

General News.

Wolf, a custom detective, has brought an action for libel against the Montreal Witness.

Champs and pain in the stomach and bowels, dysentery and diarrhoea are very common just now and should be checked at once.

London, Aug. 10.—James Whitler, promoter of the new canal, has been arrested, charged with embezzling bonds, and held in trust for Miss Field. He has made a full confession.

A Sumner, P. E. I., tailor has received a silver medal from the Colonial and Indian Exhibition for the best suit of gentlemen's clothing.

The most distressing case of scrofula or blood poison that was ever recorded of was cured by Parson's Purifying Pills.

Atlanta, Aug. 6.—The Canadian Pacific Telegraph company has purchased the Mutual Union Telegraph company's lines and will assume control of them on Monday.

From Carr N. Cad, Laur Keene, Isaac Hart—I have used Sewey's East India Lintment, and have found it to be all that it is recommended to be.

London, Aug. 8.—The divorce obtained against Donald Crawford on February 12th last against his wife, because of her relations with Sir Charles Dilke, was today declared absolute.

A train boy is said to have invented what will prove a great boon to the sailors. It is a travelling cap with an sack which the wearer to lay his head on the back of the seat with as much comfort as though he were resting in a pillow of down.

London, Aug. 9.—The government has decided to reinforce the fleet on the Canadian station to allow of more vessels to be employed in the protection of the Canadian fisheries. The corvettes Eryadon and Tourmaline will leave for that station shortly.

Entrepreneurs are beginning to learn the value of advertising in the sound. The proprietors of those who are not intimidated by the cry of dull times, but keep their names before the public, will surely place them on the right side in the end.

If you have Headache, Constipation, Weakness, Dyspepsia, Sour Stomach, Dropsy, Salt Rheum, Rheumatism, Kidney or Liver Complaint, or Lumpy Blood, use Dr. Norton's Barlock Blood Purifier. It will cure you.

William McCabe, general manager of the North American Life Insurance Company of Toronto, states that a letter received from Hon. Alexander Mackenzie, who is now in Scotland, states that the premier is greatly improved in health, and that the rest in his native clime is benefiting him up rapidly.

Miss Alice Freeman, the President of Wellesley College, in a recent address to the example of which a woman may become small and slight, and handsome, only 25 years of age, she has mastered three modern languages, all the sciences, and won the right, says a newspaper correspondent, to stand beside any professor on earth as president of a college.

Atlanta, Aug. 6.—In view of the prevalence of Asiatic cholera in parts of the continent of Europe, and of small-pox in the United Kingdom, a proposal has been made to issue a special quarantine regulation to operate in the city of Atlanta, Georgia, and in the vicinity of the city.

There is nothing about Chicago. Even the trains are run on the streets, which are at a distance from the city, and a regular advertisement under the name of "Deaths" in the Chicago & Grand Trunk Railway to Mount Greenwood and Mount Olive. Special funeral trains will run on the 12th to the cemeteries.

VALERIAN DOGS.—Two gentlemen in the city have, within the past few months, lost several very high bred "Bernard dogs." On Tuesday last arrived by the steamer the ship which was in a balance in the States for $4,000, the largest price ever paid for a dog, and he being now dead his progeny are very valuable.

EXTRAORDINARY GOLD MINES.—The richest mine ever discovered in the world is in the State of Colorado. The mine is situated in the town of Leadville, and is owned by the Colorado Fuel and Iron Company.

THE LONDON WORLD, in referring to a dinner party given by the Princess of Wales, writes: "The Princess of Wales has previously met, and admired the recitation of the latest poetry American export, graciously requested her presence at dinner that evening; upon which the lady received a letter from the Princess of Wales, declining to accept the honor offered her, saying an exception that she had promised to accept of the young ladies to Mrs. Mackenzie's debut. Her Royal Highness replied to a quiet smile of amusement: "Then, I am afraid you may regret your friends to kindly come to my party, for I have not the leisure to attend to it."

MACKENZIE IN ST. MARY'S BAY.—Dugby, August 6.—Mackenzie is plentiful in St. Mary's Bay. The schooner St. Mary's, which was in the bay on the 6th inst., was seen to be in the bay on the 6th inst. The schooner was seen to be in the bay on the 6th inst.

THE YACHTING SCENE AT ST. MARY'S BAY.—The schooner St. Mary's, which was in the bay on the 6th inst., was seen to be in the bay on the 6th inst. The schooner was seen to be in the bay on the 6th inst.

