the man who had caught the fish.

"My name is Dr. Bryant, of New York," said the first one. "My name is Cassius Scranton, of New Marlboro," added the second; while the third, a large, stout man, followed by saying, with a smile: "I'm Grover Cleveland, of New Jersey." The mention of the last name startled the deputies, but they did not hesitate in the performance of their duties. They insisted on knowing which of the trio had hooked the fish.

had hooked the fish.

Mr. Scranton quickly acknowledged that he was the guilty person. Mr. Cleveland and Dr. Bryant both declared they were guilty. The deputies were for a moment nonplused, but finally directed Mr. Scran-ton to appear in court. He was accordingly arraigned in the district court in this city today. He pleaded guilty and was fined $2 and costs, which he paid. MISS ROBLYN IN HAMILTON.

REUNITED THROUGH EXHIBIT OF PHOTOS

Mother and Daughter Get Together After Many Years of Separation.

Boston, Sept. 1 .- A photograph shown among hundreds of others at the exhibition of the New England Photographers' Association, held at Copley Hall, has reunited a daughter and a mother, who had searched for her for years. The photograph is hung conspicuously for its beauty in the exhibit of platinum paper pictures of Joe Di Nunzio & Co. Friday afternoon among the crowd was a middle-aged woman, dressed in mourning. She was alone and was examining, with somewhat listless attention, the pictures on the wall. Suddenly she made an exclamation and shrank back. Then she came up to Mr. Di Nunzio and asked: "Whose portrait is that?" "I do not know," sald Mr. Di Nun-io; "the portrait was taken by Mr. Jack Garo; you may go to him."

"I believe," said the woman, "that it is a portrait of my daughter, Miriam. My name is Cole. My home is in Hopetown, Conn. Miriam ran away with a theatrical company five years ago, and I spent a lot of money looking for her. It seems that I have some clue to her whereabouts.' The woman went to Mr. Garo, who gave her the address of the young woman who had posed for the photograph. She has been for four years a professional painters' and photographers' model, having failed upon the stage. As a model she eked out a livelihood and lived in a cheap lodging house in the West End, on Joy street. There her mother found her late at night.

BEATRIX KOELER.

A Girl Who Has Broken All West Point Swimming Records.

West Point, Sept. 1 .- Miss Beatrix Koehler, the 15-year-old daughter of Lieut. Herman J. Koehler, the physical director of the military academy here, has created quite a sensation at the post by breaking all previous records of the swimming tank in the academy gymnasium. Codets, in order to qualify, are required to swim ten minutes with the regulation breast stroke. This usually requires them to circle the tank from five to seven times. To many this is a very difficult task, only accomplished after repeated efforts. Some have even been known to spend several summers

Miss Koehler succeeded in swimming around the tank 24 times in 51 minutes and 5 seconds. In all this time she made use of the regulation breast stroke only, and left the tank only because the time set aside for the use of the tank for the ladies of the post had expired. She was not in the least fatigued. Miss Koehler received her first instruction in swimming from her father in the Hudson River when she was barely 7 years old.
