

"COULD NOT STAND UP STRAIGHT"

Corvallis, Feb. 22.—"About a year ago, I was suffering from a dreadful back pain and was so much so that I could not stand up straight by myself. A friend told me about Gin Pills."

New Disguise.—"I was preparing to shave a chap the other afternoon," says a head barber. "I had trimmed his hair, and from such talk as I had had with him I judged him to be an easy-going, unexcitable sort of fellow. But suddenly his manner changed. Out of the corner of his eye he had seen a man enter whose appearance upset him.
"Hurry, George!" he muttered to me.
"Lather to the eyes—quick, quick! Here comes my tailor!"

GASPE.

The Gaspe populace were treated to a very interesting and attractive Fancy-Dress Carnival on March 17th, (St. Patrick's Day), held in the Olympia Rink. The rink was opened to the public at 7.30 and skaters in fancy dress were allowed on the ice at 8 o'clock. The crowd seemed fully alive to the exquisite taste and originality of the various costumes displayed on the ice, and the Carnival proved to be a real success; although the number of figures in fancy-dress was not quite so large as former years owing to numerous causes. I think that the richness and splendor, also the perfect originality of the majority of the costumes easily made up for this small deficit. Skating was in progress until about 10.30 when the bell was sounded, warning the contestants for the prizes to skate around the rink at a slow pace, after this had been accomplished to the judges satisfaction, the bell was again sounded for all skaters to gather together in the centre of the rink as the prizes were about to be awarded. Mr. C. Sutton LeBoutillier walked to the centre of the rink and proclaimed the following contestants as winners, also presenting them with the prizes.—Ladies 1st Prize. Mrs. Caroon (Fairy), 2nd Prize. Miss Ella LeTouzel (Little Bo-Peep). Gentlemen: 1st Prize. Chas. Davis (Toreador), 2nd Prize. Jos. Belanger (Mexican). I would like to describe every costume which patronized the carnival separately, but as it would encroach upon the valuable space of this much-circulated and interesting paper, I will give you a description of the prize-winners' costumes: Mrs. Carson as she appeared on the ice in the garb of a Fairy was simply IT, and it would be almost impossible to describe her costume accurately. Mrs. Carson was admired and praised by all present and when the 1st ladies' prize was awarded to her the cheers were thunderous. Miss Ella LeTouzel all be-decked in that well known character of Little Bo-Peep was certainly an extremely pleasing vision in pale blue, which suited her to perfection and left nothing to be desired in her exquisite costume. Miss LeTouzel was also loudly cheered upon receiving the second Ladies' Prize. The costumes worn by Mrs. Davis, Jos. Belanger were very well appreciated and secured the wearers well; they were also cheered upon receiving the two prizes presented in the gentlemen's class. The most conspicuous figures amongst the remaining contestants in the Carnival, were as follows:—Ladies: Misses: Marion LeBoutillier (Goddess of Music), Stella LeBoutillier (Cowboy), Loretta LeBoutillier (Buccaneer), Olga Carter (Pierrette), Pauline Davis (Scotch Lassie), Vera Hughes (Clothes-pin-Girl), Gladys and Maud LeTouzel (Two Little Girls in Blue), Mabel Carter (Dutch Girl), Tessie McKenzie (Pierrette) Ruth McCaull (Scotch Lassie), Dorothy DeSte Croix (Midnight), Beulah Horie (Red Riding Hood), K. Hamilton (St. Patrick costume), Daisy Munro (Bride), Dorothy Jones (Winter), Annie Munro (Pierrette), Martha Sams (Squaw), Vivian Annett (Quaker Girl), Marjorie Annett (Riding Costume), Lyda Mabe (Scotch Lassie), Martha Robertson and Maria Coffin (Two Little Girls in Blue), Mabel LeTouzel (Spanish Dancer), Jenny Clements (Fortune-Teller), Dorothy Suddard (Spanish Lady), Evelyn Boyle (Fortune-Teller), Edna Annett (Spanish Dancer), Daisy Guignon (Sun-Flower), Opal Langlois (Canada), Bertha Guignon (Costume), Irma Vivert (Red Riding Hood), Hilda Suddard (Squaw), Gladys Hall (Costume St. Patrick), Freeman (College Graduate), Kilbride (Costume), Mrs. Lewis McKenzie (Costume), Mrs. Fessy Annett (Scotch Lassie). Keep up the Food Supply and Help Make Victory Sure

"I AM assured that my people will respond to every call necessary to the success of our cause—with the same indomitable ardour and devotion that have filled me with pride and gratitude since the war began."
His Majesty King GEORGE

OUR soldiers must be fed; the people at home must be fed. And—in spite of Germany's murderous campaign to cut off the Allies' Food supply, by sinking every ship on the High Seas—an ample and unfailing flow of food to England and France must be maintained.

This is National Service—
Not to the Farmer only—
But to YOU—to everybody—
This appeal is directed

WE must unite as a Nation to SERVE—to SAVE and to PRODUCE. Men, women and children; the young, the middle aged and the old—all can help in the Nation's Army of Production.

PLANT a garden—small or large. Utilize your own back yard. Cultivate the vacant lots. Make them all yield food.

WOMEN of towns can find no better or more important outlet for their energies than in cultivating a vegetable garden.

Be patriotic in act as well as in thought.

Use every means available—
Overlook nothing.