THE YACHTING SCENE AT ST. MARY'S BAY.—The schooner St. Mary's, which was in the bay on the 6th inst., was seen to be in the bay on the 6th inst. The schooner was seen to be in the bay on the 6th inst.

THE YACHTING SCENE AT ST. MARY'S BAY.—The schooner St. Mary's, which was in the bay on the 6th inst., was seen to be in the bay on the 6th inst. The schooner was seen to be in the bay on the 6th inst.

THE YACHTING SCENE AT ST. MARY'S BAY.—The schooner St. Mary's, which was in the bay on the 6th inst., was seen to be in the bay on the 6th inst. The schooner was seen to be in the bay on the 6th inst.

THE YACHTING SCENE AT ST. MARY'S BAY.—The schooner St. Mary's, which was in the bay on the 6th inst., was seen to be in the bay on the 6th inst. The schooner was seen to be in the bay on the 6th inst.

THE YACHTING SCENE AT ST. MARY'S BAY.—The schooner St. Mary's, which was in the bay on the 6th inst., was seen to be in the bay on the 6th inst. The schooner was seen to be in the bay on the 6th inst.

THE YACHTING SCENE AT ST. MARY'S BAY.—The schooner St. Mary's, which was in the bay on the 6th inst., was seen to be in the bay on the 6th inst. The schooner was seen to be in the bay on the 6th inst.

THE YACHTING SCENE AT ST. MARY'S BAY.—The schooner St. Mary's, which was in the bay on the 6th inst., was seen to be in the bay on the 6th inst. The schooner was seen to be in the bay on the 6th inst.

THE YACHTING SCENE AT ST. MARY'S BAY.—The schooner St. Mary's, which was in the bay on the 6th inst., was seen to be in the bay on the 6th inst. The schooner was seen to be in the bay on the 6th inst.

THE YACHTING SCENE AT ST. MARY'S BAY.—The schooner St. Mary's, which was in the bay on the 6th inst., was seen to be in the bay on the 6th inst. The schooner was seen to be in the bay on the 6th inst.

THE YACHTING SCENE AT ST. MARY'S BAY.—The schooner St. Mary's, which was in the bay on the 6th inst., was seen to be in the bay on the 6th inst. The schooner was seen to be in the bay on the 6th inst.

THE YACHTING SCENE AT ST. MARY'S BAY.—The schooner St. Mary's, which was in the bay on the 6th inst., was seen to be in the bay on the 6th inst. The schooner was seen to be in the bay on the 6th inst.

THE YACHTING SCENE AT ST. MARY'S BAY.—The schooner St. Mary's, which was in the bay on the 6th inst., was seen to be in the bay on the 6th inst. The schooner was seen to be in the bay on the 6th inst.

THE YACHTING SCENE AT ST. MARY'S BAY.—The schooner St. Mary's, which was in the bay on the 6th inst., was seen to be in the bay on the 6th inst. The schooner was seen to be in the bay on the 6th inst.

THE PALM LARKS.—Mr. Geo. Robertson was interviewed this morning by the Globe which heard that Mr. B. had just returned from a visit to the border, where he had been inspecting a deposit of mineral earth which had been discovered in the vicinity of the Point Lepreau Lighthouse, in New Brunswick.

THE PALM LARKS.—Mr. Geo. Robertson was interviewed this morning by the Globe which heard that Mr. B. had just returned from a visit to the border, where he had been inspecting a deposit of mineral earth which had been discovered in the vicinity of the Point Lepreau Lighthouse, in New Brunswick.

THE PALM LARKS.—Mr. Geo. Robertson was interviewed this morning by the Globe which heard that Mr. B. had just returned from a visit to the border, where he had been inspecting a deposit of mineral earth which had been discovered in the vicinity of the Point Lepreau Lighthouse, in New Brunswick.

THE PALM LARKS.—Mr. Geo. Robertson was interviewed this morning by the Globe which heard that Mr. B. had just returned from a visit to the border, where he had been inspecting a deposit of mineral earth which had been discovered in the vicinity of the Point Lepreau Lighthouse, in New Brunswick.

THE PALM LARKS.—Mr. Geo. Robertson was interviewed this morning by the Globe which heard that Mr. B. had just returned from a visit to the border, where he had been inspecting a deposit of mineral earth which had been discovered in the vicinity of the Point Lepreau Lighthouse, in New Brunswick.

