John Macdonald & Go. TO THE TRADE:

Thursday, Sept. 6th, Pioneers' Day Toronto's Industrial

Over forty years ago we commenced doing PIONEER work in assisting to establish Toronto as the great Wholesale Drygoods centre of Canada. To-day the city is recognized as such, and our warehouses on Wellington and Front-streets East as the principal distributing point for General Drygoods, Woolens, Gents' Furnishings, Haberdashery and Carpets. WELLINGTON AND FRONT-STREETS EAST, Ethel-Did Mr. Slipton really marry his wife for money?

Maud—Yes, dear.
Ethel—What makes you think so?

Creditor — Can't you meet your bills? Hard-up—You bet! I meet 'em everywhere.—New York Morning Jour-nal.

Sunday School Teacher—What is charity? Boy—It's a feeling that folks used to have before tramps got so thick.
—Good News.

Mullins—Time waits for no man. Gullins—Sometimes it does. I have a watch waiting for me at my pawnbroker's.—

"What did the lecturer say when the cabbage hit his chest!" "He said that such attentions quite took his breath away."—Harper's Bazar.

"Is Dr. Pellet going to make a success here, do you think?" "No. he hasn't the least idea of the latest style in diseases."—Chicago Inter-Ocean.

Jess-I've had over a dozen offers of marriage already this season. Bess—Good gracious! Who from! Jess—Jack.—St. Louis Post Dispatch.

Jack—Isn't your bathing suit rather too loud? Jess—I don't know but it is. Only yesterday I was mistaken for a bell buoy.—St. Louis Post Dispatch.

"I wish you would mark down that lot of ladies' shoes," said the merchant. "Yes, sir," replied the experienced clerk. In price or size."—Washington Mrs. White—Did Mrs. Grey make her entree in good style? Mrs. Brown —What are you thinking of? Her cook makes all her entrees.—Boston Trans-

"Do you let your wife have her own way in everything, Mr. Henpeck?" "I suppose I would if she asked me. but she never asks me."—New York

"My husband is absurdly afraid of fires." "Has he eves suffered from them?" "Yes,he had to make one in the Herdso—Why didn't you defend your wife's suit for divorce? Saidso— I had known for years that what she said was law.—St. Louis Post Dis-

Mabel—How did you manage for partners at the hop? Flo—We dispensed with the music and danced with members of the orchestra.—Brooklyn

Visitor—I should think you would be afraid to give your children so much cake. Hostass—I am. Those are my next neighbor's boys.—Chicago Inter-

"You should have seen Dudell when I told him you were going to break his face." "Why, what happened?" "Nothing only his countenance fell."—Buffalo Courier.

Judge—Your innocence is proved; you are acquitted. Prisoner (to the jury)—Very sorry, gentlemen, to have given you all this trouble for nothing.—Flierende Blatter.

She—Why do they have favorites in horse races? He—Er—to show people what blanked chumps they were for not playing the outsiders.—Buffalo Courier.

Teacher—Now, Willie, you may name the five senses and tell how they are used. Willie—Nickels, and they re to buy gum and street-car rides.—Chicago Inter-Ocean.

"That young woman didn't even thank me for giving her my seat, I suppose she thought I was not worth noticing." "That is it exactly. She is a bride."—Cincinnati Tribune.

"Tunkins never leaves the game empty handed," said one poker player. "That's so," replied another. "Every time I called him last night he had a full hand."—Washington Star.

Teacher—Now, children, you have heard the talk on flowers. Who can name one of the perennials? Jimmie—I can. "Well. what is it?" "A blooming idiot."—Chicago Inter-Ocean.

"Hello, Bilby! Still in the patent fire extinguisher business?" "No. The fact is, Sipes, the building we were doing business in burnt down. We lost every—thing."-Chicago Tribune. Miss Maunders—He proposed, but I refused to marry him. Miss Caustique—Oh, you noble, generous girl! You're always doing some kindness for other people.—Chicago Record.

"There wasn't a man at the summer resort for a week, so we girls had to put in the time playing tennis among ourselves." "Ah! Sort of lorn tennis, eh?"—Indianapolis Journal.

She—They thought the world of each other. He reigned in her heart and she reigned in his. He—And they didn't know enough to go in when it reigned?

"You don't seem as well known in this city as you were at home," said the visitor. "I'm not." answered the young man proudly. "I don't owe anybody man proudly. "I don't owe an here a cent."—Washington Star.

Everett Wrest—They's one pleasure dese rich blokes don't know, anyway. Laymand Sowre—Wot's dat? Everett Wrest—Dey don't know de joy of quenchin' a t'ree days' t'irst.—Cincinnati Tribune.
