The Defeat of the French

RUGENIE PREPARES FOR FLIGHT

THE EMPEROR ILL—ABDICATION PROBABLE!!

GREAT BATTLE EXPECTED NEAR METZ.

General Bazaine Commander of the French Army.

PARIS IN A STATE OF SIEGE.

Popular Rage and Discontent.

London, Aug 8.—McMahon is in communication with General Foy.

Details of the capture of Weissenburg show that the French were surprised and suffered greatly from the Prussian artillery.

Gen. Dornier fell at Metz. A battle will probably take place to-morrow at Metz.

London, Aug 9.—News from Paris hourly grows more serious. Nothing but official reports are allowed to be published.

Letters say the rage and disappointment of the people on finding there had been a series of defeats on French soil, instead of in the enemy's country, is beyond description.

The people were furious on reading the proclamation of the Emperor. Seventeen Deputies signed a call for France to arm.

Bazaine is appointed Commander-in-chief of the French army. Napoleon is still ill.

Metz, Aug 8.—The army is concentrating to-day to march to the Vosges and defend the passes. No engagement to-day.

London, Aug 9, 3.30 p.m.—According to the Full Mail Gazette Europe is preparing for flight.

The army at Metz is undergoing a thorough reorganization.

The Times says the French disaster is owing to the Emperor's obstinacy in refusing sound military advice and to his illness.

The people of France will make him pay the penalty of his ill success. His name is already ignored to such an extent that the regency seems to rally the people.

Things arrange themselves as if he was not expected to resume power, as if testing how he may be dispensed with altogether. The only question is, who shall utter the first word—abdications.

Paris, Aug 9.—Nothing certain concerning Austria. Prussia is keeping her quiet with promises. No disturbance has taken place.

The authorities having been warned that a society of workmen intended to make demonstrations took precautions to prevent them. The journals announce that Italy will send 100,000 men to assist France.

Paris, Aug 9.—McMahon fell back to St. Avold. Prussia has retreated a short distance.

The Emperor issued a proclamation stating that the opening of the war is unfavorable to France, and says: "Let us hasten and repair our reverses." Let there be but one party and that for France.

London, Aug 8.—Dispatches state positively that the Emperor is ill at Châlons.

The Prussian menace Metz and St. Avold. McMahon continues to retreat towards Nancy.

Paris, Aug 9.—The enemy is in a large measure concentrated in front of Metz. Marshal Bazaine has the direction of operations.

The Emperor has gone to the headquarters of Gen. Bazaine.

Metz, Aug 8-9.10 p.m.—Changarnier has arrived. Public opinion here receives with favor the advent of Changarnier.

London, Aug 9.—The French fleet of nine iron-clads, bound east, passed Dover to-day.

Paris, Aug 11.—At the battle of Werth Marshal McMahon was 25 hours in the saddle without food, and fainted from exhaustion and fell into a ditch. Fortunately he was discovered and revived. Gen. Dornier, when he found all was lost, shot his saddle horse and deliberately walked into the face of the Prussian fire and fell almost alone.

London, Aug 11.—A New York cable dispatch says that of the battle of Werth all the French accounts are wholly untrue. McMahon was entirely routed—the French abandoned everything and fled, leaving behind their killed, wounded and prisoners, numbering 20,000. Also it depicts the accounts of communication with Strasbourg and says that the city is besieged and its immediate surrender demanded but refused. Artillery for the Prussians is on the way.

The Crown Prince is still pursuing McMahon.

A London dispatch to the New York Tribune from Paris, says the rumors of fresh battles are constantly flying about the city. If another reverse occurs the Empire is gone and confidence destroyed. The Orangists or Republic will then succeed Napoleon.

Gen. Grosser, who was to have commanded the Baltic expedition, has gone to Metz and the Baltic enterprise is indefinitely postponed.

The enthusiasm of the soldiers increases. Signs of battle are eagerly looked for.

La Patrie describes the scenes in the Corps Legislatif yesterday and says when Olivier attempted to speak a second time the deputies of the Left rushed for him and would have murdered him had not some of the members interposed.

A dictatorship is talked of, with General Frochu as supreme head.

A great battle was commencing near Metz. The London Times correspondent, telegraphing from Paris on the 10th inst., says that drums were beating and bugles calling at Paris, and that a great popular demonstration was at hand.

DELAYED DISPATCHES

Europe.

Athens, August 8.—via Paris 9.—The Greek Government refuses to assist the English Judges sent there to investigate the circumstances of the massacre of foreigners at Marathou.

Brussels, the British Minister, has protested against the action of the Government.

The following report was telegraphed from Metz at 10.15 A.M.: The Corps of General Failly, which was not engaged in the recent actions, is the rallying point of the army. It has not been disturbed. McMahon has executed the movements prescribed for him.

There is great activity in enrolling volunteers in all parts of the city.