THE PALM LARKS.—Mr. Geo. Robertson was interviewed this morning by the Globe which heard that Mr. B. had just returned from a visit to the border, where he had been inspecting a deposit of mineral earth which had been discovered in the vicinity of the Point Lepreau Lighthouse, in New Brunswick.

THE PALM LARKS.—Mr. Geo. Robertson was interviewed this morning by the Globe which heard that Mr. B. had just returned from a visit to the border, where he had been inspecting a deposit of mineral earth which had been discovered in the vicinity of the Point Lepreau Lighthouse, in New Brunswick.

THE PALM LARKS.—Mr. Geo. Robertson was interviewed this morning by the Globe which heard that Mr. B. had just returned from a visit to the border, where he had been inspecting a deposit of mineral earth which had been discovered in the vicinity of the Point Lepreau Lighthouse, in New Brunswick.

THE PALM LARKS.—Mr. Geo. Robertson was interviewed this morning by the Globe which heard that Mr. B. had just returned from a visit to the border, where he had been inspecting a deposit of mineral earth which had been discovered in the vicinity of the Point Lepreau Lighthouse, in New Brunswick.

THE PALM LARKS.—Mr. Geo. Robertson was interviewed this morning by the Globe which heard that Mr. B. had just returned from a visit to the border, where he had been inspecting a deposit of mineral earth which had been discovered in the vicinity of the Point Lepreau Lighthouse, in New Brunswick.

THE PALM LARKS.—Mr. Geo. Robertson was interviewed this morning by the Globe which heard that Mr. B. had just returned from a visit to the border, where he had been inspecting a deposit of mineral earth which had been discovered in the vicinity of the Point Lepreau Lighthouse, in New Brunswick.

THE PALM LARKS.—Mr. Geo. Robertson was interviewed this morning by the Globe which heard that Mr. B. had just returned from a visit to the border, where he had been inspecting a deposit of mineral earth which had been discovered in the vicinity of the Point Lepreau Lighthouse, in New Brunswick.

THE PALM LARKS.—Mr. Geo. Robertson was interviewed this morning by the Globe which heard that Mr. B. had just returned from a visit to the border, where he had been inspecting a deposit of mineral earth which had been discovered in the vicinity of the Point Lepreau Lighthouse, in New Brunswick.

THE PALM LARKS.—Mr. Geo. Robertson was interviewed this morning by the Globe which heard that Mr. B. had just returned from a visit to the border, where he had been inspecting a deposit of mineral earth which had been discovered in the vicinity of the Point Lepreau Lighthouse, in New Brunswick.

THE PALM LARKS.—Mr. Geo. Robertson was interviewed this morning by the Globe which heard that Mr. B. had just returned from a visit to the border, where he had been inspecting a deposit of mineral earth which had been discovered in the vicinity of the Point Lepreau Lighthouse, in New Brunswick.

THE PALM LARKS.—Mr. Geo. Robertson was interviewed this morning by the Globe which heard that Mr. B. had just returned from a visit to the border, where he had been inspecting a deposit of mineral earth which had been discovered in the vicinity of the Point Lepreau Lighthouse, in New Brunswick.

THE PALM LARKS.—Mr. Geo. Robertson was interviewed this morning by the Globe which heard that Mr. B. had just returned from a visit to the border, where he had been inspecting a deposit of mineral earth which had been discovered in the vicinity of the Point Lepreau Lighthouse, in New Brunswick.

THE PALM LARKS.—Mr. Geo. Robertson was interviewed this morning by the Globe which heard that Mr. B. had just returned from a visit to the border, where he had been inspecting a deposit of mineral earth which had been discovered in the vicinity of the Point Lepreau Lighthouse, in New Brunswick.

THE PALM LARKS.—Mr. Geo. Robertson was interviewed this morning by the Globe which heard that Mr. B. had just returned from a visit to the border, where he had been inspecting a deposit of mineral earth which had been discovered in the vicinity of the Point Lepreau Lighthouse, in New Brunswick.

THE PALM LARKS.—Mr. Geo. Robertson was interviewed this morning by the Globe which heard that Mr. B. had just returned from a visit to the border, where he had been inspecting a deposit of mineral earth which had been discovered in the vicinity of the Point Lepreau Lighthouse, in New Brunswick.

