JOSEPH LOEWEN PASSES AWAY

Well Known Pioneer Dead at The Age of Seventy One.

(From Sunday's Daily.)
Last evening at 6.30 at his residence, Rockwood, Gorge road, there passed away one of the best known and most highly respected of the early pioneers of the province, one whom to know was principal owner of the Victoria-Phoenix to respect—Joseph Loewen, president and principal owner of the Victoria-Phoenix Brewing Company. Mr. Loewen has for years been identified with the business life, not only of Victoria, but was also interested in various enterprises in other portions of the province.

The deceased was in a low condition since Christmas, but hopes were entertained that his splendid constitution would enable him to recover. He was 71 years old, having been born in Edizer, on the Moselle, near Cobleuz, in Prussia. He left Germany in company with Jacob Sehl and the late Frank Sehl in 1854, going to New York, and soon after joining in the gold rush to California. Mr. Loewen came to Victoria in 1858, during the Fraser river excitement, accompanied by his two old friends, Jacob and Frank Sehl, who were born in the same town in German were born in the same town in German were sealed account. friends, Jacob and Frank Sehl, who were born in the same town in Germany as the deceased. He engaged for a time in the shingle business in Sooke, subsequently with the late Louis Erb he purchased the Victoria brewery from Vogel and Lettz in 1871. Afterwards the Victoria and Phoenix breweries were merged and incorporated into one concern, of which Mr. Loewen became the president. Mr. Loewen was prominently connected with the Singverein, the old German musical society, which for old German musical society, which for many years was the principal organiza-tion of its kind in the city. He was also a member of the volunteer fire de-partment, being connected with the Deluge Company. He married in 1864 Eva, daughter of Adam Laumeister, Eva, daughter of Adam Laumeister, and leaves to mourn his loss a sister, Mrs. Amelia Geiger, a resident of this city; two sons, Charles, of Vancouver, and Herman, in Southern California; two married daughters, Mrs. F. S. Barnard and Mrs. A. W. Jones, and four unmarried daughters.

Mr. Loewen was one of the oldest Odd Fellows in British Columbia, being a charter member of the senior Victoria lodge.

At Salt Spring Island, Ganges Harbor, on Monday afternoon, magistrates W. E. Scott and T. Collinson sentenced Frederick Raines to four months' imprisonment, with hard labor, for breaking into and attempting to steal from the store of R. P. Edwards, of Fulford Harbor, as reported in a recent issue. The prisoner's confederate, Albion Raines, turned King's evidence, and the prisoner pleaded "guilty." The trial lasted only about five minutes, and created quite a mild sensation. Considerable sympathy is freely expressed for the prisoner's family, who are highly respected in the district.
