132ND BATTALION OFF FOR VALCARTIER CAMP

Great Send Off Here to Boys of North Shore Battalion—Battalion
Route March About Town.

GOOD BYE TO THE NORTH SHORE BOYS

The sun has set, the cold wind blows,
The sky is chill and gray;
Come let us drop a tear with those
Whose boys are gone away.
Our hearts are all in mourning,
Though we bravely try to smile;
We miss the bugle's warning,
And the officers, rank and file.

Chorus:
Goodbye to Brother, Husband, Sweet
Heart, Friend,
They've gone from Town and Heath—
Till the war is at an end.

Our brave young blood—Now Brunswick's sons,
Wherever they may roam,

The entire town and country turned out Tuesday to bid God-speed to our boys of the 132nd Battalion. Despite the fact that the day broke wet and gloomy, crowds began to gather about noon for the expected arrival of the train conveying the Chatham, Newcastle and Bathurst companies. Every train into Campbellton brought friends from the different sections, until an immense crowd had gathered. The stores were draped with patriotic colors and flags, and altogether the streets presented a gala appearance.

Schools were dismissed at noon, and while business places were not closed, employees were allowed off for a time, to take part in the demonstration.

At about 3 o'clock the troop train

God bless and keep them for the ones
Who work and watch at home.
They'll do their "bit", with all their heart,
And North Shore hearts beat strong—
Then, heres to the Boys as they make their start,
To join the Hero Throng.

And when at last, the war is o'er,
And the flag of peace unfurled;
Their praise shall ring from shore to shore,
Around this rugged world.
Then let us not with down cast hearts,
See our brave lads entrain.
But, give them a cheer, "Hooray,
dear,
God bring them home again."

A SOLDIER'S WIFE

The 132nd Brass and Bugle Bands, paraded through the principal streets of the town and were given a grand reception as they passed along.