THE PALM LARKS.—Mr. Geo. Robertson was interviewed this morning by the Globe which heard that Mr. B. had just returned from a visit to the border, where he had been inspecting a deposit of mineral earth which had been discovered in the vicinity of the Point Lepreau Lighthouse, in New Brunswick.

THE PALM LARKS.—Mr. Geo. Robertson was interviewed this morning by the Globe which heard that Mr. B. had just returned from a visit to the border, where he had been inspecting a deposit of mineral earth which had been discovered in the vicinity of the Point Lepreau Lighthouse, in New Brunswick.

THE PALM LARKS.—Mr. Geo. Robertson was interviewed this morning by the Globe which heard that Mr. B. had just returned from a visit to the border, where he had been inspecting a deposit of mineral earth which had been discovered in the vicinity of the Point Lepreau Lighthouse, in New Brunswick.

THE PALM LARKS.—Mr. Geo. Robertson was interviewed this morning by the Globe which heard that Mr. B. had just returned from a visit to the border, where he had been inspecting a deposit of mineral earth which had been discovered in the vicinity of the Point Lepreau Lighthouse, in New Brunswick.

THE PALM LARKS.—Mr. Geo. Robertson was interviewed this morning by the Globe which heard that Mr. B. had just returned from a visit to the border, where he had been inspecting a deposit of mineral earth which had been discovered in the vicinity of the Point Lepreau Lighthouse, in New Brunswick.

THE PALM LARKS.—Mr. Geo. Robertson was interviewed this morning by the Globe which heard that Mr. B. had just returned from a visit to the border, where he had been inspecting a deposit of mineral earth which had been discovered in the vicinity of the Point Lepreau Lighthouse, in New Brunswick.

THE PALM LARKS.—Mr. Geo. Robertson was interviewed this morning by the Globe which heard that Mr. B. had just returned from a visit to the border, where he had been inspecting a deposit of mineral earth which had been discovered in the vicinity of the Point Lepreau Lighthouse, in New Brunswick.

THE PALM LARKS.—Mr. Geo. Robertson was interviewed this morning by the Globe which heard that Mr. B. had just returned from a visit to the border, where he had been inspecting a deposit of mineral earth which had been discovered in the vicinity of the Point Lepreau Lighthouse, in New Brunswick.

THE PALM LARKS.—Mr. Geo. Robertson was interviewed this morning by the Globe which heard that Mr. B. had just returned from a visit to the border, where he had been inspecting a deposit of mineral earth which had been discovered in the vicinity of the Point Lepreau Lighthouse, in New Brunswick.

THE PALM LARKS.—Mr. Geo. Robertson was interviewed this morning by the Globe which heard that Mr. B. had just returned from a visit to the border, where he had been inspecting a deposit of mineral earth which had been discovered in the vicinity of the Point Lepreau Lighthouse, in New Brunswick.

THE PALM LARKS.—Mr. Geo. Robertson was interviewed this morning by the Globe which heard that Mr. B. had just returned from a visit to the border, where he had been inspecting a deposit of mineral earth which had been discovered in the vicinity of the Point Lepreau Lighthouse, in New Brunswick.

THE PALM LARKS.—Mr. Geo. Robertson was interviewed this morning by the Globe which heard that Mr. B. had just returned from a visit to the border, where he had been inspecting a deposit of mineral earth which had been discovered in the vicinity of the Point Lepreau Lighthouse, in New Brunswick.

THE PALM LARKS.—Mr. Geo. Robertson was interviewed this morning by the Globe which heard that Mr. B. had just returned from a visit to the border, where he had been inspecting a deposit of mineral earth which had been discovered in the vicinity of the Point Lepreau Lighthouse, in New Brunswick.

THE PALM LARKS.—Mr. Geo. Robertson was interviewed this morning by the Globe which heard that Mr. B. had just returned from a visit to the border, where he had been inspecting a deposit of mineral earth which had been discovered in the vicinity of the Point Lepreau Lighthouse, in New Brunswick.

THE PALM LARKS.—Mr. Geo. Robertson was interviewed this morning by the Globe which heard that Mr. B. had just returned from a visit to the border, where he had been inspecting a deposit of mineral earth which had been discovered in the vicinity of the Point Lepreau Lighthouse, in New Brunswick.

THE PALM LARKS.—Mr. Geo. Robertson was interviewed this morning by the Globe which heard that Mr. B. had just returned from a visit to the border, where he had been inspecting a deposit of mineral earth which had been discovered in the vicinity of the Point Lepreau Lighthouse, in New Brunswick.

