THE YOUNG CANADIANS BEAT THE EXCELSIORS.

Singular Conduct of the Gentlemen Cric keters - A Hint for the Canadian Cricket Association.

A Lacrosse Match of Beal Interest. A goodly proportion of the population of Brampton and Richmond Hill came ts town yesterday with their respective acrosse teams, the Excelsiors and Youne Canadians, and with lots of "boodle" to settle the much vexed question as to which clab would down the other. The game took place on the Rosedale grounds, and took place on the Rosedale grounds, and was a complete surprise to such local authorities on the game as happened to witness it. It taught them that real lacresse is played in the rural districts as well as in the cities. The only point in which the play fell short of the champion was in the throwing, which ship standar certainly would bear improvement. In every other respect the play was of the country clubs to certain players on the opposing side, the game commenced amidst considerable excitement on the part of the interested spectators. The boys from the Hill played a more

The boys from the Hill played a more combined and, therefore, a steadier game than their opponents, and this fact proba-bly accounted for their ultimate victory. The Excelsions, on the other hand, made a good deal of very pretty play, which, however, did not prove effective.

The Visit of the English Eleven. There is a deal of dissatisfaction among Ontario cricketers on account of the reticence of the Ontario Cricket association in regard to the arrangements for meeting the English gentlemen. No one seems to know English gentlemen. No one seems to know the composition, number of players and names of team which will be pitted against the Britishers. It is generally understood that these essentials were settled at a meeting on Friday night, and cricketers are at a loss whether to put it down to the dilatoriness of the secretary or a desire for an oyster-like secrecy on the part of the committee. So much mystery will by no means improve matters, and, as the Mon-treal and Staten island clubs have laid treal and Staten island clubs have laid down their platform, there is a marked contrast in the management of what should be the most important organization in the country. All the knowledge the outside public have of the match in Toronto has been gathered from foreign sources, and been gathered from foreign sources, and such knowledge is never as full as desired. It is time for the association

Gentlemen Cricketers.

Editor World : There must be some mistake about the English gentlemen cricketers, expected here next month? having stipulated for half the gate money us on the march. Possibly the want of grass for their horses, owing to the earliness of the season, may account for this, but it would seem as if they intended only to defend their homes against invasion. At Fish Creek they met us on their fron-tier, at Batoche they fought us on their own doorsteps. They were badly armed with a certain number of repeating Win-chester rifles, but with many old smooth It costs less proportionately for a dozen Sentlemen to travel together than for a single person, or two, to make a tour of Canada and the States. There is, in fact, of ordinary decency and amateur rules. If they are playing for the benefit of a hos-pital or some other beneviler to the second pital or some other benevolent object, I can understand it; but if they are gentlecan understand it; but it they are gentle-men beggars bent on illustrating the theory that "charity begins at home." I trust that they may not clear expenses; and I should think that the clubs to which they belong in England will make it hot for them on their return. STUMPS.

The sight that commands the most attention along the Jersey shore, now resplendently occupied by New Yorkers seeking summer diversion, is a tally-ho coach. The vehicle is bigger and gayer than any belonging to the Coaching Club, and its four bay horses are more showily harnessed. The driver wears livery, and a bugler blows his blast industriculary as the coach rolls along the broad, hard avenue that is every clear afternoon thronged by wealth and fashion on wheels. The occupants are more brilliant than the tier, at Batoche they fought us on their from own doorsteps. They were badly armed with a certain number of repeating Win-chester rifles, but with many old smoeth bores; they were short of ammunition, and the it is doubtful if the force with Riel ever numbered 700 men, Indians and "breeds" combined. The present the the dead their friends. Nothing like it has been een at Long Branch since the days of Jim Fisk and Dr. Helmtold.
