INJURED MAN IS SHARE OF CANADA FISHERMEN MADE DOING WELL IN DEFENCE OF EMPIRE THEIR PLANT YESTERDAY

Staff-Sergt. Wilkinson, of the Ordnance Department at Work Point Hurt By Exploding Shell Will Recover

That Staff Sergeant Wilkinson, of the Ordnance Department at Work Point, who was seriously injured yesterday by the accidental explosion of a twelve-pound shell, is progressing very favorably today, the statement made this morning by Dr. Hart, medical officer attached to the barracks.

The news of the accident last night caused fear among Wilkinson's many friends that he might not live. Dr. Hart said today that the man should surely recover.

Struck by the fragments of a twelve-pound shell which exploded while he was examining it, Staff-Sergeant Wilkinson, of the Ordnance Department, Work Point Barracks, was seriously injured yesterday at noon. With Captain Gillen, the newly-appointed Ordnance officer, he was examining the stores of ammunition in the Ordnance shed at the fort on Signal Hill. In some manner the detonator of the shell went off, exploding the shell, dangerously wounding the sergeant, and slightly injuring Captain Gillen. The entire side of the shed was blown out by the fragments of the bursting missile.

Dr. Hart, the medical officer attached to the barracks, was summoned, and he hastened to the scene in his automobile. He at once conveyed Wilkinson to the barracks hospital, after attending to his injuries, and it is stated that the unfortunate man will probably recover.

Just the reason why the shell exploded is unknown, but it is thought to have been in some way defective, with the result that even in the careful handling given it by the trainees, it was set off. Captain Gillen's injuries are slight.

Wilkinson has been attached to the barracks for many years, having been drafted out here with the Imperial troops. His time expires at the end of this week, and he with his wife and son was to leave on his return to England on Tuesday next. He is extremely popular with his comrades at the barracks, and the news of the accident aroused considerable commiseration.

The fort at Signal Hill lies at the city side of Esquimalt, and commands the entrance to the harbor. The Ordnance shed, which is situated at this point, and is while inspecting the supplies of ammunition at this point that the accident occurred. The inspection followed the recent appointment of Captain Gillen to the post of Ordnance Officer, until lately in charge of the Ordnance Department here, but who has been transferred east.

TIMBER SUIT

Plaintiffs Recover Value of Logs Taken From Claim That Overlapped

Vancouver, June 24.—An action for $12,000 was heard before Mr. Justice Irving in the Supreme Court yesterday. The plaintiffs, Messrs. H. Edmonds and A. P. Norman, are suing the Vancouver Lumber Company for the value of logs which they claim were purchased by the company from their property on Price channel. In 1906 H. Wright, a timber cruiser, staked 40 acres of timber land, and described a corner post on his claim as about one mile west of Elizabeth Island. A year later the plaintiffs staked another claim in the same locality. Upon surveys being made, it was found that the corner post of Wright's claim was about a mile and a half west of Elizabeth Island, instead of being only one mile west. The two claims were then found to overlap. The owners of the old claim have sold a quantity of logs to the Vancouver Lumber Company, and the plaintiffs claim that these logs were on their property. A verdict was given for the plaintiffs for $680.