THE PALM LARKS.—Mr. Geo. Robertson was interviewed this morning by the Globe which heard that Mr. B. had just returned from a visit to the border, where he had been inspecting a deposit of mineral earth which had been discovered in the vicinity of the Point Lepreau Lighthouse, in New Brunswick.

THE PALM LARKS.—Mr. Geo. Robertson was interviewed this morning by the Globe which heard that Mr. B. had just returned from a visit to the border, where he had been inspecting a deposit of mineral earth which had been discovered in the vicinity of the Point Lepreau Lighthouse, in New Brunswick.

THE PALM LARKS.—Mr. Geo. Robertson was interviewed this morning by the Globe which heard that Mr. B. had just returned from a visit to the border, where he had been inspecting a deposit of mineral earth which had been discovered in the vicinity of the Point Lepreau Lighthouse, in New Brunswick.

THE PALM LARKS.—Mr. Geo. Robertson was interviewed this morning by the Globe which heard that Mr. B. had just returned from a visit to the border, where he had been inspecting a deposit of mineral earth which had been discovered in the vicinity of the Point Lepreau Lighthouse, in New Brunswick.

THE PALM LARKS.—Mr. Geo. Robertson was interviewed this morning by the Globe which heard that Mr. B. had just returned from a visit to the border, where he had been inspecting a deposit of mineral earth which had been discovered in the vicinity of the Point Lepreau Lighthouse, in New Brunswick.

THE PALM LARKS.—Mr. Geo. Robertson was interviewed this morning by the Globe which heard that Mr. B. had just returned from a visit to the border, where he had been inspecting a deposit of mineral earth which had been discovered in the vicinity of the Point Lepreau Lighthouse, in New Brunswick.

THE PALM LARKS.—Mr. Geo. Robertson was interviewed this morning by the Globe which heard that Mr. B. had just returned from a visit to the border, where he had been inspecting a deposit of mineral earth which had been discovered in the vicinity of the Point Lepreau Lighthouse, in New Brunswick.

THE PALM LARKS.—Mr. Geo. Robertson was interviewed this morning by the Globe which heard that Mr. B. had just returned from a visit to the border, where he had been inspecting a deposit of mineral earth which had been discovered in the vicinity of the Point Lepreau Lighthouse, in New Brunswick.

THE PALM LARKS.—Mr. Geo. Robertson was interviewed this morning by the Globe which heard that Mr. B. had just returned from a visit to the border, where he had been inspecting a deposit of mineral earth which had been discovered in the vicinity of the Point Lepreau Lighthouse, in New Brunswick.

THE PALM LARKS.—Mr. Geo. Robertson was interviewed this morning by the Globe which heard that Mr. B. had just returned from a visit to the border, where he had been inspecting a deposit of mineral earth which had been discovered in the vicinity of the Point Lepreau Lighthouse, in New Brunswick.

THE PALM LARKS.—Mr. Geo. Robertson was interviewed this morning by the Globe which heard that Mr. B. had just returned from a visit to the border, where he had been inspecting a deposit of mineral earth which had been discovered in the vicinity of the Point Lepreau Lighthouse, in New Brunswick.

THE PALM LARKS.—Mr. Geo. Robertson was interviewed this morning by the Globe which heard that Mr. B. had just returned from a visit to the border, where he had been inspecting a deposit of mineral earth which had been discovered in the vicinity of the Point Lepreau Lighthouse, in New Brunswick.

THE PALM LARKS.—Mr. Geo. Robertson was interviewed this morning by the Globe which heard that Mr. B. had just returned from a visit to the border, where he had been inspecting a deposit of mineral earth which had been discovered in the vicinity of the Point Lepreau Lighthouse, in New Brunswick.

THE PALM LARKS.—Mr. Geo. Robertson was interviewed this morning by the Globe which heard that Mr. B. had just returned from a visit to the border, where he had been inspecting a deposit of mineral earth which had been discovered in the vicinity of the Point Lepreau Lighthouse, in New Brunswick.

THE PALM LARKS.—Mr. Geo. Robertson was interviewed this morning by the Globe which heard that Mr. B. had just returned from a visit to the border, where he had been inspecting a deposit of mineral earth which had been discovered in the vicinity of the Point Lepreau Lighthouse, in New Brunswick.

