EDDY'S WASHTUBS of Indurated Fibreware

Are far better than old-style wooden or galvanized tubs. Yet they cost no more. They cannot leak, because they are made all in one piece, without seams or cracks or staves.

So light and easy to carry, yet so strong, they never become dented or battered. They do not absorb heat, therefore, the contents remain hot longer.

Eddy's Twin Beaver Washboards are also of Indurated Fibreware—no metal—double-sided. Save time by the special clamp which loosens dirt easily without wear on the clothes.

MA AND HER AUTO

Before we take an auto ride Pa says to Ma, "My Dear, Now just remember I don't need assistance from the rear; If you will just keep still back there and hold it a check your front, I'll take you where you want to go and get you back all right. Remember that my hearing's good and also I'm not blind, And I can drive this car without suggestions from behind." Ma promises that she'll keep still, then she says gaily start; But soon she notices ahead a peddler and his cart. "You'd better toot your horn," says she, "to let him know we're near. He might turn out," and Pa replies: "Just shriek at him, my dear." And then he adds: "Some day dough guy will make a lot of dough By putting horns on tonneau seats for women folks to blow."

A little further on. Ma says: "He signalled for a turn." And Pa says: "Did he?" in a tone that's hot enough to burn. "Oh, there's a boy on roller skates," Ma cries, "now do go slow, I'm sure he doesn't see our car." And Pa says: "I dunno, I think I don't need glasses yet, but really it may be. That I am blind an' cannot see what's right in front of me."

If Pa should speed the car a bit some rigs to hurry past, Ma says: "Now do be careful! You are driving much too fast." An' all the time she's pointing out the dangers of the street, An' keeps him posted on the roads where street cars he will meet. Last night when we got safely home Pa sighed, an' said: "My dear, I'm sure we've all enjoyed the drive you gave us from the rear."

COULD SING FOR JOY, SHE STATES

Sydney Woman Praises Tanlac For Relieving Her Three Years Suffering.

"It's such a relief to be free from sick headaches and to feel really well that I could sing for joy," said Mrs. John Ross, of 43 Henry Street, Sydney, N. S.

"For the past three years I have had so much sickness that I thought I should have to give up altogether. After every meal my food would sour and I would blot up with gas until I nearly choked. I often had spells of biliousness and terrible headaches that kept me in bed for days at a time. I would toss about for hours at night unable to sleep, and it was often two or three in the morning before I could close my eyes. I became very much depressed about my condition, for although I tried nearly every medicine under the sun I could get no relief.

"Then a few months ago I decided to give Tanlac a trial. The very first bottle started me on the road to recovery and I've been progressing ever since. The depression left me and I began to brighten up. I could notice myself getting stronger every day, and now, after taking four bottles I am a perfectly well woman. My appetite is just splendid and I can eat anything I want and never have a touch of indigestion or biliousness. It is a rare thing for me to have a headache, and I sleep so soundly at night that I get up in the morning feeling as fresh as a daisy."

THE TORCH BEARERS SONG

(Tune—Clementine)

We're Torch Bearers, We're "Torch Bearers," Sending light so far and wide, Would you like to know our motto? The word "LUXIS," is our guide.

T for Training, S for Service, U and I on either side, X for Jesus, He does teach us, 'Twas for us He came and died.

Boys are, but let us tell you, 'Twill not be long before we're men. Then we'll fight sir, for the right, sir, With our deeds, our speech, our pen.

In this world so old and sinful, There are dragons yet to fight, Frightful monsters, will they daunt us, In the cause of Truth and Right? Like King Arthur, like King Artlaur, Hero in the days of old, We will gird on our armor, Knights we'll be so true and bold

We will ride abroad, redressing, Human wrongs that hold men down, Speak no slander, stand for candor On all evils we will frown.

Love one maiden, love her truly Worship her by golden deeds, Till we win her as a Knight, sir, In the days of Galahad.

