But Did He Blow Out the Gas? WASHINGTON, Dec. 9.—About a year ago Harries, then a reporter on The Post, te an article which obtained wide circuwrote an article which obtained wide circulation, setting forth that Congressman Martin of Texas blew out the gas in his room at Willard's Hotel. Yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock the Congressman met the reporter in the corridor of the Capitol and assaulted him—striking him in the ear. Harries, in consideration of the Congressman's age, made no effort to retailate and Martin was seized by another newspaper man and prevented from repeating the blow. No damage was done by the blow, but the affair created some excitement in the building.

Buffalo, Dec. 9.—Alexander McPheri eral bookkeeper of the Merchants' Bank here, has disappeared, and is supposed to be either in Canada or California. He leaves a wife and two children behind him as well as numerous unpaid election bets. His accounts were in bad shape, but, when straightened out, no shortage or crookedness was discovered. Cames of $10 "seven up" and drink are said to be the cause of his ruin.

NOTICE

To Whom It May Concerns Notice is hereby given that at the expiration of one month from the date hereof, the Council of the Corporation of the City of Toronto will pass the following By-law to extend, open up and establish Orde-street, in the Ward of St. Patrick, from its present Westerly terminus to McCaul-street.

PROPOSED BY-LAW to extend, open up and establish Orde-street in the Ward of St. Patrick, from its present tenninus to McCaul-street.

terminus to McCaul-street.

Whereas J. P. Wagner and others have petitioned for the extension, establishment and opening up of Orde-street, from its present Westerly terminus to McCaul-street, in the Ward of St. Patrick, as a local improvement to be paid for by local sie in lates a dassessments upon the real property immediately lenefited thereby, and the said petition is signed by two-thirds in number of the owners of more than one half of all the assessable real property, as appears by the period of the City Clerk, endorsed thereon.

And whereas it is expedient to grant the And whereas it is expedient to grant the prayer of the said petition. Therefore the Corporation of the City of Toronto enacts as follows:

1. That Orde-street, in the Ward of St. Patrick, in the City of Toronto, be and the same is hereby extended and opened up from its present westerly terminus. Westerly to McCaul-street, and that the lands surveyed, laid out and described by Messra.