Thirty-three thousand workmen are now strengthening the fortifications, assisted by 20,000 soldiers.

The Corps Legislatif met to-day at one o'clock. Groups formed before the hall, which grew greater every moment and soon there were more than 10,000 persons assembled. There were loud cries of Vive Changarnier! and Vive La France. Some were heard to shout Vive Rochefort from the balconies of Belleville. At two o'clock the troops of line ranged around the hall, and also a squadron of cavalry. They were received by the crowd with cries of To the frontier! To the frontier! The cavalry at once broke into a trot along the street, and the crowd withdrew, still shouting.

The scene in the Corps Legislatif was one of turbulence and almost violence.

Olivier has resigned and Gen. Palikao has been charged with the duty of forming a new ministry.

London, August 9.—A dispatch from Karlsruhe, to-day, states that Strasbourg is surrounded by 60,000 troops, mostly South German, and must surrender. The advance of the Prussians from Saarbrücken and Treves has commenced. It is supposed Prince Charles is in command and that an immediate attack will be made on Metz.

A dispatch from Hongkong says that on the 21st of July the French Consul at Canton was attacked by a rabble and compelled to seek protection under the British flag.

The Queen delivered her speech to Parliament from the throne to-day: My Lords and Gentlemen—We continue good will and fellowship with foreign powers. We have used our best exertion to prevent war between France and Prussia, and shall now direct our attention to the strict observance of neutrality, and endeavor to check those operations which might tend to enlarge the area of the conflict. We will contribute, if opportunity occurs, to restore an early and honorable peace. We have tendered to the belligerent parties calculated to give security to Belgium. The belligerents have since signed the treaties, and other powers have been invited to accede to the arrangements.

Paris, Aug 10.—News of a battle hourly expected.

Two republican newspapers have suspended publication.

An official dispatch from Metz, at 1.30 A.M., says the Emperor has gone to visit the headquarters of McMahon.

The Full Mail Gazette has learned from private parties in Paris that the Empire is on the verge of collapse. The Germans are expected in Paris, even if they are arrested. The Empire is dead. The Parisians are receiving arms, and they are all Republicans at heart. The establishment of a Provisional Government is already talked of. Imperialists are in the ascendancy, and eminent Imperialists are leaving Paris and France.

Authentic advices from France state that Marshal Bazaine, is Commander-in-Chief and has 130,000 at Metz; McMahon 50,000 at Nancy.

A rumor has reached there that the Prussians are at Mulhausen, sixty-one miles from Strasbourg.

Metz, Aug 9.—The enemy is in a large measure concentrated in front of Metz. Marshal Bazaine has the direction of operations.

The Emperor has gone to the headquarters of Gen. Bazaine.

Metz, Aug 8-9.10 p.m.—Changarnier has arrived. Public opinion here receives with favor the advent of Changarnier.

London, Aug 9.—The French fleet of nine iron-clads, bound east, passed Dover to-day.

Paris, Aug 11.—At the battle of Werth Marshal McMahon was 25 hours in the saddle without food, and fainted from exhaustion and fell into a ditch. Fortunately he was discovered and revived. Gen. Dornier, when he found all was lost, shot his saddle horse and deliberately walked into the face of the Prussian fire and fell almost alone.

London, Aug 11.—A New York cable dispatch says that of the battle of Werth all the French accounts are wholly untrue. McMahon was entirely routed—the French abandoned everything and fled, leaving behind their killed, wounded and prisoners, numbering 20,000. Also it depicts the accounts of communication with Strasbourg and says that the city is besieged and its immediate surrender demanded but refused. Artillery for the Prussians is on the way.

The Crown Prince is still pursuing McMahon.

A London dispatch to the New York Tribune from Paris, says the rumors of fresh battles are constantly flying about the city. If another reverse occurs the Empire is gone and confidence destroyed. The Orangists or Republic will then succeed Napoleon.

Gen. Grosser, who was to have commanded the Baltic expedition, has gone to Metz and the Baltic enterprise is indefinitely postponed.

The enthusiasm of the soldiers increases. Signs of battle are eagerly looked for.

La Patrie describes the scenes in the Corps Legislatif yesterday and says when Olivier attempted to speak a second time the deputies of the Left rushed for him and would have murdered him had not some of the members interposed.

A dictatorship is talked of, with General Frochu as supreme head.

The Emperor has been invited to return to Paris and await the reconstruction of the Government.

In the Corps Legislatif to-day General Ordet announced the formation of a new Ministry and read their names as follow—

Count Palikao Minister of war. De La Tour Davigne Foreign Affairs. Henri Chevroux Interior. Grande Paquet Justice. Generously Marine. Pierre Malle Finance. Jerome David Public Works. Jules Brole Instructions. Clement Davenois Commerce. Bassor Bellaut President of the Council of State.

According to the latest advices the Emperor has not resigned himself to give up the command of the army, for which all France is clamorous.

