If the enthusiasm with which the performers were greeted last evening is any criterion, this city wants vaudeville and wants it badly. It is to be hoped that it will be given the theatregoing public next fall.

A Great Bill.

As for the show itself it is a wellbalanced bill, and enjoyable every minute of the time. One difficulty in determining the headliners is the individual excellence of each act.

However, for real enjoyment, the premier position must be given to Clarence Wilbur and his excellent company, who present an excruciatingly funny "sketch," "The New Scholar. It is a regular howl from start to finish, and it keeps everybody on tenterhooks for fear of losing some of the Wilbur, in a regular Patsy character, is immense. Fun oozes out of him just like love sonnets exude from a summer girl. He is great. But he is not the whole show.

The Six O'Connor Sisters, who are in the act, and, who by the way, come from Mimico, although Toronto claims them, are worthy of the highest encomiums. They are pretty and sing well. Their sextette "Annie Laurie" is real music, and one of the best features of the whole performance. This act alone is worth the price of ad-

BUFFALO BILL IS COMING TO LONDON

The Great Wild West Show Visits This City on Dominion Day.

Buffalo Bill's Wild West, combined with Pawnee Bill's Far East, will celebrate Dominion Day in London, giving two performances on the Dundas street show grounds, with the original and only Buffalo Bill in the saddle at both shows. The first advertising car reached town last night, and lithographers and bill-posters are spending the day in displaying the posters of the show in the city and vicinity. The Canadian tour of the big exhibition begins June 21 with a two days' engagement in Montreal. Subsequently Otlawa, Brockville, Kingston, Belleville Toronto, Hamilton, Brantford and London will be played in the order given. From this city the show goes to St. Thomas and Chatham, completing its two weeks in the Dominion. PREDICTS NEW RELIGIONS