THE PALM LARKS.—Mr. Geo. Robertson was interviewed this morning by the Globe which heard that Mr. B. had just returned from a visit to the border, where he had been inspecting a deposit of mineral earth which had been discovered in the vicinity of the Point Lepreau Lighthouse, in New Brunswick.

THE PALM LARKS.—Mr. Geo. Robertson was interviewed this morning by the Globe which heard that Mr. B. had just returned from a visit to the border, where he had been inspecting a deposit of mineral earth which had been discovered in the vicinity of the Point Lepreau Lighthouse, in New Brunswick.

THE PALM LARKS.—Mr. Geo. Robertson was interviewed this morning by the Globe which heard that Mr. B. had just returned from a visit to the border, where he had been inspecting a deposit of mineral earth which had been discovered in the vicinity of the Point Lepreau Lighthouse, in New Brunswick.

THE PALM LARKS.—Mr. Geo. Robertson was interviewed this morning by the Globe which heard that Mr. B. had just returned from a visit to the border, where he had been inspecting a deposit of mineral earth which had been discovered in the vicinity of the Point Lepreau Lighthouse, in New Brunswick.

THE PALM LARKS.—Mr. Geo. Robertson was interviewed this morning by the Globe which heard that Mr. B. had just returned from a visit to the border, where he had been inspecting a deposit of mineral earth which had been discovered in the vicinity of the Point Lepreau Lighthouse, in New Brunswick.

THE PALM LARKS.—Mr. Geo. Robertson was interviewed this morning by the Globe which heard that Mr. B. had just returned from a visit to the border, where he had been inspecting a deposit of mineral earth which had been discovered in the vicinity of the Point Lepreau Lighthouse, in New Brunswick.

THE PALM LARKS.—Mr. Geo. Robertson was interviewed this morning by the Globe which heard that Mr. B. had just returned from a visit to the border, where he had been inspecting a deposit of mineral earth which had been discovered in the vicinity of the Point Lepreau Lighthouse, in New Brunswick.

THE PALM LARKS.—Mr. Geo. Robertson was interviewed this morning by the Globe which heard that Mr. B. had just returned from a visit to the border, where he had been inspecting a deposit of mineral earth which had been discovered in the vicinity of the Point Lepreau Lighthouse, in New Brunswick.

THE PALM LARKS.—Mr. Geo. Robertson was interviewed this morning by the Globe which heard that Mr. B. had just returned from a visit to the border, where he had been inspecting a deposit of mineral earth which had been discovered in the vicinity of the Point Lepreau Lighthouse, in New Brunswick.

THE PALM LARKS.—Mr. Geo. Robertson was interviewed this morning by the Globe which heard that Mr. B. had just returned from a visit to the border, where he had been inspecting a deposit of mineral earth which had been discovered in the vicinity of the Point Lepreau Lighthouse, in New Brunswick.

THE PALM LARKS.—Mr. Geo. Robertson was interviewed this morning by the Globe which heard that Mr. B. had just returned from a visit to the border, where he had been inspecting a deposit of mineral earth which had been discovered in the vicinity of the Point Lepreau Lighthouse, in New Brunswick.

THE PALM LARKS.—Mr. Geo. Robertson was interviewed this morning by the Globe which heard that Mr. B. had just returned from a visit to the border, where he had been inspecting a deposit of mineral earth which had been discovered in the vicinity of the Point Lepreau Lighthouse, in New Brunswick.

THE PALM LARKS.—Mr. Geo. Robertson was interviewed this morning by the Globe which heard that Mr. B. had just returned from a visit to the border, where he had been inspecting a deposit of mineral earth which had been discovered in the vicinity of the Point Lepreau Lighthouse, in New Brunswick.

THE PALM LARKS.—Mr. Geo. Robertson was interviewed this morning by the Globe which heard that Mr. B. had just returned from a visit to the border, where he had been inspecting a deposit of mineral earth which had been discovered in the vicinity of the Point Lepreau Lighthouse, in New Brunswick.

THE PALM LARKS.—Mr. Geo. Robertson was interviewed this morning by the Globe which heard that Mr. B. had just returned from a visit to the border, where he had been inspecting a deposit of mineral earth which had been discovered in the vicinity of the Point Lepreau Lighthouse, in New Brunswick.

THE PALM LARKS.—Mr. Geo. Robertson was interviewed this morning by the Globe which heard that Mr. B. had just returned from a visit to the border, where he had been inspecting a deposit of mineral earth which had been discovered in the vicinity of the Point Lepreau Lighthouse, in New Brunswick.