Teach high thoughts, and high desires, Loving all that makes a man, High and noble, true and mighty, Such are needed in the land.

DRAMATIC CLUB A SUCCESS

(Kentville Chronicle)

Theatregoers must have expected something unusual and enlivening when they came out en masse to greet and welcome the Kentville Dramatic Club Wednesday evening in their initial play "Among the Breakers," a drama in two acts, by George M. Baker. In fact, it was a record night audience, with standing room only at the rise of the curtain. The play was staged in aid of the Kentville Citizen's Band Fund, and before the play the Band gave a splendid concert in front of the theatre.

The scene of the play is a room in the light-keeper's house at Fairpoint, on a stormy night. It was well staged, the storm scene with thunder, lightning and rain being very effective.

The characters of the cast were: Biddy Bean (Miss Eva Ryan), a typical Irish maid, who was excellent in her part, taken with the innocent Larry Devine (F. W. C. Bailey) a red-headed Hibernian from the Emerald Isle; Mother Carey, a reputed fortune teller (Miss Olive Reaves); David Murray, keeper of Fairpoint Light (W. C. Hiltz); and Hon. Bruce Hunter, Capt. of the Pacer (A. H. Douglas), acquitted themselves most creditably in the tragic part of the play, their performance being equal to professional ones. Clarence Hunter, Hunter's ward and a jaunty yachtman, was well taken by Carl Phinney, the admiral of the Daze; Forsythe, who was charming, romantic and well adapted to her part. Miss Bess Starbrihl cast up by the waves (Miss Juanita Bishop), was a most captivating sea nymph, and won the masculine heart by her jaunty manner and bravery. The versatile Peter Paragaph, a newspaper reporter (W. B. Saunders), was an amusing Englishman in search of sensation, and was extricated from one difficulty only to become again entangled, and was really fine in his special part. Scud, Hunter's colored servant (E. W. Forman) created hilarity throughout the play. He was literally a "scream," and scored on every appearance. The climax of the mirth was in his comedy scene with Larry Devine the red-headed Irishman, who was so badly frightened by the appearance of a revolver as to have his hair leave his head completely.

The entire cast was splendid and worthy of the highest praise, and deserved the hearty applause received. Kentville should indeed be proud of its Dramatic Club, which in its first performance excelled anything ever presented here in the amateur line, and in most cases the professional plays as well.

A pleasing feature was the clog dancing between the acts by Messrs. McGilvary and Skaling which was first class and delighted the audience.

Especially enjoyable were the numbers rendered by the Kentville Citizens' Band, which played for the first time the new waltz, "Smiles and Dimples," and the popular march "Colonel Bogey" eliciting great applause.

The success of the play was in great measure due to Mr. E. W. Forman, the director, who spared no effort to give the people an enjoyable entertainment also to every member of the cast who supported him ably. Praise is also due to Mr. A. H. Douglas, the scenic artist.

At the close of the entertainment the artists, with a number of friends were delightfully entertained and refreshed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Hiltz.

"Didn't young Grabcoen go away to college last year?" "Yes, he went to Harvard." "Fine institution." "So it is, but young Grabcoen carried along a Japanese valet, a motor-car and a butler. He may have picked up a few crumbs of knowledge, but I doubt it."

Leg that Wouldn't Heal

"Ever since a boy of fourteen," writes Mr. John Redmond, of West Frampton, Que., "I had trouble with a bad leg. I used many remedies. Though some appeared to heal the ulcer for a while, it always broke out again as bad as ever. This last time I suffered continuously for nine years, and the old remedies had absolutely no effect.

"The limb was in an awful state when someone advised me to get Zam-Buk right away. I had only used this herbal healer a few days when I began to see great improvement. So I continued the treatment, for even Zam-Buk, needed time to have complete effect. However, I am glad to tell you that the leg was eventually thoroughly healed. Never a sign of the ulcer since."
