THE CATTLE MARKET.

There was a liberal supply of nearly everything to-day and the market was fairly active, but at easier prices. There were 90 loads offered, 45 of which were to-day's arrivals.

Cattle—About 1900 cattle offered. Exporters were in fair demand, but at prices from 10c to 15c per cwt. lower than Tuesday. A cable received this morning from Bristol stated that the trade had collapsed there and that part of the steamship Ontario's cargo was unsaleable. The consigners stand to lose $10 to $15 per head. This had a somewhat bearish effect on the local market. Good cattle, however, had no difficulty in finding purchasers. Animals averaging 1150 to 1300 pounds sold at $3.75 to $4.40. One load of 22, averaging 1387 pounds per head, sold at 4½c per lb., but quality was extra and better than anything that has been on the market since June More heavy cattle than usual offered. Good to choice butchers' cattle were in demand. Extra good steers weighing 1000 to 1100 lbs. sold at 4c and those weighing 850 to 900 lbs. found purchasers from 3½c to 3¾c per lb.; inferior animals went at from 2½c to 2¾c.

STREET MARKET.

Receipts of grain continue moderate. Wheat unchanged, 300 bushels selling at 94c for white, 92c for red, 88c to 89c for spring, 77c to 78c for goose. Barley easy, 7000 bushels selling at 38c to 53c. Peas sold once at 60c. Oats steadier, 200 bushels selling at 34c to 35c. Hay was not in large supply and prices were slightly higher at $13 to $14.50. Straw unchanged at $10. Dressed hogs were in light supply and steady at $5.50 to $6 per cwt.; one load of good butchers', weighing 90 to 120 lbs., fetched $6.30.

CANNED GOODS.

Canned goods have been moving pretty freely during the last couple of days, the cold weather seemingly having stimulated the demand. There has been some enquiry for large lots of tomatoes, and if the cool weather continues higher prices are anticipated within the next few days. It is reported that some of the houses on the street have not got 100 cases of tomatoes in their possession.

Money Below Market Rates.

Springers—Demand was fair for good back ward animals at $30 to $50, and a few dollars more than the outside figure was paid in one or two instances for extra choice animals. A cable received to-day stated that prospects for springers were good on the Scotch market and poor on the London.

Stockers—There is still a want of space on outgoing steamers and the market here continues dull. An improvement is anticipated next week. There were a few transactions at 2¾c for animals averaging 1000 lbs. and at 3¼c for those weighing 1050 to 1100 lbs. A load of steers weighing 1050 lbs. sold at 3¼c and another averaging 1015 lbs. at 3¼c per lb. Twenty-two bulls, averaging 1050 to 1075 lbs., sold at 2c; 3 averaging 1475 lbs. at 2¾c, and 1 weighing 1160 at 2¼c.

Calves—There were about 35 offered, but they were enough for the demand; prices ranged from $3 to $6 per head.

Hogs—Demand was active at firm prices and for good fat animals, but stores and light fat were not wanted at any price. Receipts aggregated 200. Values ranged from $4.50 to $4.75 for good fat hogs, while 5c was paid for one load of choice. A load of mixed, averaging 150 lbs., sold at 4½c.

Sheep and Lambs—About 300 offered. Sheep were in light supply and there was no special demand; butchers' sold at $4 and shipping at $5 per head. Supply of lambs was rather in excess of demand, but they sold fairly well at $3.25 to $4 per head.

Guff from Gotham.

Henry Clews says the situation in the west is getting worse and Mo. Pac. is charged with cutting rates almost everywhere.

Talk by Allen to J. J. Dixon: Some very earnest efforts have been made to lift the market but it lifts very hard. Something of a very short interest has been eliminated to-day. The pool of Chicago Gas have been trying to put the stuff up, and have succeeded in advancing the quotations, but only permit enough to weight stock some time ago to unload upon the pool. There is a report in the street to the effect that certain people whom the New York directors have been abusing a good deal have been able to dictate terms to the reformers to such an extent that it seems now improbable that the suit for damages of which so much has been heard in public will be pursued. The protest by Vanderbilt people against claiming that Mr. Cornelius Vanderbilt is in the Erie, Ontario and Western and other bob-tailed bull pools grows more pronounced. Mr. Cornelius Vanderbilt is said to have sent word to representatives here in case Wall-street was to be bunooed further upon such a basis he thinks it would be wise to make a public statement to the effect that the Vanderbilt money is not for use in the stock market speculation, and that people who are claiming to be in league with the controllers of the Vanderbilt properties are bent merely upon an unscrupulous speculative deal. Such a card would be a sensation of course, but it is hardly believed, in view of the determined stand taken by Mr. Vanderbilt, that the people who have been making such free and easy use of his name will dare go further than they have already gone. A Boston banking interest is said to have marketed 200,000 shares of Atchison stock within the last ten days for interests that have been identified with the property for a good while. The short interest in the general market, which up to yesterday seemed to be getting unwieldly, has been pretty thoroughly eliminated in all the conspicuous and active stocks.

Gossip From Chicago.

Counselman & Day wire that the weather is perfect in the Northwest again, that threshing is generally resumed and that larger receipts can be expected next week.

Kennett, Hopkin & Co. to R. Cochran: Early cables were rather indifferent in tone; receipts quite liberal and good threshing weather in the Northwest. This intensified the bearish sentiment and induced free offerings at outset, in belief that a break would follow, but all offers were quickly absorbed. The Northwest and seaboard were principal buyers. The local trade was left short, and when reports of large engagements for Duluth and the seaboard came in there was a rush to cover that advanced market about a cent. Calls proved a barrier to further advance, and the close was firm at about ⅜c over yesterday. May wheat lost a little of its premium over Dec. in consequence of shorts getting on the latter month to some extent and reselling for May. Clearances moderate, but an active export demand, which will doubtless have a strengthening effect if it continues.

Counselman & Day to J. J. Dixon & Co.: Wheat has shown good strength to-day under influence of steady foreign markets and increased exports, which have been variously estimated at from 30 to 70 loads. Our idea is that wheat will hold steady until farmers are ready to sell their holdings, which they will surely have to do later. Just at present they believe they can make foreigners pay their price, but we doubt it and believe when they are ready to sell there will be a big scramble to get out. Trade has been fair to-day, shorts principal buyers. Corn higher and active on shipping demand, which continues good, especially for New England points. We do not advise sales at present. Provisions were weak early, rallying a trifle from low point, but closed somewhat lower than yesterday. There seems to be no end to liquidation of long stuff, and until that is exhausted we cannot see our way clear to advise purchases except for quick turns.
