New York, N. Y., Nov. 3. - The re-Sherman, the Republican vice-presiis a great surprise to many politidential candidate, received the election returns at his house on Upper for he gets about 184,000 plurality, Genessee street, this city, surrounded in the state, helped very much to by a company of relatives and pull Governor Hughes through, nevertheless Hughes' election cannot entirely be ascribed to that fact.

The house was supplied with long Hughes has waged a relentless war distance telephone connections and a against all the racing interests of the distance telephone connections and a state, having advocated the passage of bills which would prohibit betting on Sherman he was congratulated by putting many tracks out of business. He made, of course, a great many enemies in this way, and there was an tions early, and the telephone wires him, and no end of work against him immense amount of resentment against ing that he has been elected by about everybody who ever made a $5 bet at the race track, was against Hughes.

"The result does not surprise me," tered into the canvass to a great exhe said. "For the past month I have tent. Men argued that New York been as sure of Republican success as I am tonight. The Republican party, that the Legislature should not direct bility, order, confidence, a continutinuance of protection, and the gold standard; stood for the equality of all men and all interests before the law. men and all interests before the law.

It to draw attention from the tariff was this feeling of resentment against personal liberty, that caused a great many votes to be cast against him.

Democrats Sore on Machine. On the other hand, there has been a deep feeling of resentment among a the state Democratic machine. This was led by Senator Patrick H. McCarren, of Kings County, who twice has been flung out of state conventions and once out of the national convention by Murphy, Conners and the state mawill be received by the undersigned till noon on the 14th of November, 1908, for construction of two stores, etc., for London Loan Company, adjoining the Oddfellows' building. Were set upon, of course, by the machine, and they were full of resentment when they went to the polls today.

McCarren unquestionably threw the weight of his influence as much as possible conjust. sible against Chanler, the machine's Democratic candidate. The disgruntled

Democrats up the state did the same, and in this way a large vote was withheld from the regular Democratic can-Wilcox Manufacturing Co. didate for governor. Socialists Polled Heavy Vote. In addition to this the Socialists ran ticket which has polled a heavy vote, especially on the east side in New York ernor who apparently has polled 15,000 or 20,000 in the state, if not more. Those, of course, were Democratic votes and drew from Chanler. These, briefly, are the reasons why there is so great a difference between the Republican vote for Taft and the vote for Hughes and for Chanler. This condition of affairs in a way helped Taft to carry the greater city of New York by a small plurality, an almost unheard of thing for a Republican candidate for president to do. Greater New York has given Taft for president a plurality approximating 8,000 over Bryan, a phenomenon which has not been seen here since 1896. The New York County plurality for Bryan is only about 16,500, estimating the missing districts. Brooklyn went for Taft by more than 20,000. Queens and Richmond are for Bryan by small pluralities.

The plurality in the whole city for Chanler is about 70,000 and for Dix, Democrat, for lieutenant-governor, about the same.