London, Aug 10.—The Prince Imperial of France has arrived in London and is now at the French Legation in charge of W. F. Smith, the Emperor's private agent.

The City Council of Brussels voted an address of thanks to Queen Victoria for assisting the cause of Belgium's neutrality.

A dispatch from Strasbourg to the Globe announces Strasbourg invested on all sides by the Prussians who hold the railway.

Gen. Boyer who commands the city was ordered to surrender but refused. It is said the citadel is plentifully provisioned but is garrisoned by only one regiment of the line and the national guard of the place.

A cable special to the Tribune from Paris on Wednesday evening says: The new Cabinet intends to take as strong measures against Paris as Prussia, but do not be mistaken—one more reverse and the Emperor is gone. Confidence in him is utterly destroyed. Popular devotion is for country and no longer for a dynasty. Every hing looks to-day as if an Orleansist or a Republic would succeed the Emperor.

New York, Aug 11.—A special, dated at London, Aug 10th says: The last official dispatch, dated Metz, August 9th, evening, says that the Emperor went on that morning to the headquarters of Marshal Bazaine and resumed command of the troops concentrated at Metz. This is an indirect way of contradicting the report that Bazaine was to be made Generalissimo of the Army of the Rhine. The Emperor is blind to his incompetency and disregarding the universal outcry against him, he is clinging to the chief command of the army until another defeat exhausts the national patience. He intimates that he will never return to Paris.

A Metz dispatch in the morning papers says that the Prince Imperial is still at that place and the Emperor will certainly make a stand there.

The occupation here in the Clubs and also among the people is that the rule of the Bonaparte dynasty is over. The restoration of the House of Orleans is anticipated. Count de Paris, Louis Philippe's heir, is now in England.

London, Aug 11.—The Bank of England has reduced the rate of discount to 5 per cent.

MARSHALLS, August 9.—For two days this city has been greatly agitated by demonstrations by the people—great crowds assembled and demand arms. Last evening groups of Radicals, seemingly without evil intent, entered the City Hall and endeavored to overturn the Municipal Government. The troops quickly arrived, with stringent orders to arrest rioters. The arrests have continued to-day about forty persons being now under guard for their participation in the disturbances.

London, August 11.—Advices from the Prussian front to ten o'clock Wednesday night, says that the French are falling back to the line of the Moselle, harassed by the Prussian cavalry, which has already passed the Saar at the junction of railway trains and Liebstadt. Their stores and railway trains had fallen into the hands of the Prussians. They had also taken the small fortress of Hatzelstein, in the Vosges, which had been evacuated, leaving their guns and provisions.

Paris, August 11.—The Journal Officiel has advices from Metz to 4.30 yesterday. The details of the battle of Froeschateau are still meagre. Marshal McMahon had his horse killed under him. A brigade of cavalry of reserve, and one division of the corps of General Failly arrived on the field at the close of the day, and covered the retreat.

The last official act of Grammont was to sign the treaty with England for the neutrality of Belgium.

New York, August 11.—The Courier des Etats Unis has a dispatch estimating McMahon's loss in the recent battles at forty thousand. It is estimated that the French forces now at Lozanne number 340,000 without counting the Garde Mobile. It is believed here that the French will bring into the next battle 250,000 men, and the Prussian 325,000.

The Italian Ministry has escaped censure by only six votes.

Lilloot District.

To the Electors of Clinton and Lilloot District: GENTLEMEN—You want a man to represent you in the Legislative Council. A good many of you have urged me to seek the representation of the District. I offer my services.

I am in favor of Confederation, because it is the policy of the Home Government, irrevocable, and it will end a system that means nothing but taxation.

The people who have voted pensions to public officers for important services rendered to their country, have exhibited rare signs of common sense, justice and gratitude. Pensions to such public officers as ours would be evidence of extreme folly.

The chief duty of your representatives at the next meeting of the Legislative Council, will be to examine the contract we are about to make with Canada, and if there are in it any conditions detrimental to the interests of this colony, to exhibit their injustice and demand amendment.

I am no orator. The majority of those who try to be eloquent are merely nonsensical, they forget that this is a practical age, and that a grain of common sense is better than a ton of chaff. "I HAD RATHER SPEAK FIVE WORDS WITH MY UNDERSTANDING THAN TEN THOUSAND WORDS IN AN UNKNOWN TONGUE."

I value the friendship and goodfellowship that exist between myself and the majority of the men in the District; they will be pleased to hear that I shall not solicit one vote as a personal favor. Friendship and goodfellowship should not presume to stand between you and your duty. Elect the best man. If you elect me I promise I shall make gentlemen ashamed of having voted pensions to themselves for duties not discharged.

I have the honor to be a first-rate ploughman, and your obedient servant,

GEORGE A. KELLY,

THE VALLEY, Clinton, Aug 10, 1870, and 14 Swdwy*