THE PALM LARKS.—Mr. Geo. Robertson was interviewed this morning by the Globe which heard that Mr. B. had just returned from a visit to the border, where he had been inspecting a deposit of mineral earth which had been discovered in the vicinity of the Point Lepreau Lighthouse, in New Brunswick.

THE PALM LARKS.—Mr. Geo. Robertson was interviewed this morning by the Globe which heard that Mr. B. had just returned from a visit to the border, where he had been inspecting a deposit of mineral earth which had been discovered in the vicinity of the Point Lepreau Lighthouse, in New Brunswick.

THE PALM LARKS.—Mr. Geo. Robertson was interviewed this morning by the Globe which heard that Mr. B. had just returned from a visit to the border, where he had been inspecting a deposit of mineral earth which had been discovered in the vicinity of the Point Lepreau Lighthouse, in New Brunswick.

THE PALM LARKS.—Mr. Geo. Robertson was interviewed this morning by the Globe which heard that Mr. B. had just returned from a visit to the border, where he had been inspecting a deposit of mineral earth which had been discovered in the vicinity of the Point Lepreau Lighthouse, in New Brunswick.

THE PALM LARKS.—Mr. Geo. Robertson was interviewed this morning by the Globe which heard that Mr. B. had just returned from a visit to the border, where he had been inspecting a deposit of mineral earth which had been discovered in the vicinity of the Point Lepreau Lighthouse, in New Brunswick.

New Advertisements. New Advertisements.

Moosewood BLOOD AND TONIC BITTERS. A B.R. has been known as the great APPETIZER and TONIC, if you are a bright feeling and good appetite when you are feeling languid and poor you will find a cure, they will regulate the bowels and cure dyspepsia, and by their tonic properties to the digestive organs prevent this troublesome complaint.

THE BRIDGETOWN FOUNDRY COMPANY. THE above Foundry Company in addition to their general stock of CASTINGS, TUNBRIDGE, IRON, STEEL, and BRASS, also manufactures all the celebrated PORTLAND CEMENT, and all the machinery and tools used in the iron and brass trades.

Halo. WELL, WHAT IS IT? Why we want to inform you that we have just received the Largest Stock of Plated Ware, ever imported into this town, at one time. We can't describe it, nor can we make you believe that such beautiful Castors, Cake Baskets, Pickle Dishes, Fruit Dishes, Butter Dishes, Napkin Rings, Spoons, Knives, Forks, Etc.

W. G. PARSONS, B. A. Barrister, Solicitor, E. C. MIDDLETON, - N. S. Office in A. BEALS' STORE, 1041 - "B" No. 104. In the County Court, 1886. Before JAMES BLOOMFIELD, Plaintiff.

SOLUBLE Pacific GUANO! NOW IS THE TIME TO BUY! A LARGE quantity of Soluble Pacific Guano, used every fall for the best results. The most satisfactory fertilizer for the growth of wheat, corn, clover, and other crops. It is the best fertilizer for the soil, and it is the best fertilizer for the plants.

FRESH STOCK OF GOLD & SILVER WATCHES, RINGS, BROOCHES, EARRINGS, CHARMS. AT PRICES TO SUIT THE TIMES. BRIDGETOWN JEWELRY STORE, J. H. SANCTON, PROPRIETOR.

SEVEY'S EAST INDIA LINIMENT! Internal and External REMEDY, FOR MAN AND BEAST. The receipt of which has been obtained from a native of India. It is the best remedy for all the ailments of the East India trade, and it is the best remedy for all the ailments of the West India trade.

Sam'l. FitzRandolph, FRESH & SALTED MEATS, PORK, HAM, BACON, TRIPE, Etc. ALL VARIETIES OF COUNTRY PRODUCE. Daily supplied by the subscriber, a cargo of SMITH'S & HOUSE COAL, from Spring Hill Mine.

OLD MINE SYDNEY COAL. HARD COAL as usual, soft and clean. Former customers and those wishing to be supplied, would please send their orders with the name of the subscriber.

SEND TO THIS OFFICE FOR BILL HEADS, CARDS, STIFFS, ETC. W. A. CRAIG, Manager.

THE above Foundry Company in addition to their general stock of CASTINGS, TUNBRIDGE, IRON, STEEL, and BRASS, also manufactures all the celebrated PORTLAND CEMENT, and all the machinery and tools used in the iron and brass trades.