LOSERS WEAKEN IN 3RD

And Allow Winners to Cinch the Championship by Scoring Three Runs.

The St. John's A. C. ball team on Saturday in the Springbank League put a crimp in the aspirations of the Youngs when they administered for the second time in a post-series of two games a decisive defeat. The score was 5 to 0.

The game was a fine exhibition with the exception of the third inning, when the Youngs weakened in defensive play, allowing the "Saints" to chalk up three runs.

The pitching of "Halle" Watts was phenomenal, he having ten easy strikeouts and allowing but four scratch hits. W. Clark, of the losers, pitched pretty good ball, but was in hard luck at times.

St. John's Own the Cup. C. Mc Cann has now been won twice by the St. John's, thus making the cup their permanent property.

Medals, it is rumored, are also to be donated by A. G. Spaulding to the successful athletes.

James Bell, of City League fame, officiated impartially as umpire.

ATHLETICS BEAT
TIGERS IN FINALMullin Pitches Good Ball But Is Given Ragged Support By Teammates.

DYCART ALSO IN FORM

Allows Jennings' Men But Four Hits and Is Well Supported.

Detroit, Sept. 18.—Connie Mack's Athletics yesterday made three out of four in the last series of the season with the three-time champions. Dycart pitched the entire game, and this is said to be the first full contest he ever performed in on Bennett lot.

The little right-hander pitched good ball. Detroit found him for four singles, two of which happened to be clean. Two came in the same inning.

Mullin also pitched some good ball, and it should have been a twisters' duel, but the difference in the quality of support is displayed by the score.

The disheartened Tigers provided the Athletics with two runs and helped them to a third, while Philadelphia returned to championship form and gave Dycart air-tight support. Baker and Collins both gave remarkable displays of fielding and saved Dycart from getting into a precarious position on two occasions, second and sixth, when the finger heaved too much to either side of the plate.

Saturday Jennings signed a contract for next year, and today he faces a serious problem. With three regulars, Bush, Cobb and Delehanty missing from the line-up, his club has a second division aspect.
