'MESSENGER' PATTERNS

FOR THE BUSY MOTHER.

NO. 1121.—CHILD'S UNDERWEAR.
Mme. Baker's New Patterns.

With the young as well as the old the foundation, or the part that does not show, plays a very important part. The little set of underclothes made from this pattern, No. 1121, is of nainsook and fine embroidery. The waist attached to the skirt is of the material doubled. Both waists are cut in such a way that all of the weight of the garment is thrown upon the shoulders, and while close about the neck and armholes will not cut or bind. It is an advantage to have the white skirt and waist joined, as it does away with the set of buttons and button holes. The waist to be worn underneath may also be a top for a flannel skirt, though the use of warm knit union suits and muslin drawers and skirts is advised. The pattern is made in 2, 4 and 6 year sizes, and 3 1-2 yards of nainsook will be required for the set.

Whenever Ramsay's Paints are applied to any house in town, that house immediately comes into prominence for style and beauty. These paints are sold by your dealer and his price is just right for good honest paints. Ask to see Color Card. Write A. Ramsay & Son Co., Montreal, for designs No. 5, showing painted homes.—Advt.

Religious News.

A Teachers' Congress will be a unique part of the International Sunday School Convention programme at Louisville, Sunday afternoon, June 21, in the Union M. E. Church. Rev. Herbert M. Moninger, of Cincinnati, Ohio, Teacher Training Secretary and Editor of Lesson Helps of the Christian Church, will be in charge. There are 1,500,000 Sunday School Teachers in the United States and Canada, and the influence of this Congress will go out into every part of the International field.

At the last annual students' camp of the United Provinces between 60 and 70 delegates were present. The daily programme was much like that of a students' conference at Northfield. In an account sent to the 'Church Missionary Society Gazette,' the writer says:

'Missionary meetings in the home land are usually an inspiration, but I doubt if I have ever felt more deeply stirred than at the missionary meeting the night when the claims of the National Indian Missionary Society were brought before the students. Only Indians spoke. A new hope has inspired us all, the vision of India's evangelization is no empty dream. Sixty students are going back to their colleges determined to 'make Jesus King,' and by God's grace to win at least one non-Christian for Christ during the coming year and bring him to camp next year. Here is a power that can shake India.'

Joseph Chamberlain, one of the leading statesmen of Great Britain, has this to say on intemperance:

No statistics are needed to show our people that temperance reform lies at the bottom of political, social and moral progress of England. Drink is the curse of the country; it ruins the fortunes, it injures the health, it destroys the lives of one out of every twenty of our population. If I could destroy to-morrow the desire for strong drink in the people of England what changes we should see! We should see our taxes reduced by millions sterling; we should see our jails and workhouses empty; we should see more lives saved in twelve months than are consumed in a century of bitter and savage war.
